DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

Medical properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutive Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that, by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the description of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Coll. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass,

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bilious Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD SWAIM'S STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

Daguerreotypes.

GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,

No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel, making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful

STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Peduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green st. Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

Sold at 241 Green street, New York.

NEW-YORK POLITICS.

The noise and confusion among the parties in the State of New York, is almost indescribable. No effort at description has amused us more than one by Mr. Dickinson, delivered in a late Hard Convention. We extract a few paragraphs, with the notion that they may amuse our readers as well as ourselves.

"It has been said by some paper curious in such matters, that about fourteen organizations are now before the public, claiming its consideration in the coming election. It is unnecessary that I should go through with the list. I will, however, mention political organizations. The Democratic party—the Hards, the National Democrats—are one party; the Whig party, made up of factions and isms, which, in the language of the sheriff's advertisement, are too numerous to be mentioned—[laughter]—is another. The 'Softs' or Administration party is the third, and the questions they would fain press upon us are not the great questions of government which we have been accustomed to discuss, but the questions they attempt to force upon us are such as have induced a facetious member of the present administration to call the present struggle 'the battle of the beer.' [Laughter.] It is said emphatically, and with some truth, that the issues to the present election are 'Bronson and good liquor,' 'Seymour and poor liquor,' and 'Clarke and no liquor at all;' [renewed laughter] and these propositions have entered largely into the political elements of our state, and are to receive a great share of the public discussion. I had almost forgotten to add that there is another important issue raised as I have seen by some of the public prints—a rather 'side-bar issue,' as the lawyers would say, but nevertheless an issue of great importance. It is as to where one of the candidates was born.

I shall not attempt to discuss all of the numerous candidates in detail, but will advert to the leaders. The first is Greene C. Bronson—[loud and continued cheering] a name every citizen of New York and of the nation may be proud of. And if he should be elected, what citizen of the state is there that would not be proud of the Chief Magistrate of the first state in the Union? [Loud cheers.] He stands forth as the representative of Democratic principles, of national Democratic principles, and opposed to sectionalism, abolitionism, and temperance in its ultra signification, and in favor of those great cardinal principles upon which the Democratic party has reposed, and on which it must continue to repose for its strength and its salvation. His position has been given to the public upon the liquor issue of the day, and that position, if I may be allowed the expression, is the one which the Democratic party has always occupied. He stands in proud contrast with Myron H. Clark, who, if he was not the author, was the promoter of that most infamous measure, the Maine Liquor Law. [Loud cheers.] The Whig party (like the play-actor, who, when running down, having failed to draw full houses in his old characters, announces that he will play some half a dozen other characters in disguise,) will play Whig, Abolitionist, Maine Law, Free Democrat, Free Soil, Anti Nebraska, and how many other parts I cannot remember. [Cheers and laughter.]

They are very numerous, however, and are all represented in the person of Myron Holly Clarke, one of the candidates for Governor, who has been nominated so many times that he is fairly worn smooth with nominations.—[Laughter.] Commencing at the fashionable watering place, Saratoga, and bringing up in State Prison city, Auburn, [renewed laughter] all the factions heard of during the last half century, have congregated, and literally laden this man with honors, if nominations are an honor. And what are those nominations?—A chapter of ultraisms—disgraceful ultraisms; the Maine Liquor Law, which would have disgraced the days of John Rogers; an Abolition law that would satisfy every shade of Abolitionism, from the pale mulatto to the full breed. They have congregated all these interests for the purpose of fastening the Whig policy upon this state. How well they will succeed remains yet to be seen.

But there is the third political party—the 'Softs' or the administration party. I will not stop to discuss the merits of the Administration now, for I have no time to devote to small matters. [Loud cheers and laughter.] The Administration party of this state, like decaying substances generally, have sought some mode of preservation, and finding all other means to fail, they take refuge in alcohol, knowing that to be one of the best preservatives of decaying substances known.—[Laughter and cheers.]

They seem to be, according to all accounts, in better spirits than they were, not because the spirits bear the Custom House brand, for I believe they have taken the brand off from the casks and put it on the candidates; [renewed laughter] and their candidate for Governor, the present Governor of the state, has placed himself upon the bung-hole issue alone. [Continued laughter and cheers.] His declaration upon that subject is equal to that of his illustrious predecessor, Jack Cade, who declared that in his reign 'the three-hooped pots should have ten hoops, and that it should be made a felony to drink small beer.'—[Laughter.]

He, the champion of this interest! Well, if those who wish to know what kind of a champion he is were to ask the opinions of distillers and liquor dealers in Albany in relation to his actions at the time he was called upon to veto the bill introduced by Myron H. Clark, they will tell you that there never was a vat of beer brewed in Albany which underwent the fermentation that Gov. Seymour did before he signed the veto—that after the veto was prepared it was a long time before he could be prevailed upon to sign it. And now he comes forward as the great champion of the liquor interest of the state, and hopes to gain a victory upon that ground. And what a proud victory that would be for the Democratic party, or even for the Soft party—a victory which would have to be estimated by the gallon and measured by the quart. [Laugh.]"

THE END NOT YET.—Once more the predictions of religious enthusiasts, that this world of ours was on a certain day to end, have proved untrue. "Not a generation has passed since Christ came in Judea, but some sect has expected his reappearance; and to appoint days and even hours when he would be seen in the clouds of heaven, was as common a thousand years ago as now. It tells but little in favor of the intelligence of the race, that such a theory could be received by so many, every ten or twenty years, century after century, and the succeeding generations be no wiser from the experience of their fathers; but so it has been, and it were foolish to suppose that yet another day, and a hundred others, will not hereafter be fixed for the destruction of the world, as much as in 1843, which was to be "the year of Jubilee," or 1854, when "the saints should sing their sorrows o'er." The excitement this year has been as great in some places, as in 1843. First it was thought by a few that the end might come in the Spring, at the time of the eclipse of the sun; but if not then, many said, certainly on the 10th day of the 7th month, which was about the first of November of our year. As that time approached their faith grew strong. With the heat and drought of Summer the world was drying for the conflagration; and when the rain fell it was only a shower. For a few days past, in those towns where they had formed societies, the excitement has been intense. In Salem, for instance, they have had daily and nightly gatherings, crowded with believers and unbelievers, of the wildest kind—some have been baptised, some have neglected their business and beggared their families just on the eve of a cold winter, some have given the farewell to their friends and sat for hours each day, gazing into the air and stretching their eyes to the utmost heavens, expecting the reappearing, but the appointed hour has come and gone, and yet all things are as they have been since the fathers fell asleep. The world lives on, and its future will be as long as its past; and these scenes are to be acted over many times more.

Fortunately, however, for this neighborhood, we were saved from this excitement. We do not know of a single person who "came into time," as they term it, in this city. Their camp meeting failed to produce any effect, and by those who believe in the literal fulfilment of the scriptures and the personal appearance of Christ—such as the Second Adventists, this excitement was as little favored as by those who believe that that advent long since took place.—Newburyport Her.

If Christ did not pray for an impossibility, when he said:—"Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven," is it not high time the world should know the fact?

MARRIAGE IN JAIL.—On Tuesday night was married in jail, by Mr. Bartlett, the keeper, who is a Justice of the Peace, Cyrus H. Dill to Miss Cornelia N. S. Gray. The bridegroom was taken into custody in Maine, on a charge of robbing the bride. He was committed to jail for the larceny, but as a wife cannot testify against her husband, and as she is the main witness, it is probable the accused will be discharged. Dill has heretofore borne a good character.—Boston Cour.

CONTEMPT.—The Boston Courier of Saturday says:

The case of Cyrus H. Dill, charged with robbing Miss Cordelia N. S. Gray—whom he married, after his arrest, in jail—came up by assignment, and the counsel for the defence moved for a discharge of the prisoner, on the ground that the wife, the chief witness of the case, could not testify against her husband.—The Court considered the act of the Jailer, in performing the marriage ceremony, and thus defrauding justice, as having a little the appearance of contempt of Court. As the law stood, however, the Court was of opinion that defendant must be discharged. Dill was liberated.

The Judge probably has exalted ideas of dignity, especially of that which is covered by his own wig and gown; but the jailer need not be frightened.

WHERE DO THE PAUPERS COME FROM.—Massachusetts has more State paupers than any other State in the Union, but few of them are native born. Of the 14,811 supported by the State, last year, 10,018 came from England and Ireland; and of the 26,114 relieved by the towns, 20,000 were of foreign birth. The pauper tax for 1853 was about a million dollars. It is found that the foreign inmates of the Insane Asylums and prisons, are relatively as numerous as in the Alms Houses. It is fair to presume, however, that these results come as much from the bad liquor we sell to foreigners, as from any other cause.—Newburyport Herald.

True as a book, every word of it: and it is probable that the most of the foreigners drink in shops kept by their own countrymen. This was the case in Portland; where we are happy to learn the pauperism has greatly diminished by partially cutting off the supplies of the bad liquor.

A new political movement is on foot in Pennsylvania, which the Philadelphia Ledger thus notices:

"The old organizations of party being pretty well broken into by the late elections, reorganizations under new titles are now being formed. The American party is made up of Whigs, Democrats and Natives. As antagonistic to this party the 'Constitutional' party is being formed in the city and county, with clubs in each ward as auxiliary to it. This party is mainly composed of members of the Democratic party."

Ex-Vice President Dallas, who was consulted respecting this movement, has expressed his approval of it in a letter which is published in the Ledger.

MIASMA.—In Washington last week, two ladies, nieces of Gen. Stephenson, and wives of clerks in the departments, were taken suddenly sick and died; their mother was also attacked; the cause was that the house stood over a common sewer! When will the laws of health be regarded?

LOCAL.

REMEMBER THE POOR.

Winter is coming fast; and with it will come privation, shivering and want. Sorrowing widows, sad and weeping mothers, hungry and cold children, will be among us during the dreary months which are coming. How abundant are the arrangements we are making for our own personal and social comfort and pleasure. The bin is full of coal; the wood-house is full of wood; we have barrels of potatoes, and apples, and flour, and resources for all reasonable prospective need. And then how ample are our arrangements for pleasure in other channels. Note especially the two courses of Lectures, the beginnings of which have set the community all astir. Probably two thousand dollars will be spent by this community for the single matter of lectures in these two courses, to say nothing of single lectures and exhibitions, of more or less attraction, which will draw on the pockets of our community. We say nothing of course against this; the lectures are deemed necessary; but then we should not leave the other unattended to. If we are comfortable and happy, in all possible social arrangements, the more is the reason for contributing to those around us who have it not in their power to administer to themselves. We are not pleading now in behalf of pauperism; or for the purpose of prompting the people to the bestowment of promiscuous charities. But, as there are around us those whom Providence has not blest as the rest of us are blest; it becomes us as men, as citizens, as christians,—as bound to each other in all social ties, to inquire into the want, real want in our midst, and make a contribution to meet in some sort, its demands. How many are there in our community, who do not aspire to the luxury of a Lecture? How many who will not aspire to the comfort of a warm home, or comfortable clothing, or a plentiful table, during the winter? And if we neglect them, when by a thought, a serious thought in the case, we may find it entirely in our power to systematically and substantially relieve them, the reflection will come home to us with painful force—"We are verily guilty concerning our brother." The City Mission is deserving the support of the community; the City Missionary is worthy of the confidence of all; and through this channel, and in the hands of this agent, we may do an incalculable amount of good to others, and secure the approval of conscience in the discharge of a social duty. We are sure the people will reflect, and as the result of reflection, we hope to see the winter gifts for the poor coming into the treasury of the Mission. M.

☞ Having been present Saturday evening at the first lesson or basis of mnemotechny, by Mr. Armes, we cannot refrain from expressing our convictions of the benefits of his science, and would commend the subject to the attention of our citizens, particularly the young.—It is very simple, and by its use it would seem next to impossible to forget the important subjects to which it applies. A repetition of the first lesson is to be given for additional pupils. Prof. A. has quite a large and appreciative class.

SOUTH MILL POND.—We are informed on good authority that the South Mills and Privilege are not to be sold for 3000 or $4000, but rather at double the sum named; they would not have been sold for $5000 before the late repair and enlargement of the Mill. Our correspondent N. must therefore amend his calculation so far.

EXETER LYCEUM.—At the Annual Meeting, the Exeter Lyceum for this season, was organized by the choice of the following officers: J. G. Hoyt, President; N. Gordon and F. Lane, Vice Presidents; George Sullivan, Secretary.

DISAPPOINTMENT.—The Newburyport Herald of Saturday says,

A large audience assembled at the City Hall, last evening, to hear the Introductory lecture of the Lyceum course, which was expected to be given by Hon. N. P. Banks. After waiting till 8 o'clock, until all the trains from Boston, on both roads, were in, it was announced that Mr. Banks had not arrived, and the meeting adjourned. For a disappointed audience, so large in number, and miscellaneous in character, we have never seen one disperse in such good humor. There was no discontent or ill temper manifested on the part of any one.

ANSWER to Arithmetical Problem in Wednesday's Chronicle:

The length to cut No. 1 Board is 14 and 6 feet = 20 feet. The length to cut No. 2 Board is 13 and 7 feet = 20 feet. The length to cut No. 3 Board is 11 and 9 feet = 20 feet.

14 feet	= 8 13-15	square feet.
13 "	= 7 12-15	"
7 "	= 8 13-15	"
6 "	= 7 12-15	"
11 "	= 8.4 1-10	"
9 "	= 8.3 9-10	"

Each Board before it is cut contains 16.8 square feet.

ONLY A STEP.—The Concord Capital Reporter says, of the late Free-soil Convention at Concord:

The convention was quite full, and we were surprised to see there a good many old democrats, whose first appearance it was in a free-soil convention. Disgusted, as they were with the administration, they ought to have taken a step in the opposite direction, and ranged under the banner of the Old Guard. The administration ground, being now the middle ground between democracy and free-soilism, they could have stepped one way just as easily as the other.

The Lexington (Ky.) Statesman announces the death of London Ferrill, a colored man, pastor of the First Baptist Church of colored persons in that place. He was born in Virginia; but after having obtained his freedom, emigrated to Kentucky, where he built up one of the largest churches in the United States—his communicants numbering, recently, 1828. He baptized during his ministry upwards of 5000 persons.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—It is understood that Willard Hall of Missouri will be appointed Governor of Nebraska, vice Burt, deceased.

Mexican Boundary Commission.—The Star learns that Major Emery, the United States Mexican Boundary Commissioner, had despatched one of his assistants ahead of the main corps, so as to reach El Paso on the 30th of September, in order to start the boundary survey at the date provided in the treaty. Mr. Wheaton, the assistant, had reached El Paso on the 15th of October, ten days before the appointed time, but up to the 25th he had received no information of or from the Mexican Commissioner, beyond the vague rumor that he and his party had been hemmed in by hostile Indians, and would not probably reach El Paso until November. The party of the American Commissioner, with their property in charge, were at last accounts two days march from San Antonio de Bexar.

BUFFALO, Nov. 2.—The Coroner's investigation into the late accident on the Great Western Railroad is still continued. The watchman, Patrick Pine, who is stated to have told the engineer of the gravel train that the express train had passed, has returned and given himself up. He denies the charge, and asserts that he told the engineer that the train had not passed, and that the engineer told him, in reply, to "go to ——." The evidence is very contradictory.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 2—9 1-2 P. M.—A dreadful fire is raging here. The greater portion of the north part of the town is in ruins. At the present time it is impossible to state the extent of the damage. The Tremont House, the Congregational Church, and the entire block of buildings between them, are destroyed. Six bridges are in flames. The Buffalo Fire Department is on its way here.

ENGLAND.—The English papers publish a list of the private soldiers killed and wounded at Alma. The national subscription for the sick and wounded had reached £6000 sterling, and a regiment of women had been organized as nurses, and would be sent immediately to Scutari.

Teachers' Institute.
THE FALL SESSION of this Institute will be holden at the Academy in CHESTER, to commence on MONDAY, Nov. 13, at 10 o'clock, A.M., and continue through the week.
The services of the following experienced Instructors have already been engaged:—
Prof. William Russell, in Reading and Grammar;
" S. S. Houghton, of the N. E. Normal Institute, in Mathematics & Geography;
" Hermann Krusi, in Drawing;
Calvin Cutter, M.D., in Physiology and Hygiene;
Mr. Henry Jones, in Penmanship;
Prof. Sanborn Tenney, of the N. E. Normal Institute, Lecturer on Geology;
A Teacher of Music will also be in attendance.
Those who shall attend the Institute are requested to bring with them a Bible and Dictionary.—Each member will also have his or her name and residence and the number of sessions of the Institute previously attended, plainly written on a card or slip of paper, ready for delivery, on entering the Institute.
The citizens of Chester have made ample arrangements for the accommodation of the members with board, &c. at reasonable prices. Messrs. Francis V. Dow, S. F. Learnard and S. M. Moore have been appointed a Committee of Arrangements, to whom application may be made on arrival.
Carriages will be in readiness, on Monday the 13th, upon the arrival of the morning and noon trains at Derry, on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad; and at Raymond, on the arrival of the same trains on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, to convey to Chester those going to the Institute by those Roads. A daily stage also connects at Derry with the noon trains on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad.
It is hoped that those proposing to attend the Institute, will avail themselves of the facilities for conveyance offered on the first day of the session, as it is desirable to commence with full numbers.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undertake a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have come so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

The medical properties of there waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary tumor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutive Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metallic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that I believe my physicians suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

THIS is a new COOK STOVE made by A. C. Barstow & Co. (Manufacturers of the celebrated Bay State Stove) and is intended for Wood or Coal, and is in every respect a superior Stove.—The castings are smooth, heavy and durable, and the operation is perfect. The oven will heat with Coal as soon as any other oven with Wood. A number of these Stoves have been put in operation in this city this season, and have given perfect satisfaction.

Persons wishing to purchase the best Stove in the market would do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Every Stove warranted.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, late Middle st., Now Cherry st., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

POWER OF THE IMAGINATION.—Dr Noble, in a lecture at Manchester on the Dynamic Influences, told a story of M. Boutibouse, a French savant, in illustration of the power of imagination. Dr. Noble says:

"M. Boutibouse served in Napoleon's army and was present at many engagements during the early part of the present century. At the battle of Wagram, in 1809, he was engaged in the fray; the ranks around him had been terribly thinned by the shot, and at sunset he was nearly isolated. While reloading his musket he was shot down by a cannon ball. His impression was that the cannon ball had passed through his legs below the knees, separating them from the thighs, for he suddenly sank down, shortened, as he believed, to the extent of about a foot in measurement. The trunk of the body fell backwards by the shock.—Thus he lay motionless among the wounded and dead during the rest of the night, not daring to move a muscle lest the loss of blood should be fatally increased. He felt no pain, but this he attributed to the stunning effect of the shock to the brain and the nervous system. At early dawn he was aroused by one of the medical staff who came round to help the wounded. "What's the matter with you, my good fellow," said the surgeon. "Ah! touch me tenderly," replied M. Boutibouse, "I beseech you; a cannon ball has carried off my legs." The surgeon examined the limbs referred to, and then, giving him a good shake, said, with a joyous laugh, "Get up with you, you have nothing the matter with you." M. Boutibouse immediately sprang up in utter astonishment, and stood firmly on the legs which he had thought lost forever. "I felt more thankful," said M. Boutibouse, "than I had ever done in the whole course of my life before. I had not a wound about me. I had indeed been shot down by an immense cannon ball; but instead of passing through my legs, as I firmly believed it had, the ball had passed under my feet and plowed a hole in the earth beneath at least a foot in depth, into which my feet had suddenly sank, giving me the idea that I had thus been shortened by the loss of my legs." The truth of this story is vouched for by Dr. Noble.—Athenæum.

SUICIDE MANIA IN KENTUCKY.—On the 10th of November, Mrs. Guill, an aged lady residing in Scott county, Ky., was found suspended by the neck.

On the 11th, Mrs. Plunkett, of Grant county, hung herself.

On the same day, Miss Wiggles, residing in Harrison county, shot herself in the head with a rifle, not producing a fatal wound. Of the latter case, the following circumstances are given:

An acquaintance, a young lady named Lozier, called to see Miss Wiggles, and inquired who shot her. Miss Wiggles exacted of Lozier a solemn promise to kill the perpetrator of the deed, and then said it was herself and nobody else, and demanded that Miss Lozier should fulfil her promise. Wonderful to relate, on the evening of the day of this interview, Miss Lozier attempted her own life by hanging herself to a tree, but was discovered and cut down in time to save her.

NATURE AND DISEASE.—The following extract from the introductory lecture delivered by Dr. A. B. Campbell, physician in chief to the Philadelphia Hospital and Almshouse, at the reopening of that institution, to medical students for clinical instruction, last week, expresses an opinion which is, fortunately for suffering humanity, gaining ground among the medical faculty:

Nature cures disease, gentlemen,—never forget it! When you get into practice and begin to prescribe largely, you will begin to overlook that fact, and to think that yourselves and your medicines cure. As soon as you do, you begin to kill. You can modify and lead the vis medicatrix naturæ, but you cannot oppose it without injuring your patient. Hypocrates says, 'we ought not to do anything rashly, but ought often to pause, or wait, without doing anything; by this, if you do the patient no good, you will at least do him no harm.'

We saw it stated in a Boston paper, within a day or two, (says the Boston Chronicle,) that Henry A. Wise is a member of the Know-Nothing Order—the same organization, it was added, to which so many Northern Abolitionists belong. But there is a mistake in this. The New York Express says—"The Hon. Henry A. Wise fills seven or eight columns of the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, with a terrible Philippic against the Know-Nothings, and their principles. Lucky,—that slavery, existing in Virginia, gives the people there time enough in life to read. But for this, Virginians would die after they began,—and before they got through such wordy and windy publications and speeches, as Mr. Wise inflates."

Daguerreotypes.
A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be creat.d at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends he feels sure need only sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,
No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,
making those superior pictures he is noted for; at such prices as shall be satisfactory.
He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.
Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful
STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.
These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Pedduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.
A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1854.

HUNT'S MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE.—In the November number of this excellent commercial Magazine, we are pleased to observe the sermon of Rev. F. D. Huntington, of Boston, on Mercantile Integrity and its securities: also, an excellent article on the separate property of Husband and Wife; and some judicious remarks on Bankruptcy and other matters, in the Commercial Chronicle and Review.

We make the following extract:

"The shipments of breadstuffs have all largely declined since the opening of the year, but the exports of provisions have all largely increased. There will be a moderate demand for cereals for Europe, notwithstanding the abundant harvests there, but it now looks as if the supply from this country must be limited, for want of stock at the seaboard. The farmers frightened by rumors of short supplies and predictions of famine prices, which have been industriously circulated, have many of them refused to part with their wheat, and the receipts of grain at the ports have thus been greatly diminished. In addition to this, the drought has prevented many of the mills from running, and the production of flour has thus diminished. The farmers will awake to their mistake when the Spring opens, and they find the wheat on hand worth 90 cents or $1.00 per bushel, when they might have sold it for twice that amount this fall. Any cause beyond the necessities of his own family, which induces a farmer to hoard his produce, is only productive of evil."

SWINE.—If ever any business was run into the ground, the Hog trade in New York enjoys that notoriety. The price is so low, and sales so slow, that both pigs and owners are past squealing, or if they attempt it, the notes run upon such a low key that they cannot be heard beyond the walls of the pen.

We noticed a sale to-day at Bulls Head, of 90 snug, corn-fed, this State Shoats, average 120 pounds, from Wayne county, by S. W. Allerton, at 4 3 8c a pound, live weight. A drove of large well fatted Ohio hogs sold at same rate.

An Ohio drover left here a week ago to stop a drove he had ordered sent forward, but was half a day too late. They are not of a very saleable quality, though fair, but he tells us that he cannot get a man to-day to make him any kind of an offer.

Col. Radcliffe of Ohio has been in the business thirty years. He says he never saw the trade so completely blockaded as it is at this time.

What can drovers expect, to keep rushing their hogs into a market in this condition?—Do they ever read our reports? Will they read that by the Erie Railroad alone last week the receipts of hogs were 8,293? A large portion of these were from Ohio; and 4,000 pork carcasses came by the Hudson River market boats.—N. Y. Tribune.

IS THERE A PROSPECT OF CHEAP COAL?—We have been accustomed to regard the governments of our Colonial neighbors as somewhat behind the age, but certainly in the recent prompt action of the Canadian government in issueing a proclamation practically allowing their citizens to enjoy the advantage of the Reciprocity treaty, in anticipation of its going into effect, an example has been set to the authorities in Washington, which it is to be hoped the latter functionaries will soon follow. Cannot Mr. Peter G. Washington, the acting Secretary of the Treasury, induce the President to permit him to issue another circular to Collectors, extending the provisions of the recent circular about fish, so as to include all the articles enumerated in the Reciprocity treaty. What says the gentleman with the illustrious patronymic?—N. Y. Her.

COAL DUTIES.—A few years ago the idea of repealing the coal duties would have met with serious opposition from protectionist journals, but now the same papers are the strongest advocates of this measure. The whole world is laboring to remove restrictions from international commerce. Over all Europe the monopolists are losing power; and in this country, the Reciprocity treaty is favored by all parties, and is the most popular act of the present administration; while even Chinese walls fall, and Japanese exclusiveness yields to the spirit of the age. It does not terrify any body to-day, to look forward a few years, when their children will wonder at our crooked and perverse manner of raising revenue, and when Custom Houses will be matters of history.—Newburyport Herald.

EDUCATIONAL.—We have before us a circular issued by the Executive Committee of the Adams Female Seminary at Derry, N. H., for the Winter Term, which is advertised to commence Dec. 4th. The names of three Misses are put down for Principal and Teachers; and the circular states that "It is designed in this Institution to make the instruction thorough; to cultivate self-reliance and independent thought on the part of the pupil, and to preserve within the Institution a healthful religious influence."

Most important objects to be attained, particularly in female education, and especially in this age of superficialities.

SOCIAL LIFE IN BOSTON.—For the benefit of our country cousins who think it an example of Christian virtue and Roman firmness worthy of special commendation for a public man in Boston to give a levee at his house, and not furnish wines or spirituous liquors to his guests, it may be well to state that such articles are not fashionable on those occasions. Neither Mayors Bigelow or Seaver ever furnished the guests at their official levees with "a glass of wine or spirituous liquors."—Boston Transcript.

Police officer Ginley, who was stabbed, in New York, by John B. Holmes, the soft shell candidate for Alderman in the first ward, died of his wounds on Sunday afternoon.

LOCAL.

Reported for the Chronicle.

Court of Common Pleas—Adj. Term.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

SATURDAY, Nov. 4.

Case No. 241—Thomas J. Caburn vs. Lory Odell. This was an action of Assumpsit founded upon a Promissory note given by Dft. to the Plf., for the sum of $2,190. Upon this note there had been two payments, one of $1,200, and another of $200. Defence, that the note was not given for a valid consideration, being in part for board and in part for liquors and wines sold by Plf. without license. Verdict was taken by consent for Plf., subject to the opinion of the Superior Court, to whom are referred the questions of law which arise in the case. Hatch and Webster for Plf.; Emery and Martin for Dft.

SUNDAY, Nov. 5.

The Bar quite generally attended the funeral of the late lamented James McMurphy, Esq., of Epping.

MONDAY, Nov. 6.

No. 205—Abner B. Bennett, App'e vs. Edwin A. Moulton, Appellant, is now on trial. This is an appeal from the judgment of a Justice of the Peace. Hatch and Webster for Appellee; Hackett for Appellant.

☞ The Jurors in attendance last week are retained for this.

☞ This Evening, at the Temple, the Course of Lectures before the Mechanic Lyceum, will be commenced by one of the most popular lecturers in the county, viz. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. We have seen a letter from Mr. B. to the managers of the Lyceum, in which he announces Patriotism as his subject; and we have no doubt he will handle it without gloves. The whole list of lecturers, as published, presents a strong inducement for attendance; and as no evening tickets are proposed, we presume the season tickets will disappear before sunset to-day.

SCIENCE OF MEMORY.—The course of lessons on the Memory, now in progress here by Prof. Armes, is not one which burdens the mind with a cumbrous apparatus, or perplexes it with complicated machinery. On the contrary, it is founded on scientific principles, and connected with literary attainments which are at once simple and valuable.

The memory is not, on the plan developed in the first lesson, to be crowded by a mass of dates of events to be held in constant remembrance: But the mind is to be furnished with a key whereby the events themselves, as recorded or characterized in graphic language, are made to express their own dates or numbers, in a way to make the recollection perfect.

Any person, but especially a youth, of good perceptive powers, and of fair average memory, may thus lay up a store of most important facts and events in ancient and modern history, which will ever, in his or her mind, be inseparably associated with their proper dates or numbers.

Some such youth are attending the course of lessons, in which they find much to interest the active mind.

MONUMENT TO WILLIAM C. HARRIS.

A beautiful monument was last week erected in the "Harmony Grove Cemetery," on Sagamore road, to the memory of the late William C. Harris, of this city.

The Base is of Granite; the Relief Base, Die and Cap are in one piece, of Italian Marble; the Shaft is of Italian Marble; the height of the monument is 7 feet, with a Base of 3 feet square.

On the Cap is carved in raised letters the name WILLIAM C. HARRIS, under which, on the Die, is carved a Book, opened near its close, on which is inscribed, so as to fill both pages,

Born March 17, 1788.

A

FAITHFUL TEACHER.

Died November 22, 1853.

On the opposite side of the Die is inscribed

ERECTED BY HIS GRATEFUL PUPILS.

The work was designed and executed by Mr. Allen Treat, of this city.

SOUTH MILLPOND.—The writer under this head requests N. to amend his calculation on the value of the South Millpond, as published in the Morning Chronicle of last week. N. is always pleased to acknowledge and rectify mistakes. He based his valuation of the property on an offer made to him by the owner about two years since, for the sums mentioned in his first suggestions of $3,000. This offer was made in connection with filling the pond, in company with others, on the plan proposed by him last week. N. was not aware of the sudden rise of the property; and probably it did not occur to him, at the time of writing, that every man is obliged to remove nuisances from his premises at his own expense. Upon these facts N.'s valuation was based, and not from a desire to underrate the property.

It is not at all probable that the Assessors or the Health Officers will be negligent or forgetful, the coming Spring. N.

For the Chronicle.

THE PAUPER'S PRAYER.

"Fair lady, in thy silken robes,
With jewels in thy hair,
Oh, leave awhile thy thrilling lute,
And listen to my prayer!

"Give, but a diamond from thy brow,
A jewel from thy dress,—
I ask it for a cheerless home
Of want and wretchedness:

"A home where hunger preys by day,
Nor feeds itself by night,
But only shuts its sunken eye,
To ope with morning light!"

She heard him not—but closer bound
Her gems about her hair!
No comfort for the pauper's home,
No answer to his prayer.

She heard him not—her soul was dead
To sympathy and love;
She cared not for the poor below,
Or for the God above.

She turned him coldly from her door;
No gold, no gem was given;
That lady fair, so rich on Earth,
But, oh, so poor in Heaven!

Oh, jewelled breasts that scorn the poor,
Think ye it is light sin,
That ye should gleam so bright without,
Yet be so dark within!

Portsmouth, 1853. A. L.

We originally published the above poem, something more than a year ago, under the signature of "Joseph Allen." Mrs. Macready chanced to see it while here, and brought, out its beauties in one of her readings at the Cameneum, recently. We have had several applications for copies since, and now republish it with its real author's signature—to comply with the request of several readers; and as appropriately beautiful at this time.

KNOW NOTHINGS.—While so much ado is being made about this mysterious order and their doings, it may not be out of place to suggest that if the Know Nothings ever come to have public celebrations, the 5th of November would be an appropriate occasion. New Hampshire has always been a Know Nothing State. Her constitution, framed 62 years ago, prohibits Catholics from holding office; and her people refused, a couple of years since, to strike out this intolerant provision. And Portsmouth must have claims to be the banner-town of the State, under this banner at least: her sons have loudly celebrated Pope Night—and we know of hardly another place in the country that does. The boys have been blowing themselves hoarse for the past week, in honor of —we don't know exactly what, if they do; and they keep up the din, though the day which drew out their tin horns has passed. We don't perceive so many pumkin lanterns as usual, this year; is it because of the rise in price of the raw article?

MORTALITY IN PORTSMOUTH.—Mr. Bell's account of the deaths in this city, during the month of October, is as follows:

Males, six—aged 1 month, 6 months, 3 yrs., 36, 70, 79.

Females, ten—aged 2 months, 5 months, 8 months, 18 years, 26, 35, 43, 45, 70, 85.

Total for the month, sixteen.

BAD TASTE.—Clapping a Lyceum lecturer: we should as soon expect to hear it when a favorite minister rises in the pulpit to preach a sermon. Clapping and stamping are well enough greeting to a political haranguer, or at the feat of a harlequin, but out of place in connection with a literary, scientific or moral performance. The stillness of a listening audience is the most acceptable reception to a sensitive man.—Journal.

A submarine wrecking company has recently been formed in this city, with a capital of $5000. Armor has been procured, experienced divers engaged, and they will commence operations this fall. It is reported that their first effort will be on a cargo of railroad iron to the eastward. Perhaps the Newburyport Railroad extension may yet be supplied with rails from that source.—Newburyport Herald.

A TOUCH OF THE SUBLIME.—Maj. Ross, the soap man, is a funny fellow. He beats the razor strop man all to nothing, in making speeches upon all subjects; but whatever may be the subject of his discourses, they all end in soap. We stopped to listen to one of his efforts, the other day, at the cattle show at Keene. He pointed to the star spangled banner, which was floating over the business office, and went on thus, or something like it:

"O that I were an eagle. I would seize Columbia's flag unfurled, and soar aloft, until I reached the upper air. I would wave it o'er the thrones of tyrants, an emblem of hope and promise to the down-trodden, and hang it from the ceiling of the skies. I would steal the nectar from the gods, and suck from every cloud ambrosial sweets, and when I descended again to earth, would make them into soap!"—State Capital Reporter.

THE DIOCESE OF RHODE ISLAND.—The Providence Journal announces that the Rev. Dr. Clark has accepted the Episcopate of that diocese, and will be consecrated the latter part of this month. He will accept the rectorship of Grace Church, Providence, about the 1st of March. The acceptance will give great satisfaction to the church over which he is called to preside.

The emigration of free blacks to Liberia, this year, has been uncommonly large, and the condition of the African republic was never more prosperous. This scheme of emancipating themselves, not only from slavery, but the oppression of prejudice, by removal to the "fatherland," must constantly gain favor with the more intelligent of our colored population.

DENOUNCED FROM THE ALTAR.—The Meagher Republican Grenadiers of Jersey City, having announced a ball for Tuesday evening, at which Col. Doheny and Mr. Meagher, and perhaps John Mitchell, would be present, the whole affair, it is said, was denounced yesterday from the altar of the Roman Catholic Church, by the priest and his curate. John Mitchell's Citizen was named as one of the worst enemies of the Pope.—Col. Doheny's military title was very lightly spoken of, and the whole party of Young Irelanders came in for a severe denunciation. N. Y. Times, 30th.

NEW LAYER & BUNCH RAISINS—For sale by W. SIMES & CO.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Baltimore, Nov. 5.—In this city on Saturday night, the manufacturing department of Messrs. Knape, Gachie & Co.'s piano forte establishment, in Eutard, near Baltimore street, took fire and was entirely destroyed, together with an immense stock of unfinished work, the value of which is estimated at $160,000. The finishing department and the warehouses adjoining, which were separated by a fourteen feet wide alley, were damaged on the roof and the gable was stove in by the fall of the walls of the burning building. The insurance in the Baltimore offices is about $7000. A large amount is insured in New York and Philadelphia offices, but the amount has not yet been ascertained. Several other buildings in the neighborhood were damaged to the extent of about $5000. The fire rages nearly all night, and at one time the Eutaw House was in great danger of being destroyed.

DISAPPOINTED.—Gov. Wood of Ohio, several years ago, resigned that honorable position in order to accept the Consulship at Valparaiso. Much wonder was expressed at such a stooping from high honors, and the more so as these foreign appointments are looked upon as a sort of exile, and the fact was known that the governor had anxiously sought the appointment. He has now resigned his post and come home, and the secret is out. The governor was under the impression, created by newspaper reports, that the Consulship at Valparaiso was worth in the fees of office over $20,000 a year, whereas he has found out by experience, that in the year 1853 they amounted to only $3295. No fortune was to be made there.

FERNANDO WOOD.—Notwithstanding the Democratic candidate for Mayor of New York made an attachment upon the proprietor of the Sun, upon a charge of libel, the Courier & Enquirer of Saturday devotes five of its heavy columns to the elucidation of his rascalities, with the necessary documents. The Sun charged that he was "known as the same Fernando Wood who in 1836 was detected in a bank transaction by which he obtained $1,700 and over of another man's money, and which, on discovery, he refused to give up. Also as the same Fernando Wood who in 1850 was brought up before our courts charged with a conspiracy to defraud a Mr. Edward E. Mervine, who had engaged with him in a California speculation.—Boston Courier.

RUSSIAN SOLDIERS.—As to the present condition of the Russian troops, the following letter from Gen. Napier is to the point:—

Sir,—Quoting an expression of mine to the effect that the Russian soldier was so miserable that a British soldier would "rather present bread than the bayonet to him," you unjustly make me appear to have applied it to the present Russian soldier, whereas it was expressly published with reference to those I saw in Paris in 1815.

So far from giving such an opinion as to the present Russian soldier, I know that their clothing, commissariat and hospital organizations, have been very much improved—principally, I believe by the care of Prince Paskiewitch. The ridiculous mouthing folly poured out upon them since the war commenced has given me the utmost disgust.

NAPIER, Lieut. General.

Ann Jane McLane, a young Irish woman of considerable talent, and a contributor to the N. Y. Sunday Dispatch, committed suicide in New York on Tuesday evening by taking laudanum. She was found by a gentleman sitting on a stoop, corner of Eldridge and Broome street, in a stupified condition, and died soon after reaching the Station House.—Several letters were found upon her, one directed to the Sunday Dispatch, and one to a Mrs. Fuller, the latter showing that disappointment in love was her motive for self-destruction.

Teachers' Institute.
THE FALL SESSION of this Institute will be holden at the Academy in CHESTER, to commence on MONDAY, Nov. 13, at 10 o'clock, A.M., and continue through the week.
The services of the following experienced Instructors have already been engaged:—
Prof. William Russell, in Reading and Grammar;
" G S. Houghton, of the N. E. Normal Institute, in Mathematics & Geography;
" Hermann Krusi, in Drawing;
Calvin Cutter, M.D., in Physiology and Hygiene;
Mr. Henry Jones, in Penmanship;
Prof. Sanborn Tenney, of the N. E. Normal Institute, Lecturer on Geology;
A Teacher of Music will also be in attendance.
Those who shall attend the Institute are requested to bring with them a Bible and Dictionary.—Each member will also have his or her name and residence and the number of sessions of the Institute previously attended, plainly written on a card or slip of paper, ready for delivery, on entering the Institute.
The citizens of Chester have made ample arrangements for the accommodation of the members with board, &c. at reasonable prices. Messrs. Francis V. Dow, S. F. Learnard and S. M. Moore have been appointed a Committee of Arrangements, to whom application may be made on arrival.
Carriages will be in readiness, on Monday the 13th, upon the arrival of the morning and noon trains at Derry, on the the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad; and at Raymond, on the arrival of the same trains on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, to convey to Chester those going to the Institute by those Roads. A daily stage also connects at Derry with the noon trains on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad.
It is hoped that those proposing to attend the Institute, will avail themselves of the facilities for conveyance offered on the first day of the session, as it is desirable to commence with full numbers.

Hartford Fire Insurance Company.
THE Agents of this Company have received a Circular from the Office, dated Sept. 8, 1854, which says—
"You can with confidence assure its customers that its condition is sound; its capital ample and unimpaired; that it is not indebted to any individual, Banking or other Institution, for money borrowed; that all claims for losses now outstanding will be paid when due or before. The Board of Directors therefore pledge themselves that the Company has never been in a condition to offer its friends and customers more ample security in its policies than at the present time.

TWO GIRLS ELOPED WITH INDIANS.—The Columbus Fact states that recently a band of Indians gave performances in Somerset, Ohio; and that two girls, sisters, were so captivated with the "dance and the whoop" of these Sons of Nature, that they asked permission to accompany them, which being gallantly granted, they proceeded as far as Putnam, where they were overtaken by the mother of the girls, a spry widow, who called upon the police to aid her in recovering her "wild-going" daughters. But alas, for woman's resistance to love's appeals, when pressed in that eloquence and those signs of natural affection and simplicity which these native sons of the forest could bring to bear! After a little "talk," and a private interview with the chief, the mother discharged the police, and made a third "willing heart" to follow the Indian "men" to their western camp.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by Washington) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assigments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.
Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey back by Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as nearly and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called
FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF FLOODING; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.
Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.
A WORD TO THE LADIES.
Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with this disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.
MRS. S. GAFF, 88 Sea street, Boston.
I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details if my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.
It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by
W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, Britain, &c., &c.
And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.
The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.
BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.
Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown in the glass:—
"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"
and having the name Jas. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.
ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.
A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis, accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottle and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.
HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.
This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.
CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

The Toledo Blade tells the following hard yarn:—

"While every body was scared at the cholera, and very many were dying off with it, we cannot wonder at the fact, that several came very near being buried alive.

Well, Mrs. Mullane, as we shall call her, was taken sick at twelve in the day—had cramps at 3, and went dead at 6 in regular order. But whether an empty whiskey bottle, which was found at the head of the bed, had anything to do with it, deponent saith not. Pat Mullane, her husband that was, felt bad—some husbands do when they lose their wives!—and wouldn't let the body be taken from the house till morning. So the watches were set, and the wake was had, and things were going on well enough, when all of a sudden there was a movement in the coffin in which the body had been placed without the lid being put on. The men wondered and the women trembled. They went to the coffin. Mrs. Mullane was thumping lustily with her elbow on the side of her coffin! The watchers were breathless—the hairs upon their heads stood out like wires. Soon the voice of the dead broke forth. Not sepulchral and solemn, but loud and irritative: "Pat! ye baste! git over i' yer own side iv the bed! There's niver a bit iv room for me atwixt ye and the wall." The mystery was solved—a slight cloud passed over the features of Pat, as the terrified wife raised up in the coffin and looked about her. She came near fainting, but her friends soon got her out of the bad box she had got herself into, and she still likes to teach her husband better manners than bury a decent woman with her sinses all in her body!"

THE SCRIPTURES FOR ALL.—Every man should read the Holy Scriptures by himself, at home. For the Holy Spirit hath so ordered and attempered the Scriptures, that in them, as well publicans, fishers, and shepherds may find their edification, as great doctors their erudition. But still, you will say, I cannot understand it! What marvel! How should'st thou understand, if thou wilt not read nor look upon it? Take the books into thine hands, read the whole story, and that thou understandest not, read it again and again. Here all manner of persons, men, women, young, old, learned, unlearned, rich, poor, priests, laymen, lords, ladies, officers, tenants, and mean men, virgins, wives, widows, lawyers, merchants, artificers, husbandmen, and all manner of persons, of what estate or condition soever they may be, may in this book learn all things, what they ought to do, and what they should not do, as well concerning Almighty God, as also concerning themselves and all others.—Chrysostom.

Tuesday afternoon, while Mr. Daniel Cleary was shingling the top of the tower to the Catholic church, in Roxbury, the board which formed the scaffolding, on which he was standing, tipped up, he being very near the end, dropping him off from the tower to the main roof, a distance of between fifty and sixty feet, he struck on his hip and slid down to the eves where his heel caught and saved him from falling to the ground. Wonderful as it may seem, on being taken from the roof, the surgeon, who was immediately called, found that his hip was badly broken, but that he was not otherwise badly injured.—Boston Traveller.

Many cases of slight indisposition are cured by a change of diet. Thus, if a person suffers from constipation, and, as the consequence, has headaches, slight attacks of fever or dyspepsia, the cause may often be removed by eating rye mush and molasses for breakfast, brown bread, baked apples and other fruits.

VERDICT FOR AIDING FUGITIVE SLAVES.—R. R. Sloan, an attorney at Sandusky, Ohio, has recently been convicted of aiding in the escape of three fugitive slaves. The penalty is a fine of one thousand dollars for each slave, and the costs of Court. The trial occurred in the U. S. District Court, Judge Leavitt presiding. One of the jury declared to the Court that he gave the verdict of guilty with great reluctance.—Boston Traveller.

SOMETHING RARE.—There is a gentleman in this city, who still considers himself passably juvenile, having just entered upon his ninety-third year. He is rather a new comer in New Orleans, having resided here only seventy-two years. This sprightly and vigorous veteran complained a day or two ago of something strange—one of his teeth ached. He had never lost a tooth, and had never up to that time suffered the slightest pain in any of his thirty-two brilliant masticators which still adorn his mouth. Beat that who can!—N. O. Bee.

THE LARGE FAILURE IN ENGLAND.—London papers received by the Pacific, give the indebtedness of Mr. Oliver, the great English ship owner, and the extent of his business operations. He held a fleet of 104 sail of vessels, of about 40,000 tons. He owes twenty three creditors upwards of $10,000 each. To his largest creditor his indebtedness is $605,000; to two others he owes $300,000 each; to one creditor $225,000; to another $150,000; to four others $120,000 each; to two $100,000 each; two others $75,000 each; and four others $50,000 each. By his schedule his total indebtedness is represented to be $3,388,000.

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,
No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,
making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community,

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful
STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Feduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and be seen pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1854.

A GREAT PRINCIPLE.—The great principle recognized in the Nebraska bill, is that the population of a State shall frame the local institutions under which they shall live. If this principle is not vitally important then no principle is so. It is no modern principle at least in America.

So says the Boston Post; and this is one view of the question. Now let the reader look on the opposite side, as viewed by the Salem Gazette:

The only justification of the procedure was on the ground that "the people of the territory should decide this question of slavery for themselves, as do those of the States." The only argument necessary to offset this kind of republican lore, however, is in the fact that the same people who were considered qualified to judge of the slavery question, were virtually deemed incompetent to elect their own rulers, or their own judge. The attempt to prove, likewise, that slavery could not gain a foothold in the new territory, only serves to show the utter wolessness of disturbing the then existing law, and the fact that nothing but unbecoming and selfish motives could have induced the attempt.

THE SHIPBUILDER'S BANK.—The Rockland (Me) Advertiser gives a most singular excuse for the stoppage of the Shipbuilder's Bank of that place. A new board of directors had recently been chosen who knew nothing of the affairs of the institution, and "bills which they supposed were in circulation to the amount of $107,600 over & above its legitimate issue were ones that had been printed on such poor paper as to be unfit to go into circulation, and were burnt up in March last, a record of which transaction was duly made." The bank, it understands, has at the present time a circulation of about $30,000, and has due it from its customers in good notes not yet matured about $160,000. Its bills are current there, its stock is at par. Notwithstanding all this, it is not easy to know why the institution has sued a newspaper publisher for a large sum, for circulating a report of its stoppage.—Boston Courier.

No: it is not very easy to know this: but it is quite easy to believe that no jury will give them a verdict for $50,000, which they claim as damages. It is rather easier to believe they will have to pay their own costs.

THE VINTAGE IN FRANCE.—A letter from Cognac of Oct. 17th, says:—"In the face of the miserable vintage we cannot but have a further rise. The small quantity of Wine which will be made will prove hardly sufficient for home consumption; no Brandy, therefore, can be expected to be made this year." Other letters from Cognac and Rochelle concur in the above.—Boston Courier.

Nevertheless, about the same amounts of wine and Cognac brandy will be sold and used in this country, as if the vintage were good. Most of it is fiery stuff.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, for October, is one of the best numbers we have seen for a long time. The Contents are: Speculators among the Stars; King Otho and his Classic Kingdom; Student Life in Scotland; Civilisation—The Census; A Russian Reminiscence; Records of the Past—Nineveh and Babylon; The Opening of the Ganges Canal; The Uses of Beauty; Spanish Politics and Cuban Perils.

Leonard Scott & Co., publishers, New York.

THE LADIES' WREATH, for October, 1850, contains some pleasant matter and illustrations. Published by Burdick & Scovill, New York.

THE WORLD SUSPENDED.—"The adventitious people didn't bring the world's end about so easy as they thought," said Mrs. Partington, smiling at the recollection of seeing a long-legged saint in a white cotton gown on the top of a neighboring house the night before. "Yes" replied Old Roger, gravely, "it did come to an end; it suspended for a little while, when a meeting of its creditors was held, and though its affairs were found a little shaky, it was thought best to let it go on, and it would come out all right enough." "You don't say so!" cried she, "well, that's the reason why my clock is half an hour slow and I couldn't account for it." Ike said nothing, but that he was allowed to stay out till half past seven the night previous made it look as if he might have put the clock back, but there was no knowing.—Post.

A SAFE ARRANGEMENT.—A pretty good story is told of a wag in Bangor to whom one of the Second Adventists owed a bill. The latter wishing to go off square with the world, "owing no man anything," came to our friend and offered him fifty per cent. of the debt, it being all he was able to pay, and desired to be forgiven the remainder. The creditor took the money, said he would give him credit for the amount, and if the world should actually come to an end, as predicted, the debtor might consider himself forgiven the balance—otherwise the debt to remain good. This was satisfactory, and the disciple of Miller retired with an easy conscience to await the consummation of all things.—Portland Advertiser.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald of this morning intimates that the late Ministerial Conference at Ostend was solely in regard to our relations with Spain, and that Consul McRae, who arrived last week from Paris, was the bearer of despatches conveying the recommendation of Messrs. Buchanan, Mason and Soule, that the United States Government shall declare, in effect, that our safety demanded, and our interests required, that Cuba should be purchased or taken at once. Mr. McRae is now in Washington, and the matter is understood to be now under deliberation by the Cabinet.

MILITARY.—The Newburyport Herald states that the Veteran Artillery Company made their first public appearance in that city on Friday last. They are composed of the members of the old Artillery, and number nearly a hundred men, about seventy of whom appeared on parade. It was the finest looking military corps that we have ever seen—stern, sturdy men, varying in their ages from thirty years to the maturity of three score and ten. There was none of that boyish appearance, so common to our play soldiers.—Major Eben Bradbury, formerly Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, is Captain; and John Burrill, Lieutenant.

They wore black coats and pants, chapeaus and side arms. They marched admirably, to the finest music, from the Newburyport Band, and were followed by their guns. At 10 o'clock, A. M., they were reviewed on Brown's Square, by the city government, when the Mayor presented the commissions.

The Mayor made a speech, and was replied to by Lt. Burrill, in the absence of the commander. It was stated that "the Military corps, of which this company are past members—the old Newburyport Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company,—dates its origin back to the revolutionary period, being the oldest, (except one) in the State." The speaker for the company also stated that in entering upon the voluntary duties they had assumed, the Veterans are "uninfluenced by any visions of military glory, unambitious of military distinction."

After the speeches, the company marched through the streets, and at 12 o'clock partook of a collation at the gun house, and fired a salute. In the afternoon, unfatigued, they continued their parade, at sunset fired a salute, and at 7 o'clock sat down to supper at the Ocean House.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.—A few evenings ago, as the cars of the Carrollton railroad were approaching the city, a little girl about three years old run in front of the engine and stopped on the centre of the track. The brakeman attempted to stop the engine as soon as the child was perceived, but on and on rushed the iron monster, and just as it was about to crush into earth the beauteous victim which thus so innocently braved its coming, the strong hand of an athletic young man was stretched forth, and at the hazard of another life the child was saved. Loud was the shout of applause from the few who witnessed the daring deed, and in triumph the young man bore the child away and delivered it to its mother. Any attempt to describe a mother's feeling on such an occasion would be more than vain. She felt as a mother alone can feel, when the darling of her heart—her only child—is rescued from the very jaws of death; and with an eloquence which no words can convey, she looked and spoke her thanks. That mother was a widow, young, and fair as the incarnation of a poet's dream; and withal, she was blessed with no little of this world's goods.—Of course she was grateful to the preserver of her child's life, and as he was poor, she offered to bestow upon him goodly largess. He, however, refused to accept any reward for doing what he considerd to be his duty, and so the matter for the time rested.

Since then an intimacy has sprung up between the young man and the grateful widow, and the result was, that yesterday they went together to Mobile, where the widow's name is at the Hymeneal altar to be changed, and the young man is to become not only the protector, but the step-father of the child he saved. May the joys of the twain increase, and their days be many.—New Orleans True Delta.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT LYNN.—The train on the Saugus Branch which left Boston at 12 1-2 o'clock on Saturday ran into the horse and buggy of Dr. Abraham Gould, which was crossing the track on Cottage street, near Elizabeth street. The horse was instantly killed, and the vehicle demolished. The Doctor had his arm and shoulder, and three fingers broken, and is otherwise severely injured. A man with him in the chaise at the time, though thrown out to some distance, escaped with a few bruises. The train being in full view of approaching vehicles, it is presumed that the Doctor's horse became unmanageable at the time.

FAMINE PRICES OF FOOD.—The difference between certain articles of food in the New York and Philadelphia markets is somewhat startling. The New York Evening Express says that it would be cheaper for the people tlreebauts to send to Philadelphia for food than to purchase it at home. The enormous prices of articles of food in this land of abundance is one of the problems for the political economist to solve. The Express sriously advises the New York hotel keepers and others to import their provisions from Philadelphia, until they can bring the dealeres thereabouts to terms.

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—There was a great democratic rally in the City Hall to-night, at which Gen. Cass was present. In the speech he delivered, he commented severely upon the attacks made against him by the Richmond Enquirer, saying that he desired nothing from the South, and expected nothing from them but justice.

Rev. B. R. Allen of South Berwick, Me., has accepted the unanimous invitation of the Congregational Church and Society in Marblehead, recently under the care of Rev. Mr. Lawrence. The installation services will take place to-day.

The Toronto Colonist of the 2d inst., says that a discovery of coal has just been made in the township of Gwillimburg, about two miles west of Bradford, and not far from the line of the Northern Railroad.

The cold weather of the past two or three days, has caused the recommencement of the oyster trade in New York, with almost as much vigor as ever.

The Home Journal says:—"The Americans are misrepresented abroad as follows: by a Frenchman in Spain; by an Italian in Italy; and by a German Jew at the Hague!"

THANKSGIVING.—The Governor of Rhode Island has appointed Thursday, 30th inst., as Thanksgiving Day.

It is said that Lord Raglan will be made a Field Marshal when Sebastopol is taken, with a present of £50,000.

In No. 205, Bennett v. Moulton, the Jury returned a verdict for the Pliff., for $8,76 and interest.

In 231, Towle v. Chapman, a verdict was taken by consent for Pliff. This was an action brought to recover the amount of certain notes, given for liquors bought in Boston.

No. 246, Frances A. Phillips v. John Bennett, adm'r of Estate of Dr. Hutchings, deceased, is on trial. This is an action brought by the pliff. to recover for services alleged to have been rendered in the family of the deceased. Hackett for pliff.; Hatch and Webster for deft.

PATRIOTISM.—Henry Ward Beecher, of Brooklyn, N. Y., delivered his lecture on this subjecr, on Tuesday evening, before the Mechanics' Lyceum, at the Temple.

He made patriotism to consist of these elements, viz, Local Attachments, Social Affections, Reverence for the Past, Value for National Institutions, and a Sense of the Divine Favor for our country. Patriotism in his view could not be true, and pure, and elevated, while breaking any one of these conditions.

Our duty, as true American patriots, he urged, is to educate the whole people from early youth in the distinctive American idea of republican government, of and by the whole, and not by classes. He would value religion, learning, wealth, and political science; but he would not have a religious class, as that would soon be a hierarchy: he would not have a learned class, as that would be a literary aristocracy: nor would he have distinct classes of wealthy men and politicians: but he would have the qualities and powers of each used for the common benefit of the whole.

A necessarily brief view of the dangers which threaten and indicate the decline of our patriotism as Americans, was confined to two or three particulars, among which, as the most prominent, he named the neglect of political teaching and action by many American citizens, the importation of foreign, anti-republican ideas by our own children who visit other countries, and the servile aping of foreign extravagance, parade and folly.

The lecturer advocated the idea that women should vote, not merely as a privilege or duty, but as a great benefit to man and the country. This was the only patriotic innovation he proposed; and for this he gave some weighty reasons. All besides would meet with general approbation by men of sense.

Every portion of the lecture abounded in pithy remarks, and aphorisms worthy of remembrance. And the whole was delivered with great force, spirit and effect, giving, so far as we could judge, abundant satisfaction to the large and respectable audience.

BIBLICAL LECTURES.—The usual winter's course of Lectures by Rev. Dr. Burroughs, is to commence this evening, at St. John's Chapel, State street.

☞ Elder J. V. Himes will preach in the Second Advent Chapel this evening.

REMEMBER THE POOR.—The City Missionary acknowledges the receipt of one dollar through the post office, from W., who says "please expend it for bread for the poor." This is said to be the first dollar received by the missionary for such purposes within the last two months. It is to be hoped that alms will flow in, as they are needed in the severity of the coming season, and the in extravagant prices of bread and butter, meat and fuel.

HISTORIC ACCURACY.—A letter appears in the Boston Traveller, dated at Nashua, N. H., Nov. 2, from which we make the following brief extract.

In a place boasting of such antiquity as Nashua, we hardly expect any great furor of enthusiasm to exist at once, but when the people get warmed up they make their influence felt in a large circle.

Here as early as 1680 a settlement was made upon Salmon River. Hampton alone boasts of an earlier settlement. At present there may be seen the remains of an old fort, built to protect the inhabitants from the Indians, and the graves of those who fell victims to the tomahawk and scalping knife.

We would not rob Nashua of her claims to antiquity; and we need not attempt to deprive the writer of his more remarkable accuracy; but we would respectfully suggest, that Hampton was settled in 1636—1638; that Exeter was settled in 1638; that Dover Neck was settled in 1623; and that Portsmouth, then including New Castle and Rye, was settled the same year.

Hampton has some priority as to Churches; but not much; for it happened that the Congregational Church in Exeter was gathered in '38, and was the first in the province of New Hampshire. The Church in Hampton was formed the same year, but later in the year. The Church in Dover was also gathered in the year '38.

These were all prior to the church gathered by Joshua Moodey in Portsmouth in '53; but even this was 27 years before the date of Nashua's beginning, as set down in the letter. And there is no man well informed as to our early history, who does not know that there was an Episcopal Chapel here, which had grown old long before Nashua was settled, and was probably the first Church built in New Hampshire, and regularly used for public worship.

New Buckwheat Flour for sale by o24 LA FAYETTE LAIGHTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Reciprocity Treaty.—Mr. Riley, of New Brunswick, returned here on Saturday from Quebec, on business connected with the Reciprocity Treaty, and had an interview with the President, Secretaries Marcy and Cushing, and Mr. Crampton. Canada and New Brunswick having affirmed the treaty by legislative enactments, and provided for its going into immediate operation, our government has promptly consented to admit the produce of those provinces on the terms recently established with respect to colonial fish, &c., and another Treasury Circular will be issued accordingly.—Prince Edward Island produce would be included in this circular, but no official information of the legislative proceedings of that island has yet reached here. The Provinces are much indebted to Mr. Riley for his energetic and successful exertions in their behalf. He left this evening, and it is said he proceeds to Nova Scotia, which province has not yet taken any action on the treaty, and is therefore excluded from the advantages of the present arrangement.

It is reported here that Sir Edmund Head leaves Boston, to-morrow, for Canada, to assume the post of Governor General, and that Lord Elgin will very shortly sail for England, first visiting New York and Washington.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Pamela Myers, alias Snyder, is the name of the woman arrested to-day on the charge of murdering her two children. She confessed to the Mayor to having killed in succession five children as soon as they were born. Two were by one father and three by another. The last was born five days since, and was disposed of in the same manner as the others, by throwing it into a sink or cesspool. The affair happened at Meetown, in the upper part of the city. The woman is unmarried. The hearing did not take place this afternoon, the prisoner being too ill to appear in court.

Edward D. Ingraham, an eminent lawyer and a United States Commissioner, died in this city this morning.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Mac Ballin, a wine merchant of some standing in this city, has been on trial for selling champagne with counterfeit labels; was yesterday sentenced to sixty days imprisonment in the City Prison. It was on his behalf that the plea is said to have been made, "Do not send a gentleman to prison," which, it appears, was unavailing.

Owing to a dispute with the Morris and Essex Railroad Company, the city authorities of Newark ordered a portion of the road running through that city to be taken up, which was done early on Saturday. The company was sustained on an injunction restraining the city, and granting an order for re laying the track. Accordingly, between 12 and 1 o'clock on Sunday, the work was commenced but the watchmen rung the bell, assembled a large group and obstructed the workmen.—Subsequently, however, the work proceeded without molestation, and the matter will doubtless be settled without further hostilities.

A MAGNIFICENT FARM AND FARMER.—A Vermont paper says: "Among the conspicuous men in the Vermont Legislature is Mr. B. G. Bridgham, of Fairfield. He owns and cultivates 1300 acres of land. Among his barn-yard items are two hundred and twenty cows, twenty horses, and five yoke of oxen. In his dairy he makes butter only. The average yield of butter from the milk of each cow is one hundred and fifty pounds. Two huge 'dasher' churns are set in motion by two 'horse powers,' and the butter is 'worked' by the old fashioned 'paddle.' His stock of cattle consume about five hundred tons of hay annually. 20,000 lbs. of pork, 500 bushels of wheat, from 4 to 500 bushels of corn, 1000 bushels of oats, and from one to two thousand bushels of potatoes are among his yearly products. 'The Man of Uz,' in his best estate, could not do better than this. Mr. Bridgham, himself, is got up with a breadth of beam, and in a style of magnificence proportionate to the extent of his possessions and agricultural products, he standing 6 feet 4 in his boots, and weighing, by one of Fairbanks' patent balances, 200 pounds precisely."

New Stoves, &c.

J. E. CHAPMAN, No. 18 Daniel Street,
Sign of the Big Coffee Pot,
HAS just received a large and complete assortment of Parlor and Cooking Stoves, Tin Ware & House Furnishing Goods generally,
And is prepared to offer as good bargains as at any other Establishment in the city.
Stoves exchanged, repaired, cleaned and put up to order, on reasonable terms. Give him a call, when you are in want of anything in his line.

Lilly Dale.

THIS is a new COOK STOVE made by A. C. Barstow & Co. (Manufacturers of the celebrated Bay State Stove) and is intended for Wood or Coal, and is in every respect a superior Stove.—The castings are smooth, heavy and durable, and the operation is perfect. The oven will heat with Coal as soon as any other oven with Wood. A number of these Stoves have been put in operation in this city this season, and have given perfect satisfaction.
Persons wishing to purchase the best Stove in the market would do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.
Every Stove warranted.

Teachers' Institute.

THE FALL SESSION of this Institute will be holden at the Academy in CHESTER, to commence on MONDAY, Nov. 13, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and continue through the week.
The services of the following experienced Instructors have already been engaged:—
Prof. William Russell, in Reading and Grammar;
" G. S. Houghton, of the N. F. Normal Institute, in Mathematics & Geography;
" Hermann Krusi, in Drawing;
Calvin Cutter, M.D., in Physiology and Hygiene;
Mr. Henry Jones, in Penmanship;
Prof. Sanborn Tenney, of the N. E. Normal Institute, Lecturer on Geology;
A Teacher of Music will also be in attendance.
Those who shall attend the Institute are requested to bring with them a Bible and Dictionary.—Each member will also have his or her name and residence and the number of sessions of the Institute previously attended, plainly written on a card or slip of paper, ready for delivery, on entering the Institute.
The citizens of Chester have made ample arrangements for the accommodation of the members with board, &c. at reasonable prices. Messrs. Francis V. Dow, S. F. Learnard and S. M. Moore have been appointed a Committee of Arrangements, to whom application may be made on arrival.
Carriages will be in readiness, on Monday the 13th, upon the arrival of the morning and noon trains at Derry, on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad; and at Raymond, on the arrival of the same trains on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, to convey to Chester those going to the Institute by those Roads. A daily stage also connects at Derry with the noon trains on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad.
It is hoped that those proposing to attend the Institute, will avail themselves of the facilities for conveyance offered on the first day of the session, as it is desirable to commence with full numbers.

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE BOOK.
TOWN AND COUNTRY:
OR
LIFE AT HOME AND ABROAD,
WITHOUT AND WITHIN US.
By John S. Adams.
The Undersigned will publish, early in December, the above work, with illustrations from Original designs, in one elegant 12 mo volume of about 400 pages.
It is a book suited for all times and places, and is distinguished by its living, energetic style, boldness of expression, and originality of thought.
The SKETCHES OF LIFE,—true to the originals, exhibiting the various phases of Town Life, its Temptations, Trials, Conflicts, and Conquests of Minds struggling amid diverse circumstances, together with rich and pleasing Pictures of the Country, the sinless heart, and the happy home, cannot but deeply interest the reader, and at the same time touch a cord of the heart that will vibrate in strong sympathy with all those who are battling for the right.
Of the Stories, 'Saved by Kindness,' 'The Hope of the Fallen,' 'Better than Gold,' and 'The Disinherited,' will not fail to impart a salutary influence.
Of the shorter Sketches and Essays, 'Little Nelly,' 'The Old Tree and its Lessons,' 'Letters and Letter Writing,' 'What is Truth?' 'A Text for a Life-time,' and the 'Immensity of Creation,' will be found to contain many a fine thought, incentive to an independent action of mind in the pursuit of Truth. Of the Humorous articles may be noted, the 'Autobiography of an Automaton,' 'Bandbox Movement,' and 'Not made for an Editor.'
Interspersed throughout these pages are many genuine POEMS, not a mere jingling of rhyme, with more regard to sound than sense, but veritable poems; brilliant, soul-electrifying thoughts, clothed in simple words, yet intense in style and earnest in expression, bearing in every line a text for a volume. Of these poems, the accomplished Editors of the "Home Journal" speaks in high terms. George P. Morris, whose judgment in such matters is unexceptionable, says, "Some of them are exquisite, and all of them have merit; their publication in a volume will be a valuable contribution to the stores of American literature." N. P. Willis fully coincides with Mr. Morris in his opinion, and adds, "Those that I have read are true poetry: they are well worth publishing." A distinguished literary gentleman of Philadelphia writes as follows: "I have read several of these poems with much pleasure; that they have been praised by two of the most gifted poets of our country is sufficient indication of their merit."

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.
HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen, thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.
This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.
CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

MEDICAL SYSTEMS.

HOMŒOPATHIC DRACHM.

Take a little Rum—
The less you take the better—
Mix it with the Lakes
Of Wenner and of Wetter.

Dip a spoonful out—
Mind you don't get groggy—
Pour it in the Lake
Winnepisiogee.

Stir the mixture well,
Lest it prove inferior:
Then put half a drop
Into Lake Superior.

Every other day
Take a drop in water;
You'll be better soon,
Or at least you oughter.

ALLOPATHY.

Take some Calomel—
The more you take the better—
Mix it with a drop
Or two of cistern water.

Feed some to your dog;
It will make him vomit,
And, may be, see stars,
Or, perhaps a Comet.

Once in each half hour
Take a rousing potion;
Say—a tumbler full—
If that suits your notion.

If you chance to die—
As you're almost sure to—
You may safely swear
That it didn't cure you.

HYDROPATHY.

Take a linen sheet,
The larger 'tis the better—
Wrap yourself up well,
And plunge into the water.

Any water 'll do—
Croton, sea, or cistern—
Each should make his choice,
As may best suit his turn.

When you're fairly soaked,
If you don't feel better,
Take a generous shower-bath,
And get a little wetter.

Touch no wine or gin,
Drink gallons of cold water;
You'll be better soon—
If you ain't you oughter.

SENSE-OPATHY.

Take the open air,
The more you take the better—
Follow Nature's laws
To the very letter.

Let the doctors go
To the Bay of Biscay;
Let alone the gin
The brandy and the whiskey.

Freely exercise—
Keep your spirits cheerful:
Let no dread of sickness
Ever make you fearful.

Eat the simplest food,
Drink the pure cold water.
Then you will be well—

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be creat.d at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,
No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,
making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his MONUMENTAL, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful
STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Peduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle. In case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Chelic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1854.

THE GOLDEN HAND.—A FEMALE THIEF. The police, on the 28th of May, arrested a notorious female pickpocket, who, from her extraordinary skill, had obtained among her fraternity the title of the "Golden Hand." On Saturday this woman was tried by the Tribunal of Correctional Police. It was stated that she was sixty-seven years of age, that for half a century she had been a regular professional pickpocket, and that the total amount of her thefts is estimated at the enormous sum of 20,000,000f. At the age of fifteen she married a man named Vermousen, and shortly after began the career of pocket picking. Her success was so great that she and her husband lived in grand style and kept carriages and horses. In 1813 or '14 she and her husband were condemned at Liege by default to two years imprisonment for picking pockets, and in 1826 she was sentenced at Ghent to five years' imprisonment for the same offence. In 1831, she purchased a splendid hotel at Lisle, but was shortly after arrested for picking pockets at Arras, and was sentenced to four years' imprisonment. About this time her husband, finding that he had no longer the means of indulging in luxury, took life in disgust and destroyed himself. After her release from jail she went to Belgium, and took up with a man named Juvenal. With him she committed extensive robberies. She has since gone by the names of Vandenberg, Juvenal, Marechal, Nougues, Montague, La Belle, Dancef, Beaugard, etc., and has practiced her calling in all parts of France, Belgium, Germany and Italy. She was always magnificently dressed, and drove about in carriages. She frequented all places of public resort, but principally railway stations and offices of public vehicles.

Informed in May last that she had arrived in Paris, the police took measures for arresting her. Having discovered her residence, which was no easy matter, as she was constantly shifting about from place to place, they, on the 28th of that month, set officers to watch her when she went out. She proceeded to the office of the Yassy omnibuses, Place du Palais Royale, and there they saw her make attempts to pick several pockets. At length she succeeded in possessing herself of the purse of a lady, and thereupon they arrested her. She loudly asserted that she was the victim of a mistake. To silence her the officers searched her pockets, but to their astonishment did not find the purse. When, however, they led her away, it fell to the ground. She had slipped it beneath her petticoats with such dexterity that, though they had kept a close watch on her, they had not observed the act. Her lodgings beings searched, there were discovered considerable sums in gold and silver, 22 pair of ear rings, 8 shirt studs, a watch chain, 8 crosses of different orders, 4 gold buckles, 16 rings, 4 pins, 1 pearl necklace, 4 gold necklace, and other articles of value. She denied that she was the Golden Hand, but the sister of her first husband, a woman named Wever, recognized her and gave a full account of her career. According to this woman, her proper name is Beaugard, she having married some time back a railway employee of that name at Brussels. Called upon for her defence, she vehemently protested that she was not the person she was taken for, and she threw herself on her knees, implored mercy with clasped hands, and tried to weep. The Tribunal condemned her to five years imprisonment, and five years surveillance of the police.—French Paper.

FISH AT NEWPORT.—Frost fish are very abundant this fall, and they are very large and fine flavored. The boys on the docks catch them without difficulty. Little mackerel have also been very plenty this season, and boats with two men have not unfrequently taken six or seven hundred in a short time. It is very uncertain fishing, however, and one may bait hundreds up to the the boat without being able to capture one. They retail in this market at ten cents a dozen. Cod fish are also very abundant, and the boats are doing a good business. The fish run of the ordinary size, bite readily, and a boat may take a hundred almost any day. A friend, in boasting of his exploits last week, said that he had taken twenty six fine codfish in an hour and a quarter, which is very good work for an amateur. The fishermen are now laying in their stock of salt fish for winter use. Fish cured by them are better than any brought into the market. It is surprising the number of lobsters and crabs the codfish destroy. In opening a hundred codfish one will find lobsters whole or in part in at least ninety in a hundred. Some will be found entire, and apparently just gorged, and others perfect in form but nearly digested. We have repeately taken from a codfish, that would weigh not more than six pounds, a lobster weighing not less than a pound.—Newport Mercury.

FISHING.—The Provincetown correspondent of the Barnstable Patriot says that the Grand Bankers from that town have all returned in excellent health and spirits, and bringing good fares. Codfish are beginning to sell in the market for $3.25 per quintal. The mackerel fishermen who have visited the harbor of Provincetown lately, all report mackerel small, scarce and hard to be caught; and the prospect for anything like a respectable catch is very dull. The harbor at the present time is visited by a school of small mackerel, who follow the tide as it flows in, and thus afford rare sport to the young people of the place, who in great numbers and of both sexes, throng to catch them with rod and line from the wharves.

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW for October, 1854, is just received from L. Scott & Co., New York. The Contents are:—The Odin-Religion; Character, Condition, and Prospects of the Greek People; Rajah Brooke; History, its Use and Meaning; Women in France, Madame de Sable; The Sphere and Duties of Government; The Rise and Progress of Diplomacy; The Crystal Palace; Contemporary Literature.

Rajah Brooke is a most interesting paper; and the whole number is quite valuable.

THE DESPOTISM OF TOBACCO.—This is the title of an interesting feuilleton in the Courrier des Etats Unis of the 3d, from the pen of Victor Mennier. Close preaching for Frenchmen. And yet we Americans have nothing to say; for we not only chew and smoke enormously, but tobacco is "the mournful present which the New World made to the Old." M. Danet of France, has lately published an article in one of the journals, warning Frenchmen of the dangers of tobacco.

A few days since we were urging a young man to possess himself of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Six dollars frightened him. But how soon would his cigars amount to this sum? The argument was lost. He could not give up his cigars for Webster.

SERPENT FASCINATION.—A few weeks since a little boy who was known to be frequently absent from school, was noticed in the neighborhood of Privet by a shepherd in the employ of —— Martineau, Esq., to be very busily engaged in the road. He approached nearer, and was surprised to see him feeding two adders! The boy having crumbled the bread in his satchel, spread it out in his pinafore, and the adders came and eat the food from his lap, picking up the crumbs with great dexterity. After feeding them he lay on the ground and played with them, all three seeming to enjoy the sport. But if the little urchin rejoiced in their company the shepherd did not, for with much difficulty he killed the adders, to the great distress of their little playmate, who wept bitterly at their destruction.—Wiltshire Mirror.

A PRIZE.—The Bremen bark Beta arrived at Holmes's Hole on the 3d inst., in charge of Capt. Eben Higgins, late passenger on board the brig Dr. Rogers, (of Salem,) Capt. Bates, from Surinam for Boston, which vessel fell in with the Beta Oct. 28, lat. 34 20, lon. 69 30. The Beta had five feet water in her hold, and was taken in charge by Capt. Higgins, present master, Mr. Clark, also a passenger, and a boy from the Dr. Rogers. The Beta had on board 2,865 barrels guano, 1,620 of which were marked "A," and the remainder marked "B."—Boston Chronicle.

A short time since, a young man residing a few miles from Syracuse, came to that city, imbibed a quantity of whiskey, and, under its influence went home, and into his father's barrel factory, where he insisted on putting a block through the machine. In doing so he got both wrists under the blade, which severed his hands from his arms, so that they barely hung by the skin. Too much besotted to know what had happened, he went to the brook to wash off the blood, when he discovered his terrible condition—for, attempting to use his hands, they dropped from his arms. Thus mutilated he met his mother in the door, who swooned at the fearful sight.

Persons who have had the Small Pox should be sure of a faithful cleansing before going abroad—otherwise they will expose their friends and the community to this loathsome and often fatal disease. N. G. Ladd, a physician, gives in the New Hampshire Patriot, an account of a Miss White, formerly a music teacher at Andover, Mass., who left Boston, after having had this disease, without proper attention to purification, and the result was, that four of her friends who met her at the cars in Andover, took the disease, and one of the number, Mr Puffer, a law student, and very promising young man, died in consequence, after an illness of eleven days. On arriving at her home in Thetford, Vt., this young lady communicated the disease to three of her female friends; all from thoughtless, yet heedless criminal want of care.

Near Lawrenceville, Monroe county, Arkansas, Oct. 14, Aaron McMullin, aged 12 years, was killed by the bite of a rattlesnake. The head of the snake had been severed from its body and laid on a log. The little fellow had forgotten the head was there, and laid his arm in its mouth, which was instantly closed on it, and was only disengaged by pulling it off with his other hand, tearing a vein and an artery of his arm. He died in twenty-four hours.

Buckwheat cakes are not well adapted to women or children. Men who are engaged in out-door occupations, and have strong digestive powers, can dispose of them, but they should be eaten by no one of in-door habits, disposed to constipation or dispepsia. Children should never begin to eat them until they have a full set of teeth, and then should be carefully watched until they become accustomed to them, for they are feverish.

The writer of the above should keep beyond the reach of those women and children whose attachment to "buckwheats" cannot possibly be disturbed by any hints upon their unhealthy or indigestive qualities.—Boston Courier.

A New Hampshire correspondent of the Traveller speaks of apple trees, dandelions and buttercups being in blossom as late as the 2d inst., in the vicinity of Dartmouth College.

Ebenezer Knowlton, the member of Congress elect from the 3d district of Maine, has been for some time in a poor state of health, so much so as to create some alarm among his immediate friends.

F. B. Wheeler, late pastor of the Congregational Church in Brandon, Vt., lost his entire library by the fire on the car near Chester, a short time since.

"I say, neighbor, what are you fencing up that pasture for? forty acres of it would starve a cow." "Right," was the reply. "I am fencing it to keep the cows out.

FINIS LITIS.—The Supreme Court of Holland has just decided a case begun in 1420, respecting the boundary between two communes.

COSTS.—In an action for £9 odd, originally brought in the Glasgow Sheriff's Court, the united costs have been £220.

OHIO TAX LAW.—Judge McLean has decided that the bank tax laws of 1851 and 1852 in Ohio are unconstitutional.

Court of Common Pleas—Adj. Term.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 8.

In 346, Phillips v. Bennett, Adm'r, the Jury returned a verdict for the plff.

In 309, Olivia E. S. Frink v. Darius Frink, the case was taken from the Jury, and a verdict given to the plf. by consent, subject to the opinion of the Superior Court upon a case to drawn. Christie for plff.; Hatch for deft.

No. 294, Ichabod Goodwin, v. Samuel E. Coues, Samuel F. Coues and Charlotte H. L. Coues. This is an action founded on a deed of mortgage for the security of a note to the plff. signed by S. E. Coues, for $8000. The note and mortgage were given 27th Jan. 1849 for the security of certain liabilities of S. E. Coues as one of the late firm of Coues & Goodwin and for himself as an individual.—At the same time G. executed to C. an agreement stating for what purpose the mortgage was given. In 1851, S. E. Coues and wife conveyed the premises, being Congress Block, to Samuel F. Coues. To this action S. E. Coues and wife put in a plea of disclaimer and S. F. Coues plead the general issue. The plff. then put in evidence that he had paid to Bank by his own notes and taken up notes of S. E. Coues to the amount of about $4000.

Various legal objections were made to maintaining the action, which will probably, after a verdict, be transferred on questions of law, to the Superior Court.

This is the last, as it is the most important trial by Jury. The Court will probably rise to-morrow. Judge Morrison throughout this long term has presided not only with great patience and courtesy, but with marked ability. He has been willing to sit until every case on the Docket might be fairly disposed of. There is but one opinion of the Bar, and that is, that he has done his duty faithfully by an impartial administration of Justice.

☞ The examination of Wm. B. Smith on the charge of the murder of Charles F. Brewster, commenced at South Berwick on Tuesday, before Justice Abner Oakes. The minutes of our reporter we received too late for to-days' paper.

AUTUMNAL FLOWERS.—Uncle Toby acknowledges the receipt of the last boquet of the season from the flower garden in Hanover street. He also acknowledges the gift, from the Maker of Flowers, of a single plant of Chrysanthemum, on which are now 472 buds and flowers, many of the latter being in full bloom and of great beauty. This plant was, in May, 1853, a slender, sickly plant, in a pot, and was then transplanted into a good spot of ground. It remained in the ground all winter; and the present season grew luxuriantly and now is beautifully clad in flowers as above mentioned. It has lately been housed to preserve it from the frost.

PORTSMOUTH STEAM FACTORY, No. 2.—The Mill formerly known as the "Sagamore," commenced operations on Tuesday, for the manufacture of Lawns, under the supervision of the Portsmouth Steam Mills, and will in future be kept in constant operation.

POOR ACCOMMODATIONS.—The Newburyport Herald, speaking of the Police Court Room in that city, says:

For a long time the sessions of this court have been held in a room that is a disgrace to the city. Witnesses, and every one else having business with the court, have been subjected not only to the greatest inconvenience, but have been obliged to inhale an atmosphere almost insupportable. It has been a wonder to us how the justice, attornies and officers could submit to it.

That's nothing, after you get used to it. Our Court House is more tolerable, but is similarly aired, and the hall for the education of "our future wives and mothers," is beneath that, and almost under ground! There is a most lamentable ignorance and inattention prevalent with regard to the ventilation of public and private buildings.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—A convention of the Democrats of the second district of New Hampshire met at Manchester on Tuesday. Senator Moses Norris, who voted for the Nebraska bill, presided, and George W. Morrison, who voted against the Nebraska bill, was unanimously renominated for Congress.

POLICEMAN KILLED.—Policeman Gurley, who was stabbed with a dirk knife in the hands of John B. Holmes, as is alleged, on Friday night, during an affray in the First ward, died at the City Hospital yesterday in great agony. Gurley is represented to have been a man of excellent character, and also an efficient officer.—N. Y. Herald of Monday.

In Manchester, N. H., the coroner's jury on the body of Mrs. Asenath Greenleaf, was concluded on Saturday, and resulted in the following verdict, "that the deceased came to her death by drowning, having committed suicide while in a fit of temporary insanity, occasioned by depression of spirits."

MURDER TRIAL.—The trial of John Marshall for the murder of Michael Callin, was commenced at Manchester on Monday. Marshall, it will be recollected, is the stable keeper who killed Callin in a dispute about the pay for the use of a horse.

FAILURES.—Mayor Westervelt, of New York, the great ship builder and ship owner, failed on Saturday, with his firm. A despatch reports that the affairs of the concern show a surplus of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars after the payment of all their debts.—The liabilities of Messrs. Bean & Co., the bankers, whose suspension at New Orleans was previously announced, amount to about one hundred thousand dollars.

MARRIED,

In Newburyport, Mr Lowell H. Hopkinson to Miss Margaret Metcalf.—Mr George W. Chase, of Amesbury to Miss Sarah S. Swett, of Salisbury.

ELECTION RETURNS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.

NEW YORK.—As far as we have yet received returns, Ullman has 48,000, Seymour, 44,000, Clark, 36,000, and Bronson, 7,000 votes for Governor. The contest between Ullman and Seymour will be very close, but the chances now are in favor of Ullman, the Candidate of the Know Nothings. The returns from the city are not yet one-fourth canvassed, but enough is known to justify the belief that Barker, Know Nothing, is elected Mayor; but the contest between him and Wood will be close.

WISCONSIN.—A dispatch from Milwaukie, received this morning, states that Spooner, the anti-Nebraska candidate for Congress, is elected. The City elects four republicans and one democrat to the Assembly.

ILLINOIS.—A despatch from Chicago states that Woodworth, republican, is elected to Congress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—An influential meeting of merchants, and others was held in this city on Saturday, and was presided over by Gov. Seymour, at which it was resolved that a committee be appointed to prepare a communication to the President of the United States, in reference to the better protection of life in vessels navigating the ocean, and requesting that he will communicate the same for action.

LIQUOR CASE IN MIDDLESEX, MASS.—Some time ago Mr. Z. B. Porter, the well known keeper of the great hotel in Cambridge, was convicted before the Cambridge Police Court on eighteen counts in an indictment for selling liquor by the glass, and also of being a common seller. He appealed to the Court of Common Pleas, and the case was tried on Monday at Lowell. The decision of the court below (which involved a sentence upon the defendant of a fine of $250 and costs and imprisonment for four years in the common jail) was affirmed; but Mr. Porter took exceptions to the ruling of the Judge, and the case therefore will go up to the Supreme Court.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Our city police are investigating a mysterious series of murders in the upper section of the city. A woman has been arrested, charged with the murder of two of her own illegitimate children.—An Irishman has also been arrested, as being implicated in the same affair. The murders occurred some time since, and the bodies of the children have not yet been found. A hearing will take place this afternoon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A letter from Havana mentions that the American schooner Peerless has been recently seized as a slaver, after landing a cargo of slaves near Bahias Honda. The slaves are understood to have been also seized by the authorities.

ANOTHER CAR ROBBER ARRESTED.—For some time past small articles of dry goods, &c., have been pilfered from the freight cars of the Norfolk County Railroad. A night watchman in Dedham, named William Mackness, has been arrested as the thief. Many stolen articles were recovered at his boarding house, and he confessed his guilt.

MISSING STEAMER "HER MAJESTY."—This steamer, built by Mr. Denny, Dumbarton, on the Clyde, for Capt. Thomas Dick, has now been out between eighty and ninety days, on her voyage to Quebec, and we grieve to say that there is no hope of her safety.—She was built for the Niagara and Toronto route, is nearly 200 feet long, and between 300 and 400 tons burthen.—Toronto Globe.

THE CASE OF DOCTOR BEALE.—It seems probable that a new trial will be granted in the case of Stephen T. Beale, the dentist who was recently convicted in Philadelphia of taking improper liberties with the person of a lady, while under the influence of chloroform. On the motion for a new trial, several witnesses testified that the jury were under the influence of liquor at the time when they rendered their verdict.

REV. Charles Bartlett, of the New York East Methodist Episcopal Conference, committed suicide by hanging himself in a carriage house, at his residence in Darien, on Friday. On Thursday morning he arose from his bed complaining of a severe pain in his head, and took some anodyne to relieve it, and it is supposed during a temporary aberration of mind he was led to the fatal purpose. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of temporary insanity.

CLERICAL STRIKE.—At Urbana, Ohio, recently, on a Sabbath, the bell of the Presbyterian church rang the second time—the congregation sat waiting and waiting, but no minister came. After the lapse of about half an hour, a note was handed to one of the elders, who arose and read it to the congregation. It was from the minister, who said he would not preach for them any more till his salary was paid up in full.

Teachers' Institute.

THE FALL SESSION of this Institute will be holden at the Academy in CHESTER, to commence on MONDAY, Nov. 13, at 10 o'clock, A.M., and continue through the week.
The services of the following experienced Instructors have already been engaged:—
Prof. William Russell, in Reading and Grammar;
" G. S. Houghton, of the N. E. Normal Institute, in Mathematics & Geography;
" Hermann Krusi, in Drawing;
Calvin Cutter, M.D., in Physiology and Hygiene;
Mr. Henry Jones, in Penmanship;
Prof. Sanborn Tenney, of the N. E. Normal Institute, Lecturer on Geology;
A Teacher of Music will also be in attendance.
Those who shall attend the Institute are requested to bring with them a Bible and Dictionary.—Each member will also have to give his name and residence and the number of sessions of the Institute previously attended, plainly written on a card or slip of paper, ready for delivery, on entering the Institute.
The citizens of Chester have made ample arrangements for the accommodation of the members with board, &c. at reasonable prices. Messrs. Francis V. Dow, S. F. Learnard and S. M. Moore have been appointed a Committee of Arrangements, to whom application may be made on arrival.
Carriages will be in readiness, on Monday the 13th, upon the arrival of the morning and noon trains at Derry, on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad; and at Raymond, on the arrival of the same trains on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, to convey to Chester those going to the Institute by those Roads. A daily stage also connects at Derry with the noon trains on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad.
It is hoped that those proposing to attend the Institute, will avail themselves of the facilities for conveyance offered on the first day of the session, as it is desirable to commence with full numbers.

HARD TO OWN.—Mad. Pfeiffer was obliged to avow that she was old and indigestible, to save her life. Some ladies would sooner have died—Boston Post.

"From Java she next visited Sumatra. She went into the interior of the island, and remained four weeks among a tribe of cannibals—one of the most savage of the East Indies—known as the Baitaker. Having a limited knowledge of the Malay tongue, Madame Pfeiffer conversed with the savages without much difficulty, and their cannibalships took occasion to inform her nearly every day that they should have the pleasure soon of killing her, and of enjoying the luxury of eating her. She had her fears that they would do so, but she managed to suppress any signs of fear, and at the same time laughed off the matter, as if it had been said in jest, telling them that she was an old woman, and that her flesh was tough, and would be, therefore, unpleasant to eat."

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life scarcely appeared extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

The medical properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of disease—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary taint. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation:

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutice Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take a spoonful of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief. IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by improprieties in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 58 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, Dr. W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being a innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing WAX, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia, in the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

CATS.—Since the death of our early friend, Thomas Pussy—or as we called him for short, Tom Cat—we have never affected cats much. But that old cat—it is late in the day to write his obituary, or raise a monument to his many virtues. But he was a very early friend. He formed that essential part of house-keeping, when those to whom we owe our existence under Providence, commenced that important part of life. On a notable Sunday morning, being the twenty-eighth day of February, eighteen hundred and no matter what, that cat bade us welcome, as well as a cat could, to this "mundane sphere," and during the long winter nights of many a year afterwards, he shared the humble trundle bed with the twain whose lodging place it was. He lived to be very old, and so "outlived his usefulness." For many a day he sat by the fire, like a veritable "sick kitten leaning to a hot brick." Catnip failed to restore him, and the best medical skill was unavailing. A neighbor was induced to take him away, and put an end to his useless existence. In the grave of that early feline love, we buried pretty nearly all our affection for cats. Nevertheless, cats are well enough in their way, and we have sometimes been forced to entertain some slight respect for them, but never anything like affection. A cat, notwithstanding its very domestic habits and disposition, has no affection for anybody, and for anybody to have any affection for a cat, would be a waste of material. He will just as soon scratch his best friend as a stranger, and will fawn upon a stranger quite as readily as upon his friend. That eminently sociable, comfortable way he has of rubbing about one's heels in the morning, and squatting himself in the chimney corner through the day and evening, grows out of regard for mankind in the abstract, for the comforts which they give him; and his attachment is more the love of locality than of man. But, after all, cats know a great deal—besides a great deal which they don't know. And we were only going to relate a circumstance, showing the sagacity of cats. Hitherto, we have devoted much time to dogs, and in our day enjoyed a monopoly of dog stories. But dog stories are now as common as cheating, and we have done with that branch of literature, pretty much. But to our cat story, if we can get back once more from our rambling. A neighbor of ours has a cat—what is called a tortoise shell cat—that is, she wears about all the colors in the rainbow—a sign fatal to rats and mice in her domain. Like most other cats of her sex, she occasionally blesses her owner with a fine litter of her progeny, which she brings up with most scrupulous care. When they get at a proper age, she goes out about town and finds places for them, and one after another they soon disappear, without the disagreeable duty of drowning. She visits them occasionally for a time, boxing their ears quite smartly if they attempt to follow her home, and finally abandons them to take care of themselves.—Nashua Telegraph.

ANECDOTE OF MAJOR BEN RUSSELL.—Why it is that mankind—and more particularly womankind—desire to conceal their ages, is a problem which has never yet been solved. Speaking of this a few days since, a gentleman related, in course of conversation, the following anecdote. Major Ben Russell and Benjamin Bussey, Esq., met in a barber's shop towards the close of their lives.

'Ah! how do you do, Old Ben Russell,' said Mr. Bussey.

'Come, now,' replied Major Ben, 'I like that—especially from you, who are about my age,' which was a truth.

'Upon my word,' replied Mr. Bussey, 'You're my senior by ten years.'

'Oh no,' replied Russell, who, after a moment's thought, as if seeking for a test, asked, 'What is the first thing you recollect?'

'The first thing I recollect,' replied Mr. Bussey, 'was hearing people talk about old Ben Russell!!'—Saturday Evening Gazette.

Schism has been caused in the Lutheran church in Maryland, by the agitation of the questions as to whether an Odd Fellow can be a good Christian, and as to the proper method of administering the bread in the Lord's supper.

The official term of Brigham Young's governorship of Utah expired on the 29th of September; no successor has been appointed.—It is said that the President is averse to the appointment of Young, while Young declares that he will be Governor in spite of the President "until God Almighty calls on him to give up his commission."

Dr. O. W. Holmes, in his lecture before the Cambridge Lyceum, last week, remarked—"The English see through the medium of insular prejudice, the conceit of their little island, which might be stirred into the Mississippi and settled before it reached the Balize."

Daguerreotypes.
A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (this friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,
No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,
making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory
He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his MOSTLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, AMBROTYPE PICTURES Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community,
Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful
STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.
These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Feduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.
A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

Every body has achieved a most glorious victory in New York State, for every party has defeated some of its opponents. The noise and confusion before and at the election were terrible,—and the confusion is hardly less now.

NEW YORK CITY.—The vote for Mayor is as follows:—Wood, (Democrat) 16,176; Barker, (Know Nothing) 15,848; Hunt, (Reform) 12,9[illegible]9; Herrick, (Whig) 4785. The returns for Wood and Barker are completed; for the other candidates 47 districts have not been heard from. Wood is therefore elected. Of the Councilmen, there are chosen 22 Whigs proper, 3 Whigs and Natives, 1 Whig and Reform, 12 Hards, 7 Softs, 2 Hards and Natives, 3 Reformers, 3 Reform and Soft, 3 Reform and Hard, 2 Reform and Native. The canvas of the returns for Governor in the city are not yet complete; but, roughly estimated, Seymour will have 23,000; Ullmann, 20,000; Clark, 9000; Bronson 2000.

In the 26th district, Oliver, Democrat and anti-Nebraska, is elected; in the 24th, Granger, Whig; and in the 25th, Morgan, Whig,—all for Congress.

In New York city, Fernando Wood, the Democratic and anti-Maine Liquor law candidate for Mayor, is chosen. The Whigs proper have a plurality in the city councils.

The Tribune still adheres to the opinion that Seymour has been elected Governor, but thinks that Scroggs, Know Nothing, will be Lieutenant Governor, or possibly Raymond, owing to Ludlow running behind the Seymour ticket.

THE MORNING LIGHT.—This is the title of a sheet about the size of this, published at Concord, N. H., by Oliver Hart. Number one is dated November 6th. Its editors labor to prove that "the 23d day of the 7th month" (Tuesday next, November 13th) is the time appointed for the Second Advent of Christ.—Believers are urged to "hold on a few days longer, and bear the scoffs of an ungodly world and an apostate church." One writer closes an article by saying,

"None but the wise will understand the time, after all said and done; and the wise are those who leave and sell all, and thereby obtain the necessary preparation to meet the Lord."

The italics are ours.

DEATH OF HECTOR, THE VOCALIST.—Mr. John Hector, the well known and popular vocalist, died at the residence of a relative in Boston, on Monday night, of dropsy of the heart. He was about 30 years of age, and on the eve of marriage. The Courier says:

He first became known as a public singer during the visit of the Rainer Family, of which he became a member, and took the place of a lady tenore who died suddenly. Subsequently his voice changed, and he became as popular as a bass as he had formerly been as a tenore. He had a keen perception of the comicalities of music, and few could surpass him in the rendering of a humorous song. Though he had long been in public life, his habits and character were free from the follies and foperies which too often disfigure the public performer.

The court martial on Sir Edward Belcher, for having abandoned his ships in the polar seas, has terminated. In the case of Capt. McClure and the officers who acted under Sir E. Belcher, the verdict was that they are honorably acquitted; and in each instance the sword was returned with a complimentary remark. In the verdict on Belcher, the word "honorably" was omitted, and his sword was returned to him in silence. The proceedings are reported at full length in the London papers, and the examination elicited some interesting particulars of arctic life.—English pa.

A HASTY CANDIDATE.—J. W. Barker, the Know Nothing candidate for Mayor in New York, endorsed the platform of the "Practical Democrats." This gave some dissatisfaction to his friends, when Barker very cooly publishes that he signed the circular without having read it. Some of the papers query whether a man who signs circulars without reading them is exactly qualified to take charge of the city's business.—Mail.

PRESIDENT OF MEXICO SUED FOR A NUISANCE.—In looking over the docket of Justice Jonte, of this city, we observe, among other defendants upon whom the city has pounced, through our vigilant Street Commissioner, for breaches of the ordinances, General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, President of Mexico, who is charged with not keeping the back premises of his building on Poydras street, between Magazine and Tchoupitoulas, in a cleanly state.—N. O. Delta.

QUEBEC, Nov. 7.—Help to the Widows and Orphans of the War.—Last night, on the suggestion of Mr. Hincks, the Legislative Assembly came to an understanding to vote a sum of money to be applied to the relief of the widows and orphans of the soldiers of the allied armies who fell in the recent battles.—The amount will probably be $100,000.

THE ARCTIC'S LIFE BOATS.—The New York Express says the life boat picked up by the Lilly Dale, it is thought, is that out of which Dorian and his party were taken by the bark Huron.

☞ Frank Leslie's Ladies' Gazette for November, is received from Federhen & Co., Boston. Mr. Morse has it. This is a splendid monthly, of Paris, London and New York fashions, and is a great favorite with the ladies, to whom it must be of much service.

The Whipping Post is still in use in Covington, Kentucky. Lawrence Hunt was publicly whipped in that place last week for stealing caps.

CITY COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, Nov. 9.

Board of Aldermen, ——

Common Council, ——

☞ Dr. O. W. Holmes, of Boston, delivered the second lecture of the Mercantile Course, on Thursday evening, at the Temple.

The subject was, the Americanized Englishman. The lecturer briefly described and contrasted the Climates, products and minerals of Old England and New; laying down the position that there ought to be a marked difference, physiologically, between the men of the one and of the other, after two or three hundred years of acclimation should have done their work on the New Englanders, whose ancestors came from the parent isle.

His next position was, that this difference of obligation is also a difference in fact.—This position he fortified with a variety of quotation and illustration, such as a scholar, an anatomist, and a poet like Dr. Holmes knows how to use.

He concluded that yankees have less blood than Englishmen, but more nerve; that yankees are not quite so good vegetables as the English, but are on the whole, better laborers: and he showed, from impartial tables, and figures that did not lie, that notwithstanding our sallower skins and sharper faces, we live as long as the English; and, that contrary to the common opinion, we have no more consumption among us than they.

The lecture was well written and finely delivered to a full house: it was, moreover, wisely confined within an hour.

MR. FIELDS'S ADDRESS.

The following remarks were offered by Mr. James T. Fields, as a preface to his Poem, which he read before the Mercantile Library Association of this city, on Thursday evening, Nov. 2.

Gentlemen of the Mercantile Library:—It is quite unnecessary for me to add another word to the exercises of this evening. The occasion itself, the commencement of your first course of public lectures with the admirable discourse to which you have just listened, would seem of sufficient interest and attraction. But I need not say here and now how much pleasure I feel in being present tonight and complying with your kind request. He who has gone much about the world will find that there is no favor, no applause, no love, so grateful to the human heart, as that which springs up in his native place. It is there that a man looks for whatever of true interest or affection may be awarded to his humble endeavors after excellence in any department of art, or literature, or science. No matter how hard a man may become by contact with the world and its cares, he rarely fails to be moved by revisiting the scenes of his youth. The sands of the desert might have blown for centuries upon the statue of Memnon without eliciting a single sound,—but it never failed to be touched into music when the early beams of the morning sunlight played about its forehead.

Tonight I come to you with more than the accustomed pleasure with which I always return among the old familiar faces. For I believe that the institution of such a society as the young gentlemen of Portsmouth have so recently formed, is destined to accomplish a peculiar and most welcome purpose. Who does not owe something to a well-selected library? Who has not been cheered on and incited to duty by the perusal of a good book? You, gentlemen of the Library Association, have commenced well, and I hope and trust your good work will go forward, and not be allowed to languish in a city which through a long series of years has been somewhat remarkable for the genius it has fostered and the great names it has sheltered. Where such men as Webster and Bartlett, and Buckminster and Parker, have breathed the air and walked the pleasant streets, have studied and thought and acted, I feel, we must all feel, there can be no danger that such a society as yours will not prosper and be successful. But I will detain you no longer from what I came more especially to do.

May I now ask your attention for a few minutes to a brief poem on Eloquence—a subject the more appropriate, perhaps, that some of its most gifted examples have here found a home at some period of their brilliant career.

C. C. PLEAS.—In the case Goodwin vs. Cones et al. the case was taken from the Jury on Thursday, and on motion of plff. continued; plff. paying costs.

LAUNCH.—A fine ship of about 1200 tons will be launched this afternoon at 3 1-2 o'clock from the yard of Messrs. Fernald & Petigrew, at Badger's Island. She is owned by Messrs. J. M. Tredick, Samuel Sheafe, and Geo. W. Haven of this city. The ship has not yet been named.

☞ Rev. Dr. Parker, of Cambridge, Mass., will preach at the Middle Street Baptist Church in this city, next Sabbath.

☞ The new Vane on the New North Church, was observed on Thursday, pointing duly to the North West, signifying cold weather. The Vane is a harp and star, as to its figure.

FARMINGTON BANK.—Samuel S. Clark of Dover, has been appointed cashier of the new Bank at Farmington, N. H., which goes into operation in a few days.

Boy Wanted.

A GOOD, capable boy, with fair common school education, residing in or out of the City, can have at the Chronicle Office, a good opportunity to learn the art of Printing. o28

Examination of William B. Smith,

AT SOUTH BERWICK, ME.,

Charged with the Murder of Chas. F. Brewster.

BEFORE ABNER OAKES, ESQ.

For State J. B. Goodwin, for prisoner H. H. Hobbs.

TUESDAY, Nov. 7.

Daniel Wadleigh, South Berwick, testified that he was called to see a dead body on 21st of September, 1854; was called by George Cate now at sea; went and found it in Hayes' woods: went first alone, but then called on George Hodgdon, I. Goodwin and David Hodgdon, who went with him to the place. The body was laying on the face; did not see the body after that day, saw a straw hat by the body; was there when the Coroner came.

Doct. T. H. Jewett, of South Berwick, was called by Coroner Paul to see a dead body. Found the body back of Hayes' hill, in a swamp in the woods; the body was considerably decayed; the brain was decayed; the feet and legs and hands were in very good preservation; there was a shirt on the body; it was lying on the face, with some parts of the body covered with bark and grass: the left side of the scull was broken in just behind the ear; thinks one-third of the side of the head was gone; he must have had two heavy blows on the head, think that he was struck with a club or stone, and his brain broken in; think that either of the wounds would produce death; said the skull was very thin indeed. One foot seemed to be bent as if from an old injury: one foot did not look like the other. The hair was chesnut color; the teeth looked like those of a young person: think one of the teeth was gone; did not notice any other marks about the body: think the body must have been there four or five weeks; thinks that it was a lower tooth that was gone; thinks that the wound was on the side of the foot, the foot was bent inwards and not outwards; was but very little hair on his head; could not say that he was struck by a stone or a club.

Drs. Trafton and Sanborn gave similar testimony.

Josiah Paul, of South Berwick, said he was called on the 21st day of Sept., 1854, to visit a dead body as Coroner; examined the body and took charge of it: there was a shirt on the body: a vest and hat near by, also a nail punch: there were wood screws and pencil in the pocket of the vest. He then showed the shirt, suspenders, screws, pencils and hat and vest: said the shirt had been washed; took the things same day, the 21st, and the next morning. He took them from the ground on which the body was found; said Messrs. Mason & Cushing had had these articles.

Cross Exam.—Could not tell how long they had them: should think they had them two days. Mr. Brown washed the shirt: it was washed in Hays' field; after that let Mr. Brown take it home and wash it; had it some two or three days; knows the shirt by its general appearance; knows the vest in the same way. Messrs. Cushing and Mason took them to Mr. Brewster's folks, at Barrington, N. H. Thought if there were two just alike he could not tell them apart; said the screws were rusty at the time they came into his possession.

Alonzo Mason, of South Berwick, said they were the same articles that Mr. Paul let him have, the hat, vest, pencil, screws, and nail set. He was present when the vest was found by a boy, Thomas Kenny: thinks he was poking the ground with a stick; he did not move it until Mr. Paul, the coroner, came; said that it might be 16 or 20 feet from the body; was present when the nail set was found; Albert Wiggins found it, and Mr. A. R. Cate took it.

Cross Exam.—Says that they are the same that Mr. Paul let him have; kept them with him all the time; said the shirt was covered with putrid matter, and that was the reason it was washed; thinks that there were some stars and other marks on the nail sett.

A. J. De Cater of Lawrence, carpenter. Am acquainted with the late C. F. Brewster, have known him twenty years or more; he was a carpenter; has worked for me at Lawrence about 8 months, commenced in April, 1853; then went to work for A. H. Richardson, my former partner; he worked for him till last August, 1854, then left Lawrence, which was the first or about the first of August; said he wanted to come home and then he would go to work for me; said he would be gone home two or three days; left his tools at Richardson's shop; his clothing he left at Sam'l Ellisom's, his boarding house; thinks he has seen Brewster have on that vest; he was to have one made by the same tailor; thinks the hat also was Brewster's, had it in May; he was in the habit of wearing a shirt without a bosom; he wore boots at the last of his being with me; the tailor that made the vest was S. F. Mason; think I have seen that nail sett before at Lawrence; C. F. Brewster had it; said that he had the stars stamped on it so that he could tell it from mine; the map's name that made them was E. Houstin; have seen it quite often; sometimes would see it twenty times per day, when at work with him; think the nail sett was made one year ago last June; would carry his nail sett in his vest pocket the most of the time; he was steady the most of the time; have seen him intoxicated; he always, when intoxicated, went alone; should think he was about six feet, rather thin; have not seen or heard of him at Lawrence since.

Cross Ex.—I paid him one dollar per day and boarded him when he worked for me; do not know what Richardson paid him; had the conversation with him the day before he left; think it was the seventh of August; did not see him have any money at this time; he would sometimes get intoxicated once a month, and then go without it for four or five months; his sprees would last him from one to three days; do not know whether he spent much money or not; do not know what he did with his money; used to pay my hands once a month; he would never come to my house when on one of his times; he boarded with me about one year; should think he was twenty-five or six years old; he was, when sober, not very talkative; am not positive that this is the vest I saw him have at Lawrence; he had a hat similar to this when he left Lawrence.

Simon F. Nason, of Lawrence.—Am in the tailoring business; I knew Charles Brewster about a year and a half ago, he has had work down at my shop; do not recollect of making him but two garments, a pair of pants and a vest: made for him a black vest; I have seen this vest before in Lawrence; I think I made this vest for C. F. Brewster. I preserved the measure at the time I made the vest; that is the vest that corresponds with the measure. I made it according to his direction; it was not in style at the time the vest was made; have not seen him since the first of the Summer.

Cross Ex.—I could not say that they are the same buttons that were on it when it left the shop; was delivered about the 24th June, 1853, charged it to Richards and DeCater. I have no doubt but that is the vest I made for C. F. Brewster.

Osgood Hutchinson, of Lawrence.—C. F. Brewster has bought a pair of boots of me; I think it was about six months ago; can not tell that I sold this pair of Boots, but have sold very many like them. Had boots mended at my shop, think it was in June, have not seen him since.

John C. Otis, of Great Falls, stone layer, I think I saw a strange man at Great Falls some time last Summer; think it was in July, first saw him in Samuel Grant's store; he had on dark pants and a black satin vest; do not recollect what kind of a hat he had on nor what kind of a shirt; he did not have a coat. There were a number in there, and he was drinking with them; he asked some five or six up to the bar to drink, and gave Stephen Grant a five doller gold piece; Grant told him it was not good and would not take it; he then gave Mr. Grant a ten dollar bill to take the pay out of; Grant told him to put it in his pocket, or some of them would have it away from him; he seemed to be in drink. I left him at Grant's store, and did not see him until the next day, when I saw him at Mr. Grant's about 6 o'clock; at about ten I saw him with W. B. Smith: have known Smith by sight for some three years: saw them on the new road leading from Great Falls to Deer st., below Charles Horn's house, noticed them particularly. What Mr. Horn said called my notice to them. I heard him called by some name, but do not now remember what it was. Brewster said that he had been to work at Lawrence, said that he was a carpenter by trade; have not seen Brewster since. Was about one-quarter of a mile from Grant's shop, when I saw them walking and talking together. Smith had a small black trunk. There were no others at Grant's.

Cross Ex.—I drank once on Horn's invitation; did not drink with Brewster; think he had a shirt with a linen bosom, and dark pants; had on boots with pants inside of them; Cha's Horn, Stephen Grant, J. Pittman and John French were in the store; I was by the side of the bar when he gave him the five dollar piece, and took it in my hand; I was there twenty minutes, just at dark, a little after the bell rang to leave work; Brewster was not intoxicated; did not see him intoxicated at any time; I said that there goes Smith, and I think he has turned doctor, for he has his trunk.

Hutchinson of Lawrence recalled.—There is a man at my shop that does patching in the style of the boots in Court, John Quick; never saw any body else that would patch in that way; Quick did work for me last summer.

Lyman J. Sanborn, of Lawrence, carpenter, testifies that he was a fellow workman, boarder and lodger with Brewster, at Lawrence; that B. left August 8, for a visit of 3 days only, wearing black satin vest and mixed pants; think he wore boots which had been tapped; this vest I think is his, and the hat is like the one he wore. This nail sett I think was his, by the marks; I have often used it; he used to carry it in his vest pocket; have seen a mark on one of B.'s feet; B. had about sixty dollars in money; have seen him play cards.

SECOND DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 9.

The Court came in at 9 o'clock.

Lyman J. Sanborn, continued.—Cross Ex.—Could not tell on which foot the mark was; could not swear that the boots belonged to C. F. Brewster; Brewster said he had got his pay of Richardson the man he worked for, said he had seventy dollars, did not say what he had done with the other ten.

Samuel F. Brewster, of Barrington, N. H., had a son by the name of Charles F. Brewster; he identifies the body of his son; his testimony about the clothes is like the other witnesses; his son had no coat on when he left.

George W. Brewster, of Barrington, N. H. I am a son of Samuel F. Brewster. I had a brother, Charles F. Brewster. My brother has been to work in Lawrence as a carpenter. He went to Lawrence in March, 1853; he came back about the first of August, 1854. When he came he had on a straw hat, black satin vest and dark pants mixed and striped with two colors: I can not remember the figure of the pants; have never seen any like them before. He had on boots. He remained at home a week or two. He was making water conductors when at home, for my father; he left home about the 20th August, 1854. I do not recollect the day of the week; he went towards Gonic, did not tell me where he was going. I did not know that he would leave home that morning; he left between eight and nine; brought a coat and vest from Lawrence that he did not wear: he had on when he left vest, pants and shirt; he had a straw hat rather coarse braid, and boots: [articles exhibited.] The hat and vest look like the one he had when he left home and the boots are the ones he had on when he left home. I know the boots by a mark on the sole of them, about two inches from the toe. The punch exhibited looks like the one he had when at home. I saw him last have the nail sett when at work on the water conductors; he used to carry the nail sett in his vest pocket. I could see the stitching when the boots were whole. I saw him have a five dollar gold piece and also a two and a half dollar one. I saw it when he was at home, he had it in his pants pocket. I saw him have a calf skin wallet; he exchanged with his mother and got it: he worked on the farm two or three days with us haying. I have known him to use screws at home to put in window fastenings; I think they were a small size; [the screws exhibited;] he had been using screws like them: they were obtained from William Hale, Jr., Dover.

Cross Ex.—I saw him with the gold and some small change. I do not think I should have seen his money if he had any more. I think it was Wednesday, about the 20th day of August. I asked him how he made the mark on the boot, he did not give me a direct answer. He went in his shirt sleeves about all the time he was at home. I know that those are the boots my brother had when he left home. I think the nail sett looks like the one he had at home. I saw him have the gold money two or three times.

AFTERNOON.

Stephen Grant, of Great Falls, N. H.—I work in Mr. Sam'l Grant's saloon; I some time last summer saw a stranger in the saloon; he had on a black satin vest and a straw hat; he did not have a coat on; I should think that it was about 4 o'clock P. M. when I first saw him; I do not recollect the day of the month or week; no one was with him at this time; I could not tell how long he remained at this time; I do not recollect the time he left; I do not know his name; he told me that he belonged in Lawrence and was a carpenter; he told me he lodged at the Neck House, kept by William Hodge; I went to the door with him the first night he was in and told him which the way was to go; I saw him have a five dollar gold piece; I told him I did not like to take that as I thought it was not good; he took it back and threw out a ten dollar bill; I changed it for him, and gave him nine dollars and ten cents back; I think I gave him a five, a two, and two ones; I did not see him have any other money; John C. Otis, John French, Charles Horn, and a man by the name of Heath, was in the shop the time he was; I know Wm. B. Smith; I have known him two or three years; I did see Smith about this time, in the shop, about ten o'clock A. M., fixing a wart for a man by the name of Hayes, who was in the shop at this time; I did see him with the stranger; do not know how long Smith remained in the shop; I have not seen the stranger since that day.

Cross Ex.—I could not tell how many times the stranger was in the shop; it was the second day that the stranger was there that Smith was in the shop; Smith was in the shop at 6 o'clock A. M.; the stranger and Smith were in the shop at the same time; did not see him and Smith speak together; I cannot recollect the month, it was in the year of 1854; should think that it was two or three months ago; I think he was in the shop two mornings, the last time he was in about nine o'clock A. M.

John M. French, of Great Falls, N. H.—I did see a stranger at Great Falls, I think about three or four months ago; he was a man about six feet high, with sandy whiskers and complexion; was in his shirt sleeves at the time; he had on a straw hat somewhat turned dark, not a new hat; I think he had a black hdk'f on his neck, very loosely tied; should think he had on a checked or striped vest, and a kind of ribbed pants, blue and I think checked; there was two spots of patch on one side of the pants; he had on a pair of thin boots, with no blacking on them; he spoke of having them blacked; I saw him have in his left hand two matches and a nail sett, he took them out of his vest pocket (nail sett excepted;) I could not say that this is the nail sett, it was about the size; I saw him have a $2 1-2 gold piece, which he said he would sell for one dollar; I think that no one bought it; I saw him pass a ten dollar bill at the bar, he passed it to Stephen Grant: it was to pay for treating the company;—I think John Otis and Ivory W Lord were in the shop at the time: he offered before this the 2 1-2 dollar gold piece; Grant said he thought it was not good. Could not tell what change he received back; I think Grant told him to take his money, as he did not take it at the time he laid it down. I saw him the next day on the other side of the street, at Mr Hayes' shop; when I went in he was seated on a bench: did not seem to be doing much of anything; had something to say to almost every one that come in or out. He asked me how I would trade pants. I saw he was intoxicated. He went out and took a seat under the fence on an old stovepipe; Mr Hayes came out and wanted me to get him in, as he did not want people to see him there; I did help him into Hayes' shop; that is the last time I ever saw him. I have seen Smith, the prisoner, at Great Falls, at Mr. Grants' shop; he was curing a wart for B. Hayes: it was past eleven when I left. I think this was the day I saw Brewster at Hayes'. I could not say that I did see Smith after that evening.

Cross Ex.—It was in the evening that I first saw the stranger, about 8 o'clock; Grant's saloon is on Washington and Orange sts. I went out and went to the Post Office which is on Market st. I can not remember how long I stopped at the Post Office. I think I did not come back to Grant's at that time. The stranger went out when I went in the second time.

With the testimony of this witness we close our to-day's report. The examination will be continued to-morrow. C.

CLERICAL WIT.—One of our exchanges has the following hit:—The late Rev. Mr. Chapin being asked of what use the elders were in a church, replied, that it was said, to give power to ministers. He was a unit, the elders cyphers; placed upon the right hand, they increased his power. "But," he added, "my elders have got on the wrong side, and reduced me to a decimal fraction."

In Woodbury, Vt., Mrs. Lyford shot a big hawk which was worrying her chickens. This would not be worth mentioning but for the fact that Mrs. L. has but one arm. She rested her piece in the crotch of a tree.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements to secure applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can testify, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
P. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Bourmon de Lara, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures collected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA."

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines bearing a resemblance to them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elastic and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping. also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-similie of the Manufacturers' name.

MINISTER'S SALARY ON A SLIDING SCALE.—In a history of the town of Hadley, Mass., published in the Springfield Republican, it appears that Rev. Samuel Hopkins, D. D., was settled in that town, Feb. 26th, 1755, and that he died in 1811, after a ministry of 56 years, aged 81. The following sliding scale for his salary, is interesting not only as curious in itself, but as probably showing the prices of various important articles of consumption at that time. We are not sure, if the fluctuation of prices in the last two years, is a sample of what we are to have in future, that it would not be well to adopt some such sliding scale for salaries at the present time. It is certain that many have felt the need of a rise of salary in proportion to the advance of prices of flour, &c., without having obtaid it.

"That the annual Salary shall rise or fall in the Nominal Sum, as the Eight Articles hereafter mentioned shall rise or fall from the Prices now agreed upon by Mr. Hopkins & the Committee; viz. The Advance by the Wholesale Merchant on English Goods, being now One Hundred and Seventy Pounds lawful money for One Hundred Pounds Sterling. The Husbandman's Labor in Summer, Two Shillings per day; Men's Shoes Six Shillings per pair; Wheat four Shillings per bushel; Rie Two Shillings & Eight Pence per bushel; Indian Corn Two Shillings per bushel; Fall Beef One Penny Two Farthings half farthing per Pound; & Pork Two Pence Two farthings per Pound, (in the Town of Hadley or County of Hampshire) And that each Eight Part of the Salary is to rise, or fall, as each of the said Articles shall rise, or fall; That is to say, One Eighth by One Article & another Eighth by another article, and so on."

INCIDENTS OF THE COLLISION ON THE WEST CANADA RAILROAD.—A young man from the east, whose leg was terribly broken, never uttered a sigh while waiting his turn, and moaned but once when being removed. "Must I lose it!" said he, in a subdued voice, as he gazed on the shattered limb; and that was all. An elderly lady, of great size, crushed beyond hope of recovery, wished not to be taken into the cars, but calmly await death where she was. "Gentlemen," said, she, expostulating mildly, "you will find it very difficult. I weigh two hundred forty pounds." Her perfect coolness in such an awful moment was not surpassed on the field of Almar or the deck of the Arctic. Her removal was indeed difficult, but was accomplished. The conductor, an old and hitherto fortunate railroad employee, declared that "this was the last of his railroading."—Detroit Paper.

The Baptist Almanac for 1855 states that in 1853 there were in the United States 10,131 Baptist churches, 6475 ministers, and 808,754 members. These are all regular Baptists.—In addition there are 5800 anti-mission Baptists, 51,755 Freewill Baptists, 2189 General, 6351 Seventh Day, 8000 Tunkers, 13,500 Church of God, and 225,000 Reformers. All the New England States are reported to have but 92,008, while Virginia alone has 88,779. The southern States of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, and South Carolina and Tennessee, have 354,975. In the western States about 75,000 members are reported.

A GOOD JOKE.—A fair lady of color stepped into the telegraphic office, at Jackson, Tenn., a few days since, with a sealed letter in her hand, and desired the polite operator to send it to her husband in Arkansas. He unsealed the document, preparatory to giving it the slip over the wires, and lo! and behold, it was found to contain about two pages, closely written, and a token of remembrance for her dear absent husband in the shape of a large, fine lock of hair.—Cincinnati Gaz.

An English writer says you can tell when you are surrounded by a dozen Americans by the following unerring test:—Three will be found smoking cigars, and nine reading newspapers. Really, this is important.

Three inches of snow fell in Canada on Saturday, the 4th.

"A LUNAR OBSERVATION."—In referring to the moon, Professor Phillips remarked, at a meeting of the British Association, at Liverpool, "At one time, he believed that there was no trace of water to be seen; but he confessed that the more recent observations, particularly those made with Lord Rosse's Telescope, shook his belief in that opinion."

At Manchester, as Mr. W. S. Morey, landlord of the Island Pond House, was cutting wood, by some sudden jar or strain he ruptured a blood vessel on the back of his head or neck, which caused his death in about four hours.

Daguerreotypes.
A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be creat.d at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,
No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel, making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.
He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his unsurpassed, LIFE-LIKE, BEAUTIFUL PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.
Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful
STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.
These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Poduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.
A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1854.

ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK.—The election returns received to 10 o'clock Thursday evening, foot up—Seymour, about 90,000; Clark, 82,000; Ulmann, 31,000.

Thirty or thirty two anti-Nebraska Congressmen are elected, of whom 28 are Whigs.

The Legislature is Whig, and, according to the Tribune, Seward Whig.

It is barely possible that Clark or Ulmann may run up to Seymour for Governor.

About ten thousand Know Nothings assembled in the Park this evening, at a few hours notice, and passed resolutions denouncing the election of Wood for Mayor, as the result of the grossest frauds at the polls.

NEW JERSEY.—The members of Congress just elected for this State are as follows:

Dist. 1, Isaiah D. Clawson, Whig K. N.
2, Geo. R. Robbins, Whig anti-N.
3, *James Bishop, Whig anti-N.
4, George Vail, Dem., Nebraska.
5, *A. C. M. Pennington, Whig A. N.

Antl-Nebraska majority in the State 6000.
*Re-elected.

The new House is anti-Douglas; the Senate (two-thirds holding over) is said to be tied.

WISCONSIN.—Two of the Republican candidates for Congress are chosen, and Mr Wells, who voted against the Nebraska bill, has been re-elected.

The Legislature is Republican—in short, the State goes all that way. It is temperance.

MICHIGAN.—The Republican State and Congressional candidates have all been chosen.

In many of the counties the Republican county tickets have been successful.

ILLINOIS.—Five Whigs, one Free Soil, and one anti-Nebraska Democrat have been elected;—no returns from the seventh district.—Mr. Williams is elected over Mr. Richardson, the chairman of the Committee on Territories in the present Congress, and the reporter and defender of the Nebraska bill is defeated by Mr. Williams. The majority for Woodworth, the Republican candidate, as far as heard from, is 25,000.

INDIANA.—The Indianapolis papers contain the official vote given for members of Congress in the several districts in that State Nine Fusion or Republicans, and two Democrats, are elected to Congress.

Indiana never voted but once before for the Whigs, and that was at the time of the Harrison election.

WISCONSIN.—In the 1st Congressional district, Willis, Democrat and anti-Nebraska, is elected; 2d, Washburn, Republican; 3d, Bellingherst, as far as heard from, ahead.

☞ The Liberty Hall building in New Bedford was burnt on Thursday morning. It was formerly a meeting house, but latterly has been a great hall, with stores beneath.—Loss $12,000 or more.

Mrs. Sally Sargent Head, of Hooksett, N. H., widow of the late Samuel Head, Esq., died suddenly on last Monday noon, aged 70. She was found dead sitting in a chair, holding a newspaper in her hands, and looking at it as if in the act of reading. She had spectacles on and her feet rested on the stove.

ARREST OF ANOTHER RIOTER.—The Worcester Transcript states that Solomon H. Dutton, the colored man who is alleged to have committed the attack upon officer Butman, in the City Marshal's office, was arrested on Thursday and brought before the Police Court, in that city, when he gave bail in $1000 for his appearance at a future day.

ACCIDENT.—In Worcester, on Wednesday last, as Isaiah S. Merrill, a lad of sixteen, son of James L. Merrill, of Fitchburg, was attending a derrick, the handle of the crank slipped from his grasp, and flying round struck his head so violently as to fracture his skull. His case is considered dangerous.

UNFORTUNATE.—A man in Albany, while in a fit of nightmare, dreamed that he was a horse and that his wife was a hostler going to rub him down. At this point in his dream he kicked his spouse out of bed. She applied to a magistrate the following morning for a decree of divorce.

NEWSPAPER SALE.—It is reported that F. Gleason, the publisher and proprietor of "The Flag of our Union" and "Gleason's Pictorial," papers of immense circulation, has sold his entire establishment, good will, and so forth, to M. M. Ballou, Esq., for the sum of two hundred thousand dollars.

PERJURY IN A LIQUOR CASE.—In the Police Court, Monday morning, Wm. Wiley was charged with perjury in his testimony in a liquor case in the Municipal Court, and was committed for trial in the Municipal Court, in default of bail in $2000.—Portland Argus.

A waggish friend of ours proposes to write obituary notices for the political victims who are killed off next Monday in this State, at twenty five cents apiece! If he puts in a few spread-eagle sentences, and adds the words "very much lamented," he will charge fifty cents.—Boston Mail.

The Express says it is a common practice in New York to smoke while attending a funeral. It often sees long files of persons with cigars in their mouths following a hearse.

Court of Common Pleas—Adj. Term.

FRIDAY, Nov. 9.

The Court was engaged throughout the forenoon in hearing motions.

Joseph Locke, convicted of stealing a watch and other things at Rye Beach, was sentenced to the State prison for 2 1-2 years.

In the afternoon the recent death of four members of the Bar was noticed. Remarks were offered by Messrs. Hackett, Hatch, and French; which were responded to by Judge Morrison, feelingly and ably.

Appropriate resolutions were offered and ordered to be entered upon the records of the Court.

We shall publish the details, probably on Monday.

The Court adjourned on Friday afternoon.

☞ Rev. Professor Stowe, of Andover, will preach in the Temple to-morrow.

SINGULAR DISASTER.—On Sunday last, Mr. Dennison Wallace, of Hampton, N. H., on going into his barn yard was attacked by one of his steers, and thrown against a stone wall with such force as to fracture his skull, from the effect of which he died in a few hours.—Boston Traveller.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE.—In the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, at Newburyport, Tuesday evening, a communication was received from the school committee, respecting a vacancy in which they non-concurred in the action of the Board. The Board voted to adhere to former action. This communication was brought out by the election of a school committee man by the Mayor and Aldermen, to fill a vacany, at which they protest, wishing to go into Convention with the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.—Herald.

SINGULAR MORTALITY.—The New Hampshire Patriot reports that since the first of June last, four of the Representatives in the New Hampshire Legislature have died.

SECOND DAY—CONTINUED.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 9.

Mary E. Brewster, of Barrington, N. H.—I am a sister of Charles F. Brewster. My brother has worked at Lawrence; he came home the first of August, 1854. I was not there when he came; when I first saw him he was in his shirt sleeves. (Clothing exhibited to the witness.) I think they look like those he wore. I was at home when he left; it was in August; it was on Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock, I had taken breakfast, I did not know that he intended to leave; I do not know of any reason for his leaving so suddenly; I did not see what road he took; he had on when he left, a straw hat, black satin vest, dark pants, and was in his shirt sleeves; he had on a poor shirt, there was no bosom in it; he had nothing on his neck; he had on his feet a pair of boots, made of calf skin, thin; have not noticed his boots very particularly. I have not seen him since that time alive. I saw him have a five dollar gold piece and some small change; I did not see any other money; he had some whiskers on his chin; think he had lost one tooth; I think it was on the upper jaw; he had a scar on his right foot; saw this scar when he was at home this last time: the scar was from the third toe to the little one.

Mrs. Sally Brewster, of Barrington, N. H. I am the wife of Samuel F. Brewster. I had a son by the name of C. F. Brewster; he was twenty-six years old the 8th day of July, 1854. He was at Barrington with the family until he went to Lawrence about one year ago last March; he worked on the farm until about two years before he went to Lawrence; he went away in March, and the first time he came home was thanksgiving; the next time was in the Spring, think in March or April. I think he remained at home the first time about three weeks; do not know how long he remained the second time. The last time he came home was in August, the first of the month. I was at home when he came; he had on black broadcloth pants, black satin vest, straw hat, and a greenish broadcloth coat, I think a sack coat; had on boots. He brought home two pair shirts and one pair of pants that he did not have on. He left home on the 23d day of August, 1854, on Wednesday morning: the reason that I am able to remember the day is because I looked for him back on Saturday, and I sat down by the window, and an almanac laid on the window, and I put it down: therefore I am able to remember. He helped our folks finish haying, and then he went to work on some conductors, and was at work on them when he left. The day he left he had on a coarse cotton shirt and a dark colored pair of pants, I think a blueish color, a black satin vest and a straw hat; he had on his feet a pair of calf skin boots, thin, and light blue, ribbed stockings. [The clothing exhibited to the witness.] I think it looks like his vest, &c., &c. I have a button that came from the vest; he asked me to keep it and put it on his vest; the button was then exhibited. [The screws were shown.] I think I have seen him use screws like them in putting on window fastenings at our house. I have seen Charles have this nail sett; he asked me to go up chamber and fetch it down to him. I found it in his sack coat pocket, and asked him what use he put it to; he told me, and put it up and drove a nail by the window. [The shirt was shown the witness.] I have seen it, and I can swear that I made it; it is all my work; I made it for Charles F. Brewster last March. He had a mark on his right foot, cut by an axe when he was nine or ten years of age. I saw this mark last fall, when he was at home: it was cut almost to the outside of his foot, when his foot was on the floor his little toe and the next one would be dropped on the floor. The shirts are alike; I think the cloth came from the same piece. [The stockings were shown.] I have seen them before; two years ago come Winter: he had the stockings on with new boots, and he wet his feet and stained his stockings; he did not carry them to Lawrence; he had them on the last time he left home. I know this, because I got them for him the Monday before he left; he had no others at home; those he had on when he came home from Lawrence, are at my house; I knit the stockings; I know my work and can swear to it. [A wallet was then shown to the witness.] I have seen this pocket book. I bought it some 12 or 14 years ago. When my son was at home last Thanksgiving, he was sitting by the stand table, he pulled the drawer out and saw this pocket book or one like it in the drawer. He wanted to know if I would trade pocket books with him; he wished to trade because he had so much iron about it that in lugging boards, &c., it hurt him and wore out his pants. We then exchanged; he let me have his; when he took the pocket book, the strap was broken, and I took it and barred it across, and therefore know it. He did not have either pocket or neck handkerchiefs when he left home. I do not know the reason he left. I have not seen him alive since. I saw the remains when they were disinterred. I saw nothing but the right foot that looked anything like him; his toes turned down as they used to when he was alive; the remains were much decomposed at that time.

Cross Ex.—My son had lost one tooth; I can not tell wheiher it was upper or lower.

THIRD DAY.

THURSDAY, Nov. 9.

Court came in at 9 o'clock, as adjourned.

Marion D. Baston, of South Berwick,—I know William B. Smith; the first time I became acquainted with him he came to board with me, when the S. Berwick mill was still, about five years ago; I think he went away in about two days after he came; he came again in about a week, and paid me his board; I have not seen him since, until he came this last August; it was the twenty-fourth day of August, Thursday, between one and two in the afternoon; a woman came with him, who he said was his wife; he told me he had come from Manchester, and wanted to get a boarding place; he said he was to work in Ben. Nealey's room, and had been in and got a place; he wanted me to let him have a room for himself and wife, and should work all winter if he liked; he asked me what I would board him for and I told him, and he agreed to it; he asked me to show his woman the room which they were to have, and then left; came again about 7 o'clock P. M., staid all night, took breakfast the next morning, and then left with his carpet bag, and left his woman with me; I saw no more of William B. Smith until Saturday night; he came about bell time, half past six; brought his trunk; he left again after he took his supper; came again between 9 and 10 o'clock; saw him in the front room, and they were talking about some money he had; I went towards him, he took the five dollar gold piece and gave it to his wife; he did not seem to like for her to take it; he took it back; I then took it into my hand and found it was a five dollar gold piece; I saw him have a five dollar bill in his hand; that is all I saw of them that night, they retired before I left; they took breakfast the next morning, it was Sunday morning; I do not recollect of seeing them until dinner time; they took dinner; in the afternoon I saw them below in the kitchen; they took supper there Sunday night; they were absent after supper; do not know where they were; they came in between nine and ten, went to bed soon after; took breakfast next morning; did not see him after breakfast until the coach came in at ten o'clock; the coach came to my house; he then asked me what my bill was as he wished to settle; I told him and he settled with me; he paid me a two dollar bill and a 50 cent piece, which was what I asked; his wife was not in the room; he asked me to call her immediately, and I did; I asked Mr. Smith why he went so soon, as he was to stay some time when he came; he told me he could not stay long in a place, and must be off; I asked where he should stop, and he said he should go to Salmon Falls, and then to Great Falls, and then to Rochester; the last I saw of them they went aboard Maxwell's coach; Smith had one of the upper front chambers facing the mill.

Mary Ann Gould, of South Berwick.—I was at Mrs. Boston's the latter part of last summer; I have seen Wm. B. Smith at Mrs. Boston's; about the 24th or 25th of last August I first saw him at the supper table on Thursday night; the next time I saw him was Friday night, about twelve; I do not know that the bell had struck twelve at midnight; he came in from out doors; he came to the door and rapped twice; my sister, Mrs. Whitehouse, let him in; he came into the entry with a pair of boots; he did not come into the room, but put the boots on the bureau; they looked like men's gaiter boots; he then went into the kitchen; he did not get a light, he asked my sister to get him a lamp; she went to light it, and he said you need not light it for I have a match; he went to the sink and washed, as I thought; he drew water out of the faucet; he then went out in the back yard, was absent about 15 minutes, I think; he came in and I heard him walk round the kitchen; he went out again into the back yard and was absent about as long as before; he then came in and took the boots and went up stairs; he came through the room I was in; the next time I saw him was on Sunday morning; I saw him in the sitting room; the room he left the boots in was the sitting room; he had to pass through the sitting room to get up stairs; my sister said she was sitting up keeping company for the young folks; he said he should like the job; I saw him on Sunday in the sitting room; I did not see him on Saturday; I was not at home all day; was not in the mill that day; I saw Mr. Smith have some money on Sunday morning; he was in the sitting room and I was going up stairs, and he had three pieces which looked like 15 shilling pieces; he was showing them to the boarders, viz. Chas. Davis, I think Solomon Gray and Chas. Pickering; I did not take the pieces in my hand; I only passed through the room, and didn't stop; I did not see him have any money at any other time; I saw him all through the day, he was round the house; I walked out with him on Sunday evening; my sister went with me and Mr William Hews, and his woman; I did not see him after that until I saw him here.

Almira A. Grover, of York. I have boarded with Mrs Boston; went there about the 15th of Sept. (Wallet was shown the witness.) I have seen this pocketbook; found it at Mrs Boston's house in the third story, front chamber, the 7th Nov; I was fixing the fireplace to put a stove up, when I found it; I put my hand in on the left and took out some paper, and the pocketbook was with it. The fireplace was bricked up, the hole had been pasted over with paper, and some one had taken it off. I have a piece of the pocketbook, (it was shown by the witness); have not had any other room but this, while at Mrs Boston's. Mary A Gould was with me when I found it. Cross ex. I gave the pocketbook to Abby Carter to give to Mrs Boston; found it last Tuesday between 8 and nine o'clock in the forenoon; sent directly after Abby Carter; Abby gave it to Mrs Boston. I took it and put it in my pocket; let Mr Joseph Hobbs see it; kept it until a little before twelve, and then gave it to Mr James Cushing; I cut the piece out when I gave him the pocketbook; he told me to do it.

Mrs. Louiza Whitehouse, of South Berwick, confirms the testimony of Mary Ann Gould.

AFTERNOON.

Lyman Tibbets, of South Berwick.—I have formerly lived in Old Berwick. I went to Mrs. Boston's on the third of September. Some time in the Summer, about the 24th or 29th of August, as I sat on the steps of Mr. Butler's shop, a man came along that Samuel Dixon said was W. B. Smith. This is the man. Smith said he had been to Great Falls curing corns and warts. Dixon asked him how he had done; he said he had made four or five dollars. He asked Dixon if he had a bottle of brandy; Dixon said he had not, and Dixon asked some one to go and get it; then he and Dixon got up and went along to Chadborne's store seemed to be talking together. Dixon returned back and asked me if I would go into his house; and quite a number went in. Clifford, Miller, Mr. Smith and a tall, strange man whom I did not know. I think George E. Nason and Fred Smith went in. After they got in, the tall strange man said he had some good rum and asked them if they would not drink some. Smith asked them to drink also; they all drank out of the bottle, they had a tumbler to drink out of. W. B. Smith asked the strange man if he could not furnish some more rum; he said that he could not or would not furnish all the rum. Smith told him that he had money enough. The tall, strange man then took out a quarter and sent for some more rum; told him to get good rum; the rum was brought in and put on the table.

I then went out; Smith introduced the tall stranger to the company; he said he was his brother; the stranger had on a straw hat, a very dirty coarse shirt, black satin vest; had no coat on; his pants were very dark; I noticed his form, and told Smith I did not think he was his brother, as he did not look much like him; I cannot say whether he had boots or shoes on; his hair was like mine, neither black nor white; he had whiskers on some parts of his face; I think they were lighter than his hair; I think he was six feet high and upwards; he said he had been to Great Falls at some tavern, and had been playing cards; cannot say what tavern; Smith said that he had played some and that his brother had struck quite a streak; I did not hear Smith call him by name at any time; he did not state any other place that the stranger had come from; (the clothing, hat, &c. shown to the witness) I think the hat looks like his; cannot swear that it is the one; did not notice the work of the vest; saw him that day and the next morning; and they were both week days; cannot say what day of the week; saw the stranger next morning; cannot state the hour, think it was as late as 9 o'clock, at Samuel Dixon's, in the house; W. B Smith was in all the time I was there; cannot say that the tall stranger was; think I saw him pass on the other side of the street, on the sidewalk; he came into the shop afterwards; I was not absent more than half an hour; I did not speak to the tall, strange man and he did not make much talk at any time; he did not seem to be doing anything particular. I do not recollect of seeing any other one at this time; they were sitting, talking, &c. I can not say that any think was drank.—Smith asked the stranger to send out and get something to drink; the stranger objected; Smith took out one cent and said that was all of his capital; the stranger made no answer. I left them all there: W. B. Smith, the stranger, Miller, and Samuel Dixon in the room, also Frederick Smith. I then went over to my shop. I then went over to Chadborne's shop; a few minutes after I went in, Miller came in and said he wanted to see me. He showed me the pocket book or porte monnaie, and said he wanted to sell it to me; said it was W. B Smith's and would sell it for 12 1-2 cents. I bought it, I do not know the worth of it; think it must cost about 37 or 50 cents. I did not examine it at the time; when I opened it I found one cent in it. I do not recollect of seeing the stranger after this. I saw W. B. Smith about twelve o'clock in front of Chadborn's shop; was not doing anything. I did not notice how long he remained. I did not see him afterwards, that I know of, until I saw him here.

This is all we have room for this morning; we shall finish our report on Monday. The examination was concluded on Friday afternoon, and the prisoner was committed for trial at the January term of the Superior Court, at Alfred. Fifteen witnesses present were not called to testify.

No defence was offered.

Pickles, Olives, Ketchup, Mustard, Sardines, etc.

SEVEN DAYS LATER NEWS.

HALIFAX, Nov. 9.

The steamship America, Capt. Leitch, from Liverpool at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 28th, has just arrived at this port.

The London Times says, We are informed that Mr. Soule, the American Minister at Madrid, was refused permission to pass thro' France on his return from England to Spain.

An extensive fire has occurred at Liverpool destroying six warehouses, and property to the amount of £20,000, belonging chiefly to Messrs. Molyneux, Hitchcock & Co. 4000 bales cotton and a quantity of naval stores were destroyed.

Sebastopol is not yet taken. The latest accounts show that 20 days had elapsed between the departure of the besiegers from Baclava and the opening of the fire on Sebastopol. The fire was opened on the place, both from land and sea, on the 17th, and the bombardment continued until night. The Russians lost 500 in killed and wounded. The Russian fortifications are said to have suffered but little. Next day, the fire was resumed from the land batteries only.

When the mail left Constantinople on the 18th, five steamers had arrived from Balaclava with men wounded in repelling a sortie of twenty thousand Russians from Sebastapol.

The allied armies are divided into a siege army and an army of observation. The latter is posted on the extensive table land which separates Balaclavia from Sebastopol, accessible only by two points, the ravine of Tchernaya on the northwest, and the pass of Balaclava, on the southeast. This position is defended by 16 redoubts.

On the 2d, 5th and 11th, the garrison of Sebastopol made sorties and destroyed some small works. On the evening of the 5th a convoy of 4000 Russian soldiers succeeded in entering Sebastopol. The city does not appear to be surrounded yet, but only menaced on two sides.

The allies now number 110,000, and 8000 French were ready to embark from Marseilles on the 21st; 8000 Turks were ready to leave Varna for the Crimea.

Letters of the 12th say that the nature of the ground around Sebastopol, hard rock covered with about a foot of earth, renders scientific approaches impossible; that the allies have, however, three hundred guns in battery, and after a few days' bombardment will attempt to storm the fortress.

AUSTRIA. — Affairs look black between Russia and Austria. It is reported that Austria summons Russia to withdraw from the frontier of Gallacia. The whole Austrian army is to be put upon a war footing; and Russia, meanwhile, continues to menace the frontiers of Austria.

14 DAYS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTH STAR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The steamer North Star, from Aspinwall, arrived here at half past 5 o'clock this afternoon, with the California mails to 16th October, and $1,700,000 in specie.

The U. S. sloops of war Portsmouth and St. Mary's were at Honolulu Sept. 16.

The steamship Yankee Blade, which left San Francisco Sept. 30, for Panama, was lost on the following day. She had on board 800 passengers and her crew and firemen. She struck on a reef of rocks off Point Anguello, fifteen miles above Point Conception. About fifteen lives, and all the specie on board, about $150,000, were lost. The ship was a total wreck.

The French fleet, consisting of three frigates and sloops of war, arrived at San Francisco. They had, in conjunction with the English fleet, made an attack on the Russian town and fort of Petropaulovski, in Kamschatka, from which the allied fleet were repulsed with a loss in killed and wounded of 209 men. The British Rear Admiral Prince, who commanded the allied fleet, was killed by a pistol shot during the engagement. It is supposed that he accidentally shot himself. Two Russian ships were captured by the allies.

Teachers' Institute.

THE FALL SESSION of this Institute will be holden at the Academy in CHESTER, to commence on MONDAY, Nov. 13, at 10 o'clock, A.M., and continue through the week.

The services of the following experienced Instructors have already been engaged:—

Prof. William Russell, in Reading and Grammar;
" G. S. Houghton, of the N. E. Normal Institute, in Mathematics & Geography;
" Hermann Krusi, in Drawing;
Calvin Cutter, M.D., in Physiology and Hygiene;
Mr. Henry Jones, in Penmanship;
Prof. Sanborn Tenney, of the N. E. Normal Institute, Lecturer on Geology;

A Teacher of Music will also be in attendance.

Those who shall attend the Institute are requested to bring with them a Bible and Dictionary.—Each member will also have his or her name and residence and the number of sessions of the Institute previously attended, plainly written on a card or slip of paper, ready for delivery, on entering the Institute.

The citizens of Chester have made ample arrangements for the accommodation of the members with board, &c. at reasonable prices. Messrs. Francis V. Dow, S. F. Learnard and S. M. Moore have been appointed a Committee of Arrangements, to whom application may be made on arrival.

Carriages will be in readiness, on Monday the 13th, upon the arrival of the morning and noon trains at Derry, on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad; and at Raymond, on the arrival of the same trains on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, to convey to Chester those going to the Institute by those Roads. A daily stage also connects at Derry with the noon trains on the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad.

It is hoped that those proposing to attend the Institute, will avail themselves of the facilities for conveyance offered on the first day of the session, as it is desirable to commence with full numbers.

A letter to a young man in New York, who had intended going to Cuba, from his father in Norwich, says: There are special reasons, which I cannot fully state, why you had better keep at a distance from Cuba. Wait for a few weeks and see what will turn up there! The most innocent American, I fear, will not be safe there soon.

Henry G. Avery, who pretended to be the murderer of a woman on board a San Francisco steamer, and was recently arrested at Springfield for forgery, was not guilty of the former crime. Edward H. Avery, now of Norwich, Ct., was the murderer, and he has written a letter to clear his name from the reproach of forgery.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and scientific works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"R. H. Eddy, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"Sir:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK, Commissioner of Patents."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or BLEEDING; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with that disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that lately my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. J. Parkes, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Mag. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. Also, a Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

THE KNOW NOTHINGS.—We extract as follows, from an article in the Newburyport Herald of Wednesday, respecting this popular Order:—

So far as they may operate to check the too great influx of immigration and to advance the cause of political and religious liberty, without being illiberal and aristocratic in our treatment of the poor and oppressed of other nations, and without any manifestation of a spirit of religious arrogance and persecution, we shall go with the movement. There is one proviso that we shall insist upon inserting, and this is that because the Roman church has been proscriptive and persecuting, either in the present or in past ages, it is no excuse for making Protestantism proscriptive and persecuting.

It is high time for establishing some fixed principles in regard to the treatment of foreign immigrants, before any further great irruption from the overcrowded population of Europe and Asia comes in upon us. It is due to ourselves that we should protect our institutions from an overflow of poverty and ignorance and their attendant train of evils; and it is due to the foreign emigrant that he should be fully informed of our system of policy towards him, that he may know all his disabilities as well as privileges.

The present is a favorable time for the agitation of this question, and we anticipate no evil from it, but ultimately much good. There is one thing we venture to predict, which is that those who have met the movement with the greatest exultation and expected it to be of the most advantage to their own political and religious notions, will find their views will fail to derive the advantage from it they anticipate. We allude to the abolitionists and those over-zealous Protestant religionists who look upon Calvinism and its adjuncts as being quite as infallible, as the Romanist looks upon the doctrines and decrees of his church. Neither of these will gain by this movement, but on the contrary they are aiding in a movement which will at no distant day be likely to overpower them. They are teaching the people first that all races and conditions of men are not equal and endowed with the same political and social rights; and they are teaching them too, that if one religion may be rejected and overthrown as absurd, other doctrines, which are looked upon by many as but little less absurd, and their burdens though lighter than those of the old religion, still too grievous to be borne, may in their turn fall before the power of increased intelligence and higher education.

Within twenty years, about one hundred churches, numbering about twelve thousand converts, have been planted along the coast of Africa. Many schools have also been established, which are now in successful operation, and hundreds of natives have received and are now receiving a Christian education.

The St. Louis Democrat, Senator Benton's organ, has published several strong articles to prove that it is for the interest of Missouri that Kansas should be a free State. In prosecuting the argument, the Democrat is unsparing in its deprecation of the existence of slavery.

The editor of the New Orleans True Delta is responsible for the statement, that in that city there occurs one murder for every eight hours the year round. That is, one person in every hundred is cut off in New Orleans by murder every year.

Save the Pieces,

AND USE THE LIQUID GLASS, a transparent Cement, for repairing broken Glass, China, Marble, Earthen, Pearl, Ivory, &c. This Cement does not leave a colored seam upon the article mended. It will not lose its strength nor dry up after the bottle is opened. It is not affected by fire or water, more than glass itself. For sale by JOHN SISE, 5 Market square. o9

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he will continue at his old stand,
No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,
making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful
STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Peduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1854.

For the Morning Chronicle.

SHALL WOMEN VOTE?

In the admirable lecture before the Lyceum on Tuesday evening, there was very little to which any right-minded man would object. But the lecture would have been false to its paternity if it had had no eccentricity in it—no strange and startling innovation. We really began to wonder for the first hour where the Beecherism was to be—the feature, standing out clearly, and revealing at a glance the mind from which the lecture sprung. But the wonder was not long. The startling proposition that women should vote, put all right—making the whole thing true instead of false to its origin. The lecturer in a few fine sentences disclaimed much which is claimed by professedly women's rights men—and then announced his conviction that women should vote, and that the time would come when they will vote. He would be sorry to see his mother or sister or daughter on the rostrum as a public speaker. It would be shocking to his tastes. But he would rejoice to see them all making their way to the polls and depositing their votes in the ballot box. Well, really there is no accounting for tastes. For one, though I fully sympathized in what the lecturer said upon females becoming public speakers, yet I should much rather see mother or sister or daughter in the pulpit or on the rostrum than at the ballot box. What should protect her there from insult? It was a fine picture which was drawn of the husband and wife marching up in a dignified manner to the place of voting, of the multitude surrounding the door suddenly awed into silence, and opening to the right and left and standing with hats off, of course, while the pair of voters passed in and returned! And then the respect for woman bursting forth in virtuous indignation upon the least word or look of insult, and swallowing up the author of it as the whale did Jonah! All this was painted very prettily. But did the lecturer believe he was painting truly? If there were just one lady who had the privilege of voting, and she was voting for the first time, all this might take place. But should women vote, and the practice become common, how long would that respect for woman which all men now feel, and which protects her from insult, continue? How many elections would pass before our mothers and daughters would be as rudely jostled at the polls as their sons and fathers now are? Woman is respected, and her presence awes the most boisterous into silence now, because woman confines herself to her proper sphere. But let her mingle in the political and other strifes of men, and we should soon see the change.

But is it certain the husband and wife would always walk so lovingly together in the discharge of this duty? It may certainly be supposed that they would not in all cases think alike on political questions. Would the husband who was a democrat, full of zeal and anxiety for the success of his party, and making his way to deposit his democratic vote, be so anxious that his whig wife should accompany him, leaning on his arm with her whig vote? Or should he seek out the democratic wife of some whig husband on whom to bestow his attentions for the day, leaving his own wife to seek the attentions of some one to whom her political affinities allied her? The thing would turn out to be a grand promoter of domestic felicity!

But should women vote and not be themselves eligible to office? This were a strange and hard anomaly. Permitted to aid in all the drudgery of raising men to offices which they themselves are not permitted to fill!—That would never do—nor would it long be submitted to. The privilege of voting would be accompanied with the privilege of holding office. Is the lecturer prepared for this?

On the whole, though we think, contrary to our second advent friends, that the end of the world is not yet, we have a firm conviction the world will end before the views of the lecturer on this point become general or are carried into practice. W.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—The result of the election as reported here gives 400,000 votes heard from, and Seymour 1760 majority over Clark, and 14,405 over Ullman. Seventy-eight whigs have been elected to the assembly.

SENTENCE.—New York, 10th.—Dr. Graham was this morning sentenced to the State Prison for seven years, the utmost limit of the law.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 10.—Mrs. Hannah Chadbourne, of Boston, who has been on a visit to her friends here, cut her throat with a razor this morning, and almost instantly died. An inquest was held, and a verdict of temporary insanity was rendered.

NEW YORK.—The returns are entirely in favor of the election of Seymour for Governor, with a Whig Legislature, and an overflowing Whig predominance in members of Congress.

LOCAL.

☞ The lecture before the Mercantile Library Association will be delivered this evening, by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, instead of Thursday evening.

In consequence of this change, Mr. Pearson's Singing School will meet on Thursday evening, instead of this evening.

OYSTER TRAFFIC.—It is a remarkable fact that since oysters have become a merchantable comodity, that the family of Freemans, originally from Wellfleet, have been the principal dealers, in this city. For many years Massrs. J. & A. Freeman were the only dealers, and sold what was considered in their day a very large quantity. Their custom was to import from the south, 300 to 500 bushels in the fall, and retail through the winter from the vessel; in the spring they bedded a few hundred bushels at Wellfleet, to be taken up and brought here, as required; our water being thought to cold for the summer residence of the bivalves. In 1841, nearly 1000 bushels were sold. In 1847, the same concern, and J. Freeman, jr. each imported oysters, and sold about 2500 bushels. About this time it was found that oysters would live in the Piscataqua, and ever since, Portsmouth oysters have been considered superior to any others; probably owing to the purity of the water which flows over them.

For the past year or two the importing business has been in the hands of Washington Freeman, son of the senior member of the above firm, who has supplied the city retailers and disposed of some in the country. The past year his sales have amounted to rising 10,000. He has just received a cargo, the first this season. He hopes to sell 15,000 bushels the coming year.

This new cargo is of the first quality.

TRANSACTIONS OF THE N. H. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—We are under an obligation to J. O. Adams, Esq., of Manchester, Secretary of the society, for a copy of its transactions. The typographical execution of the volume is good, and we have no hesitation in saying that its editorial management is as perfect as the most fastidious could desire. Mr. Adams has had an onerous task to perform in getting up the work thus correctly, not merely as a collater but as a condenser and pruner of the literary redundancies of parties less accustomed to write for the press than the editor of the "Granite Farmer." In this respect he emphatically does the State good service. The Transactions contain many valuable practical papers in connection with the several county exhibitions, and no improving farmer should be without a copy in his library.

THE NATIONAL MAGAZINE, for November, 1854, contains several illustrated articles, among which Luther and the Reformation, and a trip from St. Petersburg to Constantinople, hold a conspicuous place. The work keeps up its interest fully.

Examination of William B. Smith,

AT SOUTH BERWICK, ME.,

Charged with the Murder of Chas. F. Brewster.

BEFORE ABNER OAKES, ESQ.

THIRD DAY—CONTINUED.

Samuel Dixon, of Berwick.—I have seen W. B. Smith a number of times; known him four or five years; about the last of July or first of August I saw him; I was sitting on Mr. Butler's steps; I asked him where he had been; he said he had been around through Massachusetts, and had sometimes been with a circus; something was said about corns, and that he would like for me to introduce the subject round to the people; then something was said about women; asked him where Maria Spencer was; he told me he had not seen her since he was here with her and two other men; he then told me he was married; I asked him what kind of a woman he had got now; he said he thought he had a woman that would stick to him this time; I told him I was very glad to hear he had; he said he was stopping to Mrs. Boston's; I think he and I went into Butler's and took some small beer; this was about nine or ten in the morning, could not say certain; some one got a pint of liquor and went into my house and drank it about twelve or one o'clock; he left me then and said he was going on the other side of the river to Salmon Falls; saw him the next morning; I was not at work that day; he came to Blood Corner or Hog Point when I saw him in the morning; think it was 9 o'clock; he took a wart off George Butter's hand; he then said he was going to Gt. Falls, and I think he went; I saw him the next time about dusk at Blood corner when I was sitting on Mr. Butters's step; he asked Mr Miller where I was; Miller came to me and said Smith wanted to see me; I went along and took Smith's hand; he then introduced the men that were with him as his brothers; he asked me then if I had a bottle I could lend him; told him I had, and sent Miller into the house and got the bottle and gave it to him; he got it full of new rum and brought it to my office and we drank it; Miller, Brewster, Smith and myself went into the house; I cannot say that Tebbetts was in my shop at this time; Fred Smith might be in my shop, cannot say that he was; Brewster said that he paid for Santa Cruz rum but did not think that he got it; Smith said he knew that there was some good rum, and he and Brewster went out and brought in a pint; we drank once round; Smith and Brewster started as they said, to go to their boarding house; they said before they left that they should come back in the morning; there was nothing said about the woman; should think it was about 8 o'clock when they left; Miller and myself went to bed; the next morning, between daylight and sunrise they came to the door and rapped very hard; I had been very tight the night before and did not like to get up so early: they came round and climbed up on the shed and came to the window where I slept: I got up and let them in: the bottle still set there where they had left it: While I was dressing they drank and left two thirds of a glass in the bottle. Miller got up and I took the bottle and turned out half to Miller and took the rest myself and we drank it. Then Smith and Brewster went out and brought in one pint of American gin, and we four drank it: this was before breakfast. Smith wanted me to go and pawn his pocket book for some more gin; I told him I would not, but if Miller would he might; and he did go, and sold it to Lyman Tebbetts for 12 1-2 cents, which bought the gin. I think that Brewster said to Smith he should not pay for any more, as he had bought enough. At that time Fred Smith, and G. E. Nason, and Lyman Tebbetts came in; we drank up that pint; there were a number of pints drank—I cannot tell how many, as I did not charge my memory at the time; we were all sober, the same that I am now. Sometime about 12, Smith and Brewster left; they went out together; I cannot tell which way they went; I did not see Brewster after that; I saw Smith about one, two, or three hours after they left the house; could not say the exact time. He wanted the bottle; did not tell me what he wanted of it; I asked him to return it, and he said he would; that night about dusk he came with the bottle; a woman came with him, whom he introduced to me as his wife; he handed me the bottle before he introduced his wife. I asked them if they would walk in; they did not go in; they told me that they had some baggage at the depot, and could not come in as they were going to see if it had come; I asked them if they would call when they came back; Smith said he thought he would. Smith asked me if I had seen Brewster since he had left? he said he had not seen him since he left our house; they did not come back to the house; I did not see them again until the next morning; I was at Mr. Butters, and they came in together; Smith looked at Butters' hand, asked him how it was, and Butters told him; Smith then called for a glass of small beer for him and his woman, and they drank it. While they were drinking the cab passed; Smith ran to the door and sung out for it to stop; it did not stop; then he said, I guess we can walk as far as the depot; they then left, as I think for the depot; that is all I know about it. He told at Butters' that he was going to Great Falls, but had said to me that he should go to Lewiston or that way. He was there on Sunday once, with a man that I did not know; could not tell which way they came; they were not there to my knowledge at any other time; I think Smith said this was his brother from New York, and that he had not seen him for some time; think he did not call him by any other name at that time.

Cross-ex. The first time I saw Smith was about 8 or 9 in the morning; he did go into my house that morning; no one but he and myself went in at that time. Cannot tell how long he was in the house, think about one hour. Next time he came with Brewster about dusk; Miller, Smith, Brewster and myself were in the house at this time, and there might have been some one else; I cannot say however. We drank one pint at this time; cannot say how long they were in the house, think about two hours. No one was present but we four; think they left about 12 o'clock, could not say certain. G E Nason and L Tebbets came in, and then they had another pint of rum; think Tebbets sent out for it. There were cards played by Smith, Brewster and myself for a pint of rum; cannot tell who beat, cannot tell who paid the next time. Did not see Smith again till he came back for the bottle, which was in from one to four hours, which was the time they went to the depot. Next time was next morning, when I saw him in Butler's store; they were going to the depot. I saw him on Sunday; know it was not Sunday when I saw them both. When they left my shop they could walk as well as any round here, even you or myself; it was when he came back to return the bottle, that he asked me if I had seen that man who was with me; he said he left him very soon after that; he did not say anything more about him. When I heard of the murder I did not think but Smith might have been the man, after they said it was a tall man; this was after they found out that the man murdered was not Willey. (Direct ex. resumed:) Think Tebbets sent out for one bottle of gin, but am not certain that he did for any.

FOURTH DAY.

FRIDAY, Nov. 10.

Francis Raynes, of South Berwick.—I am a shoemaker and reside at South Berwick; am one of the coroner's jurors on Brewster. I examined the foot of the body found, the feet were in perfect perseveration. I gave the measure of the feet to B.F.Parks, who was the chairman of the jury: the left foot was 10 1-4 inches long, a little strong that, was the ordinary size of feet; think the instep was high. [The boots shown the witness.] I think the boots might have fitted by the general appearance of them; the boots are longer than we make them now; the style has changed.

Elmira Mathes, of Beverly, Mass.—I am twenty years of age; was 20 the 15th day of last January. Was born in Beverly, Mass. I resided there until I was three years of age, I then went to Salem, Mass. I have lived in Salem since. I became acquainted with W. B. Smith the 23d of July last; I did not come to South Berwick but went to Ipswich. I then went home to Beverly. I have relations residing in Beverly; I have two aunts and cousins. I then went to Exeter, N. H., with Smith. I then went to Portsmouth, N. H., then went to New Market, N. H., with Smith, then to South Berwick. I walked from New Market to South Berwick with Smith directly; it was Thursday. Do not known what day of the month it was, about noon time, should think about 11 or 12. Went directly to the mill; it was in August that I came; the mill is by Mrs. Boston's. Went there to get work. I got work but he did not. Then went to Mrs. Boston's; it was about noon when we were at Mrs. Boston's; we went there to get boarded. I took dinner but Smith did not; he gave me his valise and asked Mrs. Boston to show me the room. Went up and changed my dress and carried the valise down; he said he was going out, and that I need not wait for him for dinner, for he thought he should not be in; he then went out and did not return until about five that afternoon. He said he was going to the depot; he told Mrs. Boston that I was his wife. I was never married to him. He came home that afternoon about 5 P. M., and remained at home the rest of the day. We stopped that night and took breakfast the next morning; he then told me he was going to Great Falls, N. H. Went out and did not return until about one o'clock Saturday morning. This was Friday. Was sitting up for him, was in my chamber at the window. Asked him what had detained him so long; he said he had tumbled over a stump and hurt his nose; said I need not be surprised if he got up early the next morning, for he had a man in Mrs. Boston's barn, and must get up and let him out; he said he had been at Great Falls that day. I asked him who it was, and he said it was a friend of his. Asked him what he was out there for, and he said because he was intoxicated and it would not do to bring him in the house. Saturday morning at half past four he got up and went away; he did not tell me where he was going; he arrived home about six o'clock that evening; when he came in I was up in my chamber; he brought a bundle, I took it and put it on the table. Nothing was said, we went down to tea; think I did not ask him where he had been, after tea. I went into my room and he came after me; he then opened the bundle and shew me a pair of pants and boots; I asked him where he got them, and he made no reply. I had some silver spoons, and asked him if he did not exchange the pants and boots for the spoons; he did not tell me whether he did or not; he then took a chair and sat down beside me and asked me if I would go with him to Mr Sam'l Dixon's; told him I did not want to as it was rainy; he insisted upon it and I went with him; I walked to Dixon's; he went in while I remained at the door; heard Wm say to Dixon, can you get the porte monnaie I let the man have; and Dixon said no, for he had left town. I then told him I would go to the depot to get a trunk; we then went to the depot. Smith did not introduce me to Dixon; Dixon asked Wm if he would come in when he come back, Wm told him he did not know. At the depot got my trunk and took a coach and went to Mrs Boston's; we both went together, Smith and myself. I went through the dining room, Mrs Boston was washing dishes; Wm took the trunk to the chamber and then came down; then Wm, Mary Boston and myself went into the sitting-room; then Mrs Boston came into the room. Wm took out a five-dollar gold piece, a $5 bill and another bill, do not know what it was. Asked him where he got it, he would not tell me; asked him to let me see the gold piece, he laughed and said he would not, but I got it away from him and gave it to Mrs Boston; she gave it back to me, and I asked Wm if I might keep it, and he said yes till he called for it. We then went out, got some water, and went up stairs. We stopped that night, this was Saturday night; Sunday we were there at breakfast and dinner; after dinner Wm, Mary Gould, her sister and myself went to walk; they had all been to tea when we got home, and we took ours. We all went out to walk again in the evening, and a man whom Mary Gould called her beau; we went over a bridge, cannot tell at what place, got back between 9 and 10. Wm went out in the forenoon with one or two of the men boarders; told me he was going to get shaved over at Salmon Falls. He had two shirts, one purple and white, and the other a very light striped with a flower in it, very large; (the shirt was shown the witness) this is it, I know it by the flowers and by a piece taken out, which I did. Saw some blood on it Sunday morning, on the collar, on the back and wrists; saw it below the collar; asked him how he blood came on the shirt, he did not tell me; I saw some blood on the other shirt; I asked him how that blood came on it, and he said that his nose had bled: the blood was on the collar of the shirt: he had them both on at that time. I told him I would wash it out, and went and got some water in a basin and carried it up into my room and washed it as well as I could: washed it with cold water, got the blood out but not the stains: dried it and he put it on: he had them both on at the same time: this was the one he had on outside: the pants were blue ground work with white figure in them: they were the ones he brought home. They were thick boots, (the boots shown:) those are the boots. He stopped on Sunday night at Mrs. Boston's: was there the next morning at breakfast: after that we went out in the kitchen and he told me he wanted me to pack up and get ready, for he should leave the place: asked him why he left so soon, and he said because he could not stop long in one place; told him that I did not want to go: he told me to do as I pleased, go or stay: then told him I would go: he said he would send a coach for me in one hour and told me to be ready. I then went up stairs and got ready: after that Mrs. Boston came out in the back yard and told me the coach was at the door, ready.—William settled with Mrs Boston: do not know how much he paid: was not in the room: we rode to the depot: the cars did not come as soon as we expected, and William said he wanted to go over to (have forgot his name) and I went with him. Should think it was a quarter of a mile from Dixon's; it was at the left from the depot; we were there a few moments; both went back to the depot and took the train and went to Manchester, N. H. We were at Manchester one week and three days; he was with me all this time. He then said he had no money and should have to walk; went to East Andover. Saw a small house, and told him I was going there to stop all night; he said he did not want to go. Told him I should go. We both went to the door, a young woman came to the door. Asked for a drink of water; she asked us in; asked me how far we had walked; told her we had walked from Canaan; she said we must be tired and asked us to stop all night, if we would put up with her accommodations.—went to bed; asked Mrs. Brown if she knew of any one that wanted help; she said that her husband was working for a man that wanted to get a man to work on the farm; and as for the woman she did not know anything about it. He said he would go over and see Thompson, but he was not at home. He went over the next day and on his return Brown said that Thompson wanted us to come over and see him. We then went over, Smith agreed to work for Thompson for $12 per month; he then went to Brown's, got his baggage and brought it to Thompson's. I went at work at house work and he on the farm; he remained 4 or 5 days. At this period he ran away from Thompson's with a boy named Franklin Elkins; did not see Frank after that day. I have have not seen William since until now; I left the next Monday and went to Salem.

Cross ex.—I did wash one shirt at Thompson's—a striped shirt. I walked through Concord, Fishersville, Canaan; do not recollect of stopping at Hookset. We were four days walking to East Andover.

Direct resumed.—We did not have any money when we came to South Berwick from New Market. My maiden name was Saunders.

AFTERNOON.

Joseph C. Thompson, of Andover, Mass.—Smith came to my place with the name of Charles Smith; the woman was with him that has been here to-day; he called her his wife; it was eight weeks ago the past Wednesday. I hired him and fixed the price at $24 for two months; the woman chose to work for her board until my wife returned, who was then absent; he commenced work on Thursday and did a very good day's work. Friday morning his wife said he was not able to work; Saturday morning the same report; Sunday he and his wife were about, and said they had been on the mountain: said he would be able to work Monday.

Smith and the Elkins boy did not work on Wednesday: staid at my house that night: Thursday the Elkins boy came in: I did not see Smith after Wednesday until I saw him here: the Elkins boy left Thursday morning: did not see him until the next week, when he came in the field with a carpet bag: the bag contained a shirt and a pair of pants, the same that Smith had when at our house: they are not the pants he wore all the time—also one bottle of medicine. My attention was called to some blood on the shirt by one of my men. (Boots shown the witness.) I took more notice of the boots than any other thing when he came to work for me: think they are the same Smith had: first saw the stockings at Mr. Elkins', the father of the boy: saw the articles marked: think the pants he wore were generally a dark pair, and not this pair: they were too long for him, and turned up two or three inches.

Franklin B Elkins of Andover. Am 16 yrs old, know Smith, first became acquainted with him the 18th Sept last; he called himself Charles Smith. Was at Mr Thompson's, farming; first saw him there, worked there with him. He asked me if I had some money, I told him I had some due me; he asked me if I could get it any time, I told him yes; he asked me if I would run away with him: told him I would think of it and let him know the next day. He said, if you will go to Hyde Park, Vermont, I will give you $100 and see that you have $1 a day in the mill at that place: I told him I would go. He said I will tell you how you can get away from Thompson's: you can say you are sick. I told Mr Thompson I should not work any more; I then went for my money: Smith stopped in the field of Mr Thompson till I came back: Mr Brown paid me the money for work: the field is but a little way from Brown's: I got $22; found Smith asleep by the well where I left him: we went to mother's, I told her I intended going to meeting and wanted my clothes: she did them up: we took dinner, then went to the back part of Brown's store and took a carpet bag out from the wall;—he showed me the pants and a bottle of something that he said was to cure corns; Ran away with him; we started Thursday morning; went back and got the carpet bag from the wall, and then went to Danbury, Bristol, Plymouth, and to West Rumney. We stopped in a barn all night; went from West Rumney to East Haverhill. Smith said he had an uncle at Wells River, and he wanted to go and get him some money; asked me to lend him some money to go up and back. We walked all this distance. I was going to let him have part of the money, but he said no—let me have the wallet, I have none, and will bring it back safe and pay you for what I had.—He said his feet were sore, and he wanted me to lend him my footings and boots, and he would let me have his, and we did so: they were the same that he had worn: (boots &c. shown the witness) the boots are the same: the stockings resemble them. I said I want you to be back to-night; he said he would if he had to come on his hands and knees: he said he would leave the carpet bag with me and show me a place to be, so that if he did not come back until evening he should know where to find me. Told him I would stay till Monday noon, and then should go to Wells River. Arrived there at 12 Monday night, walking. Staid at Wells River all Tuesday; inquired for his uncle: he called his name George Eliot; could not find him. On Wednesday, took the freight train and came home to Andover; wore the boots and stockings home that Smith gave me; had the carpet bag also; left the articles at home—mother preserved them. Have not seen Smith since until now; had no money when Smith left me at East Haverhill.

The Government announced that they would here rest their case, though they had several other witnesses at hand, who could be called if necessary.

No testimony was offered for the defence.

Justice Oakes gave as the decision of the Court, that the complaint had been fully sustained, and ordered that the prisoner, William B. Smith, be committed to jail to await his trial at the Jan. term of the Superior Court to be holden at Alfred.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF FLOODING; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe, for its extraordinary cures. The descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid. Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic. Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Enrurico de Lara, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

Also, the celebrated Vermifuge, offered by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea, is in round bottle, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all disease arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several unprincipled Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

THE MISSING BOATS OF THE ARCTIC.—The following is a copy of a letter received from a correspondent of the Merchants' Exchange Room in this city:

"ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 26.—The schooner Lilly Dale, which arrived at St. John, Oct. 25, from Tatmagouch, N. S., picked up one of the life-boats of the Arctic, about fifty miles south of Cape Broyle, east coast of Newfoundland. No person was in the boat. Those on board the Lilly Dale thought they saw another boat in the distance, but did not proceed to it."

SUICIDE BY ACCIDENT.—A boy about ten years of age hung himself in his father's cellar Tuesday evening. He had gone off with his gun against his father's consent, and on his return he said that he would go down into the cellar and make believe hang himself, so that his father would not punish him. His father came home in an hour, and upon going into the cellar, found his son hanging, dead. He had mounted upon a barrel and fastened a rope around his neck, and it is supposed that the barrel fell over and the little fellow was left suspended.—Providence Journal.

HADN'T GOT THE HANG OF BOSTON.—On Wednesday evening a man about 50 years old named John Price, was found drunk in the street in Boston, and was furnished with a room in one of the Station houses until he had become sobered, when he was set at liberty. At a late hour, Mr. Price was found in another section of the city badly intoxicated, and was taken to the Station house in that section. Upon his person the sum of $794.16 in gold was found, and upon being told that he probably would have been robbed of his gold if he had not been arrested, he replied that he was on his way down east, and hadn't got the hang of Boston yet.—Journal.

The Melville gold mine of Virginia is said to be yielding well during the present depressed state of the mining interests of the country. The compeny have cut through a new vein, the existence of which was not known until cut through in search for clay to plaster up the side of a reservoir. The ore obtained from this vein is said to be of extraordinary richness, and the vein promises to increase in size and abundance of the ore.

The Salem Baptist Association, at its late meeting, with one or two dissenting voices, passed the following vote. The Christian Witness (Episcopal) says: "we do not copy this resolution of our Baptist brethren to condemn, but rather to commend it as a perfectly consistent act."

Resolved, That it is inconsistent for Baptists to recognize Pedobaptist preachers as gospel ministers (denying as we do the legality of their official acts) by inviting them to occupy our pulpits, or preaching with them.

HOW MRS. DONNELLY GOT HER COAL.—Officer Neal of the South Boston Police, detected a woman named Bridget Donnelly in the act of stealing a basket of coal from Old Colony Wharf. She was accompanied by her little son to assist her in carrying away her plunder. Mr. Neal followed Mrs. Donnelly to her home and found more than a ton of hard coal underneath her bed.

SHOWER BATHS.—A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce evinces a laudible desire for information upon the subject of shower baths, and among other questions asks if they may be continued with advantage through the winter. To this a "physician of twenty years practice," responds that they may be continued through the winter, but the patient should stand upon his head!

THE JOSEPH WALKER.—This vessel, sunk last winter at the time the Great Republic was burned at New York, promises speedily to be rescued from her imbedded position, and the entire cargo saved.

BUFFALO, Nov. 10.—The City Bank, of Columbus, Ohio, closed this morning. Its liabilities are believed to be very large.

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be creat.d at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,

No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,

making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just recei d a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community,

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful

STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Peduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

RECENT DEATHS AMONG THE MEMBERS OF THE ROCKINGHAM BAR.

On Friday last, after the business of the term was closed, Mr. Hackett addressed the Court as follows:

May it please your Honors:—On the 9th of September, Joseph A. Gregg died at Derry; on the 18th of the same month, William Plumer died at Epping; on the 29th of October, Josiah Butler died at Deerfield; and on the 2d of this month James McMurphy died at Epping: All Counsellors of this Court and members of this Bar, and being one in ten of all whose names are inscribed on the Roll of Attornies of this County, who have died within sixty days, and almost within the period of this term. This startling fact impressively teaches "what shadows we are, and what shadows we pursue." Our deceased brethren were of all ages on our list except the oldest.

Mr. Gregg, I believe, was under thirty, and had not been at the bar long enough to indicate what his ultimate professional position might have been, though long enough to make it highly respectable. At the time of his death he was post master at Derry, and in 1850 was a delegate to the Constitutional Convention, of which he was the youngest member.

Judge Butler graduated at Harvard College more than half a century since. After he was admitted to the bar he resided in this county until his death. In the early part of his life he was Clerk of the Court and Sheriff of this county, and a member of the State Legislature. In 1816 he was elected a Representative to the Congress of the United States, and was afterwards twice re-elected, serving six years. Soon after the expiration of his term in Congress, he was appointed one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, and held that office until a change was made in our judicial system, when he again returned to the bar and remained several years in practice. The last part of his life was passed in retirement.

Mr. Plumer graduated at the same college with Judge Butler, six years later, in 1806. Soon after he was admitted to the bar, he was appointed Loan Officer, and resided for sometime in this city in the discharge of the duties of that office. In 1818 he was elected a Representative to the Congress of the United States, and was twice re-elected, serving four years as the colleague of Judge Potter, and two years with the late Mr. Bartlett, who died during the last term of this Court in this city. In 1828, he was elected to the Senate of the State, and in 1850 to the Constitutional Convention. Mr. Plumer was one of the most learned men in the State, and wherever known was beloved and respected.

Both Mr. Plumer and Judge Butler occupied prominent and honorable positions in the councils of the nation and in the other trusts to which they were called.

We have as yet scarcely realized that Mr. McMurphy is no more. He was with us at the commencement of this term. His name meets the eye on almost every leaf of the docket, his voice has but just ceased to be heard in this room, and the pressure of his hand has scarcely ceased to be felt. Though he died young, he lived long enough to establish a high professional position. Ever since he came to the bar he has been gaining in the regard of his brethren and in the confidence of the public, by the development and exhibition of those traits of character which always secure esteem and command respect.

I have been requested to present to the Court the Resolutions which the Bar have adopted on this occasion, and to request that they may be recorded. I will read the resolutions if the Court will permit.

Mr. Hackett read the Resolutions, which are as follows:

Resolved, That in the death of Josiah Butler, William Plumer, and Joseph A. Gregg, this Bar has lost distinguished members—gentlemen who have filled varied and important public trusts in a manner to reflect honor upon themselves and the profession to which they belonged; who have shared largely in the confidence of the public, and whose public services and private worth will cause their memory long to be cherished and respected.

Resolved, That in the death of James McMurphy, in the midst of his and our professional labors, this Bar lost an able and valued member, who had already won for himself by his ability, integrity and courtesy, a high professional position, the affectionate regard of all who knew him—whose death will long be mourned as a bereavement by his brethren and the community.

Resolved, That we will wear the usual tokens of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That copies of the foregoing be furnished to the respective families of our deceased brethren.

Mr. Hatch said:

May it please your Honors:—If the memory of our daily associations, the contentions of the bar, or the zeal of professional studies might ever lead us to forget the shortness of the little hour of our appearance upon the stage of human existence,—how certainly and how constantly would events like these remind us of our mortality! The knell, thrice repeated, which, since the close of the last term of this Court, has proclaimed the departure of men who have held no undistinguished position among us, would have fallen on our senseless ears, if it did not vividly remind us of the transitory nature of our present pursuits, and of the overwhelming importance of the objects which lie beyond the sphere of our daily toils.

I have found myself unable to contemplate without emotion the very great changes which have affected the aspect of this bar, in the few years since I was admitted its fraternity. Of those who were our leaders and our seniors, more than half have departed; and on us has fallen the heavy responsibility of occupying the places to which we were accustomed to look for instruction.

I may not at this time recall the names, once so familiar to us, which have passed into history, and shed only from thence honor upon the profession which their lives adorned. To that number we have now to add the name of a Judge, who once occupied with credit a place upon the bench whereon you now sit;—of a scholar, poet, and statesman, widely known, and well qualified to adorn every circle in which he moved;—and of two, more intimate with us, cut off before the day of their promise had reached its noon. It is not necessary for me to avail myself of the injunction, to speak nothing but good of the dead, when I refer to the character of these the last departed of our brethren. They were all honorable men, diligent and learned, and all of them enjoyed I believe the respect and confidence of the communities in which they lived.

To us who survive, it now only remains to learn the lessons which their lives may teach, and which their death so strongly impresses. Their example has shown us that the earnest and honest pursuit of our profession will reflect honor, not only upon ourselves, but upon the fraternity with which we labor. And we hope that from their decease, we may learn to soften the asperities of our contentions here, and to extend more freely the courtesies that may serve to bind us together, as well as to look beyond the narrow scene of our ordinary labors to aims and to objects which may perfect and ennoble our feeble exertions and limited attainments.

Mr. French said:

Allusion has already been made to the extraordinary mortality which has recently occurred among the members of the bar of this County.

Within the past eight weeks, no less than one tenth part of the forty recorded members of our association have passed away from among the living. Of these, two were of the number of the older and retired members of the bar, whose active labors among us had ceased; and two were from the ranks of the youngest of our number, whose prospects for long life and usefulness were as blight and promising as those of any of us who yet survive.

But one year since, at this very term, we looked for the last time, upon the cold form of yet another of our brotherhood, who, in eloquence and courtesy, and all the qualities that render our profession respectable, and our intercourse agreeable, might well be esteemed our model.

Such events, in so rapid succession, are truly startling to us all. They bring to us more than the common warning, solemn as it always is, which they who are newly dead, give to the living. A pestilence which should sweep from a city or village, one full tenth part of its people in so short a time, would fill the whole country with dismay. A battle even, in which one tenth of all who entered the combat should perish, would be accounted a bloody conflict.

Among all the deaths that have ever occurred, in our number, perhaps there has never been one, which fell upon us all with a shock so sudden and overpowering, as that of our brother, whose manly form we laid in the grave on the last Sabbath.

We anticipate, and are prepared, somewhat, for the departure of the aged, however dear they may be. They "come to their grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in, in his season."

> "The hand of the reaper
> Takes the ears that are hoary,
> But the voice of the weeper
> Wails manhood in glory."

We have witnessed now, not the fall of one whose days of active life were spent, nor yet of a youth, whose mind and character, however promising, were yet undeveloped; but one, who, in the pride and strength of early manhood—with his armor on—engaged earnestly in the great battle of life; who had assumed his share of all the responsibilities of life, whether professional, political or social, and thus far borne them nobly,—has been struck down in a moment. In the early part of this very session, with a heart saddened, it is true, by the recent loss of an infant child, he was at this post, among us. No name is entered more frequently than his, upon the records of the business of this Court—no man, to human eye, seemed then to have a fuller assurance of life and health than he. But youth and health, and manly strength, and the ties of business, and the stronger ties of social life, have all failed to keep our friend among us. It is not, as a mere form which custom requires us to observe, that we notice this melancholy event. If any man has ever borne a part in the proceedings of this Court, engaged for years in extensive business, and never made an enemy,—if any man has deserved and received the good will and personal regard, which are the rewards of courtesy and honorable conduct,—that man is he, whom we have so recently lost.

James McMurphy was born at Epsom, in this State, on the 7th of November, 1820, and died at Epping, on the 4th of November, 1854, at nearly the completion of his thirty-fourth year.

He spent a short time in the study of the law with Enoch Bartlett, Esq., at Epping, and was admitted to practice under the statute about nine years ago.

The want of a regular training for his profession was always a source of embarrassment and mortification to him, and he often expressed his regret that circumstances had not allowed him a different and more thorough course of preparation.

Struggling manfully, however, with a resolute and constant purpose to win a fair position at the bar, he was soon observed by us all, as a young man of modest and unassuming manners, and of more than ordinary promise. He was soon established in an extensive practice, and by his perfect integrity, as well as by his ability, gained the confidence and respect of the members of our bar, as well as of the community where he lived. At the December term of the Superior Court in 1852, at a meeting of the members of the Rocking bar, Mr. McMurphy was, without a dissenting voice, admitted as a member of our association.

Having at the crowded hotels in Concord at several terms of the Court, occupied the same apartment with him, I had often conversed familiarly with him, about his history and prospects, and was satisfied that he would esteem it among the greatest favors he could receive, to have a regular admission to the bar. Without any request from him and without his knowledge, I conversed with several leading members of the bar, and finding their views to coincide with my own, at a full meeting, upon my own motion, a vote for his admission was passed, and I had the pleasure of presenting him with a certificate of his membership, as the first intimation that such a step was proposed.

This mark of our respect was received by our friend with a strong expression of gratitude, and was evidently a new source of encouragement to him to persevere in the honorable course he had already marked out; and now that he has gone from among us, forever, I believe there is no one of us who does not rejoice that this act of kindness and respect towards him, is entered upon our records. In the town where he lived and died, Mr. McMurphy had the fullest confidence of all. In his profession, as was well said by his pastor, in his discourse at the funeral, he was regarded by all, as a peace maker, as a man whose mission was to advise his clients how to avoid litigation.

He was an active and liberal member of a religious society, and with his family gave regular attendance at church on the Sabbath, and assisted in the exercises at the Sabbath School.

No man in his town was doing more for the advancement of education, of literary taste, and of good morals, or for the promotion of harmony, and of enlightened and liberal policy, than he. He was the representative of his town in the General Court of the State at the time of his decease, and had given decided evidence of ability and prudence in the halls of legislation.

When I speak of James McMurphy as an honorable man, and a courteous gentleman in his profession, I do not use those phrases as indicating a person of mere outside polish and good breeding. His standard was far higher than this. He was an honorable man, in his intercourse with his brethren, because he was an honest and conscientious man. He was a man of courteous demeanor, and a gentleman, not from regard for outward observances, but because his heart was right. He was a true man to his clients, and to the Court, and to the members of the bar, because he had early learned and always practised to be true to himself.

For such a man, it becomes us, as men, to mourn; to mingle our regrets with those of his townsmen; to give utterance in a public manner, to our sentiments of respect and affection towards him, and to offer our cordial sympathy to those who were bound to him by the nearer relations of life.

A wife and children, an aged mother, and a brother, lament the untimely severing of the dearest ties of earth. It were almost sacrilege to do more, in this place, than to allude to to the sorrow that crushes down the spirit of those of his own household. Of them it may indeed be said, "The heart knoweth its own bitterness," and with their affliction "the stranger intermeddleth not."

It is enough, here to say, that in every relation of social life, our friend sustained the same high and honorable character, as among his brothers at the bar, and that kindred, and friends, and fellow citizens, all have cause deeply to mourn with our fraternity, the death of James McMurphy.

Judge Morrison responded substantially as follows:—

It is with deep sorrow that we reflect upon the recent decease of several who once filled the places which we now occupy, and whose names are honorably enrolled upon the records of this Court. Three of these died and were laid in their graves by surviving friends almost before the tidings of their illness had reached us. The fourth was taken from our midst, and it was the melancholy privilege of most of us to pay to his remains the last sad office, as one by one we took our places by his grave and looked upon him whose face we shall here know no more forever.

The answers I received to my daily and anxious inquiries after Mr. McMurphy during his illness served to strengthen my fears that he had performed his last work among us, and somewhat prepared me for the final result.—So brief, however, was his illness that one cannot as yet realize fully the great loss that has fallen upon us all.

Mr. Gregg was taken away while yet in early manhood, and before he had acquired a decided professional reputation, though not before he had given abundant evidence of those high qualities of heart and intellect which won the confidence of his acquaintances and gave promise of professional success.

Mr. McMurphy was cut off before the noon of manhood, yet he had already become quite generally known, and had established an enviable reputation as an honest and upright citizen and lawyer.

Judge Josiah Butler and Hon. Wm. Plumer had long ceased from active participation in the labors of their profession. At a comparatively ripe old age they have gone from the communities in which they lived and to which they were such distinguished ornaments.

They were men of learning, and extended usefulness; able and venerable men whose names and labors as jurists, scholars and statesmen have become a part of the State and National History.

Thus suddenly four leading men in their respective communities have passed away from the scenes and tribunals of earth to stand before their last judge. May God be merciful to them and to us who remain, and may we take to ourselves the lesson which these events should teach. And while we are reminded of our mortality with a startling emphasis, and the brevity and littleness of all earthly gifts, and honors and success, heed the earnest voice of Wisdom.

The loss of Mr. McMurphy, taken as it were from our very presence, we sincerely mourn.

In this sad bereavement the Court sympathises with the members of the Bar who have lost a brother, friend, and companion. Your loss, Gentlemen, is our loss also. We sympathise with the community in which the deceased lived and died; but especially with the desolate ones who feel more keenly than we can conceive the irreparable calamity which had fallen upon them,—the widow, the mother, and the fatherless children.

My own acquaintance with Mr. McMurphy commenced at the term of this Court held in this place two years ago. I observed with much satisfaction his gentlemanly bearing, and the evidences of his untiring industry, ability and integrity; and it was with no ordinary gratification that I heard from the lips of his pastor in his funeral discourse that Mr. McMurphy was emphatically a peacemaker in the community; that he sought to heal the differences which so often everywhere occur among men, and to prevent litigation; that amid the conflicting influences of political and local interests he ever maintained a character for integrity and fair dealing.

To the testimony of his pastor must be added the concurrent testimony of the friends and neighbors of the deceased.

In everything he undertook to do, and in all the relations of life, then, it would seem, and it is no doubt true, he did good.

In an eminent degree, so far as I know, he carried out in daily life, as well as in the forum, the spirit of his oath as an Attorney of this Court, and acted "in the office of an Attorney within the Court according to the best of his learning and discretion, and with all good fidelity, as well to the Court as his client.

Such conduct and such a character we should and do admire. Though dying young he has left an example which it were well for us to follow and imitate.

To the younger members of the profession I especially commend his example, and may your future character rest upon as just and durable principles as did that of the deceased.

Let us all emulate his virtues both as a citizen and as a lawyer, and may these repeated admonitions come home to us with their due influence, leading us to put a right value upon the vanishing interests and pursuits of life, and amid the engrossing cares, and momentary antagonisms of our profession, not forget that we have interests beyond, and above, and make such preparation for the last hour, that when our summons shall come we may be found ready to go, "sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust" in God.

Read! Villains! Read!

IF the sanctimonious scoundrel and contemptible thief who stole an umbrella from a door-step in Islington street, on Sunday evening last, will return the same to its legitimate owner, he will in a degree lessen the turpitude of his crime, and shall be rewarded with one of the American S. S. Union's Tracts, which it is hoped will lead him to repent, turn from his folly and be wise. If, on the contrary, he is so heathenish and so lost to all sense of shame as to prefer the vicious and devious path he is now walking, he will undoubtedly end on the gallows, although hanging is by far too good for such a despicable miscreant. A sheep stealer or robber of hen roosts is an honorable person when compared with the detestable wretch who goes about stealing umbrellas rainy nights. Had this been the first article of the kind the unfortunate advertiser had lost, nothing would have been said about it; but the disagreeable devolution having been practised three times recently, forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

Should the rascal who purloined the article in question, after reading the above, feel disposed to return it, he can leave it at this office, and no questions will be asked.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The steamship Atlantic, arrived here at 2 o'clock this afternoon, from Liverpool, Nov. 1. She brings no news relative to the missing passengers of the Arctic.

At Liverpool cotton was steady and unchanged; breadstuffs quiet; wheat declined 6d, flour 2s, corn 1a a 2s; provisions were unchanged.

The siege of Sebastopol was progressing very favorably for the allied forces. Two of the outer forts of the place had been taken, and a breach had been effected in the walls of Sebastopol itself, but the breach was not sufficiently practicable for the fortress to be stormed.

LOCAL.

MR. BEECHER'S LECTURE.—On Monday evening at the Temple, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher delivered a lecture before the usual full audience of the Mercantile course.

His subject was a comparison of Conservatism and Progress, as two opposite elements in society; including a description and analysis of each. He evidently has a strong preference for the progressive or reformatory class of men, among which he himself is commonly reckoned; but in his description of the true or wise reformer, he paid a high tribute to true conservatism, as an indispensable element of character in the man of eminent usefulness.

His favorite idea, however, was not that these opposite qualifications should be combined equally in every individual man; but rather, that in every community there should be as there are, radicals on the one hand, and to keep the equilibrium, conservatives on the other.

The lecture abounded in good thoughts, which were not confined within their orbit by any distinct plan, but rather shone ad libitum, like the shooting stars.

MECHANICS' LYCEUM.—Rev. Theodore Parker's popular lecture on "The True and False Gentleman," comes off before the Mechanics' Lyceum this evening. A few season tickets remain unsold, which this attraction will doubtless make a market for to-day.

That finished scholar and eloquent speaker, Ralph Waldo Emerson, gives the third lecture of this course on Tuesday evening of next week.

Among the deaths reported in the California papers received by the last steamer we find the following:—At the Insane Asylum, in Stockton, Oct. 5. W. K. Cligson, (Wm. H. Clugston) aged about 35 years, formerly of Portsmouth, N. H. He served an apprenticeship at the printing business in the office of the New Hampshire Gazette.

NEW STOCK.—Mr. Shores has just received direct from New York, a very extensive stock of new and rich goods—comprising Stationery, Fancy Goods, Pictures, &c., some details of which will be formed in our advertising columns. DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

n3 6m W. R. PRESTON.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic. Pa. University.
I. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Jose Corrence de Lua, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c. &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all disease arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person using a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting this useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,

No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,

making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community,

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful

STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Feduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

THE ELECTIONS.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION.

The State election in Massachusetts occurred on Monday, which was, as the Boston Courier says, a damp day in more senses than one. Early in the morning the rain poured in torrents, but the Know Nothings were at the polls, numerous and active, while their opponents appeared to be sound asleep. They waked up however at the latter part of the day, to find the following to be the result in Boston. A large sprinkling of the Whigs, and the mass of the Democrats, Free Soilers, and Temperance men, had formed a combination which proved itself to be invincible as well as invisible, and which on its first appearance reported itself as follows:

For Governor — Gardner, K. N., 7571; Washburn, W., 4196; Bishop, D., 1252; Wilson, F. S., 401; scat. 39.

The vote for Governor in 308 towns, as footed up in the Boston Journal of Tuesday morning, is in round numbers; Gardner, 79,000; Washburn, 26,000; Bishop, 13,000; Wilson, 6,500; Wales (national democrat), 300; scattering, 700.

The Journal also says—

Of Representatives, our returns show that there are 341 Know Knothings elected, 6 Whigs, and 1 Democrat.

State Senators elected 39 Know Nothings—one not heard from.

Members of Congress, 11 K. N.—of these 6 were free soil, 3 whigs, and 2 democrats.

The Courier sums up the Congressional ticket in this way—

The above are all Know Nothings, and about all of them Abolitionists.

The same paper speaks thus of the general result:—

This is a clean sweep, but tornadoes pay no respect to landmarks. Governor, Legislature, —which includes U. S. Senator,—Congressmen—all. The new party takes everything, and with such majorities that no one thinks proper to interpose a complaint. It is true that we regret the loss of our Senate and Representative ticket in this city, and our candidates for members of Congress—and also that Abolitionism is so predominant in the constitution of the successful ticket. However, it will be found before the close of the 34th Congress, that the members from Massachusetts, as a body, have done no violence to the political name which they have assumed for the present.

The Courier, it should be stated, has been during the late canvas, one of the most earnest opponents of the know nothings and abolitionists.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK ELECTION.—New York, Nov. 13. The Tribune revises its calculation upon the vote for Governor up to this afternoon, and says that it cannot cipher Seymour below 2000 majority. The footings in the Evening Herald give Clark a majority of 231.

ALBANY, Nov. 13.—The Argus of this afternoon gives Seymour 1020 majority, while the Register gives Clark 249 majority.

The Argus foots up as follows:—Clark 129,908, Seymour 128,752. Fulton and Hamilton are estimated at 600 majority for Clark, and Schenectady 300 majority. These added give Clark 1706 majority.

ILLINOIS.

The Boston Post of Tuesday morning gives the following as the latest from Illinois:

"This is the way to put it to the fusionists."

Special to the Boston Post.

Washington, Nov. 13, 8 P. M.—The returns from Illinois look well. Richardson, Harris, Allen and Marshall, all true Nebraska democrats, are elected by large majorities. The senate is democratic; house of representatives doubtful. Gen. Shields will be his own successor in the U. S. senate.

The same paper speaking of Massachusetts election, says:

The know nothings have chosen governor, lieutenant governor, forty senators, a large majority in the house, and eleven congressmen. They have swept everything.

There was all sorts of a storm yesterday, and more political wrecks than has been seen before for many years.

Salt river is n't such a very bad stream, after all, if we may judge from the number of boats seeking its source last night.

HUMORS OF POLITICS.—The New York Tribune has the following question and answer:

"Have you seen Sam?"

"Yes we have. He isn't good looking, either."

It adds:

The Hon. Francis Granger has published a letter proposing a re-organization of the National Whig party. That is a good idea. We haven't heard of a party that more needed reorganizing.

We trust this proposal means that the Hon. Frank proposes that himself and his compatriots shall hold their next State Council in open daylight. That will be a great improvement. Hurry it up!

The New York Herald on the morning of election, thus appealed to the popular tastes of foreigners:

Irishmen!—Your national institution, whiskey punch, is in danger. Rally to its support. Faugh a Ballagh!

Frenchmen!—The wines of la belle France are to be cut off. Rally for Cognac. One struggle for the demi-tasse. Vive la bagatelle!

Germans!—The pride of your fatherland, lager bier, is imperilled. Next they'll want your pipes. One blow for your luxuries.

SECRET OATHS.—We hope none of our friends will consider any secret oaths, or other illegal obligations they may have been induced to subscribe to, as of any binding force upon their consciences, to prevent their voting for whoever they may believe the fittest candidate. Secret political oaths are extra-judicial, unconstitutional and void, the cunning devices of adroit political speculators and managers to advance their own personal ends. If a party has truth and justice at its foundation, it has no need for such illegal artifices to obtain or secure voters.—Gloucester Telegraph.

The above is from a Massachusetts paper, just on the eve of election. We suppose the editor must refer to the Know Nothings, in his bid for Whig votes.

A commentator says:

"We cannot see any reason in his would be arguments. We cannot see why a man has not as much right to bind himself in one direction as another, wherever his conscience dictates; nor can we understand how an oath is more of an oath, more sacred, or binding, in one place than another—whether made before a Court, in a Know Nothing Lodge, or in private. The idea of the sacredness of any party, or the duty of sustaining a party, under all circumstances, is not of so much force now as formerly."

We add, that the whole business of judicial, legal and commercial swearing, in this country, is greatly overdone. There are no custom house oaths in England; and they ought to be abolished here;—and so ought nine tenths of all the civil oaths.

CHEERING LYCEUM LECTURERS.—Some of our exchanges are filled with holy horror at the idea of cheering a lyceum lecturer.—They say, "you might as well cheer a sermon." That is true, when the lectures, as is too often the case, are nothing but sermons, clippings pasted together from the barrels of old sermons! No one has a disposition to cheer them. But we can see no impropriety in laughing, crying or applauding in a hall of entertainment, on a secular day. Who will burst his buttons off and stop there at the wit of Holmes? or sit still and show no emotion at the eloquence of Bethune, or Chapin, or Starr King? or be a dumb listener at the home-thrusts at tyrants, demagogues and fops, by Beecher? Surely such a man is an "old fogy." We have no sympathy with him or his notions. Give us no lyceum lectures that we cannot applaud. They would be destitute of wit, beauty and sublimity, creating no emotions, and doing no good.—Manchester Mirror.

Applause that means something, by men that know something, is worth having. But the rattle of boot-heels and canes, made by rowdy boys who go on purpose to make a noise, and who don't know a Beecher from a block head,—is worth nothing and goes for nothing.

We have no objection to well-timed applause at a lecture, nor the sonorous responsive amen of some religious devotee in the midst of a sermon. But we like, in both, to see them hit the nail on the head; for want of which they are often worse than nothing.

NEW YORK SLAVE CASE.—In the Circuit Court of the United States, sitting in New York, the jury, on Thursday evening, in the case of Capt. Julius Smidt alias James Smith, master of the brig Julia Moulton, brought in a verdict that he was guilty of having been engaged in the slave trade. The prisoner's counsel asked to be heard on a motion for a new trial, and the Court suspended judgment for a week. The penalty is death. This is the first conviction under the law of 1820, which makes the offence of carrying slaves "piracy." Capt. Smith may yet escape on the ground that he is not a citizen of the United States.—Boston Cour.

We have no doubt he will escape on some ground or other; no matter what. It will never do for us to hang this man, unless we hang ourselves also, as particeps criminis in the slave trade at home.

THE MUSICAL GAZETTE.—Mason Brothers, 23 Park Row, New York, the enterprising publishers of the Musical Review and other good things, have sent us No. 1 of a neat quarterly paper, with the title of Musical Gazette. It is to be published every Saturday, at $2 per annum, when sent by mail, $2,50 if delivered by carrier. The Review, issued fortnightly, at $1 per year, is to "still live." Success to both.

CHARITY BY WHOLESALE.—Mr. John Ball, city missionary in Salem, writes thus, to the Salem Register:

In your paper, recently, was an article expressing the hope that some friends of the poor would give apples, to be used as a substitute for butter. Permit me to state that a gentleman, in response thereto, sent to my office a few days since, a cartload of apples, which I have distributed to sixty four families, all of whom received them with gratitude. I hope others will follow the example of this kind hearted man.

ORIGIN OF THE WORD CANDIDATE.—This word, now in so frequent use, is derived from the Latin candidus, white, because the competitors for office in classical times were accustomed to wear white robes, as emblems of the purity of their lives and characters.

It has recently been discovered that a thin coat of California gold, is superior to all other applications as a political whitewash, and certificates can be shown of remarkable cases where its effect is truly wonderful.

PACIFIC RAILROAD PROJECT.—The Austin (Texas) Gazette of October 30 says the government has refused to receive the stock offered by Messrs. Walker & King as a deposit to secure the Pacific Railroad contract, and the whole affair is therefore considered a failure.

LOCAL.

MECHANICS' LYCEUM.—The lecture on Tuesday evening was by Rev. Theodore Parker, of Boston, on the False and True Gentleman.

In contrasting the two characters, he drew a picture of what he styled vulgar gentility founded on wealth, but unaccompanied by worth, in which some of the lines were drawn so strong and deep as to seem a little in the style of caricature. Most of the lecture was devoted to this view of the false gentleman; while a brief space only was allotted to the portraiture of the true gentleman and lady, who were described as honest, natural men and women, expressing and exhibiting their kindness to the humble and the lowly, as well as to the great and powerful.

The whole lecture was one of the keenest satires on vulgar folly and fictitious gentility, to which it has ever been our lot to listen.

INSTRUCTION IN FRENCH.—It will be seen by his advertisement, that Prof. Leon, now of Portland, announces his winter session for private lessons or classes, to-day. Application may be made at Mrs. Thompson's school, in the Temple. Mons. L. is a gentleman and a scholar, a native Frenchman, now residing in Portland, where he is highly esteemed as a teacher and citizen. See his adv.

MR. PEARSON'S SINGING CLASS is to meet this (Wednesday) evening at half-past seven—and not on Thursday, as was announced by mistake.

SMALL POX.—We learn from the Portsmouth Gazette that seven cases of the small pox have occurred in that town, and that the Board of Health has taken precautions against the spread of the disease.—Boston Chronicle.

You are just twelve miles out of your course. The paragraph came from the Dover Gazette. In Dover there are now about 25 cases. In Portsmouth there have been about four cases within a year; and such cases with us cause little alarm, and call out no notice.

LAUNDRY AT MANCHESTER.—The citizens of Manchester have a new establishment on the Island, at Amoskeag, carried on by steam, in connection with a Bleachery, just ready for business. It is confidently expected—and the work done thus far warrants the expectation—that it will be able to do as nice work as any Laundry in New England, and at cheaper rates. The Laundry is under the superintendence of Henry M. Bowen, formerly proprietor of the Roxbury and Boston Laundry.—Manchester Mirror.

By the way, where is our Portsmouth Laundry, Bathing Rooms, &c.? We need such an establishment, and the sooner we have it, the better.

FIRE AT NEWBURYPORT.—The barn of Mr. Thomas Gould, Belleville, was consumed at midnight on Monday, with all its contents, consisting of 16 tons hay, a full set of farming tools, carts, wagons, &c. The barn was a good building 30 by 40 feet, and the loss will not fall short of $600. There is some insurance, obtained within a few days, probably at the Great Falls Mutual.—Herald.

CAUTION.—An ounce ball, apparently fired from a musket, passed through the dress of a woman while she was in the garden of her residence at the lower part of Newburyport, on Friday. The ball passed through all the folds of her dress near the feet, and buried itself in the ground a short distance from where she was standing. There is often at this season of the year too much careless firing, and the accidents which are almost daily recorded in the papers should teach greater caution.—Herald.

CASE OF STABBING.—On the night of the 7th inst. as a party of young men were at play with cards or dice in a shoe maker's shop on Second street, in Dover, a dispute arose, and a young man named John Hartford, was dangerously stabbed in the back with a sharp two edged knife, in three places, by one of the company named Henry Stevens. Stevens was arrested and brought before the Police Court on Wednesday morning, but as the physician did not consider it safe for Hartford to attend, on account of his wounds, the examination was postponed.—Dover Gaz.

N. H. STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The first Annual Meeting of this Association will be held at the City Hall, at Nashua, on Monday and Tuesday, the 27th and 28th of November, inst. A very attractive order of exercises is presented; and the hope is expressed in the Society's circular, that every Teacher in the State, from the Primary School to the College, will be present at the opening, ready to work and stay through. This, our first Annual Meeting, is a very important one.

The attendance of all friends of education, and the participation of Honorary Members in the discussions, are solicited.

Reduced Fares, on return, are secured to all who may come over the most important Railroads. With other Roads, members will please make arrangements for themselves through the Agents.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE SENTENCE.—In the Hillsborough Common Pleas, one George A. Leavitt, convicted of robbing his father of $15, under threats of stabbing him, was sentenced to the State Prison for life.

NOT GUILTY.—In the case of John Marshall, tried at Manchester, N. H., for the murder of Collin, the Irishman, the jury on Thursday afternoon brought in a verdict of not guilty,

LAWRENCE'S
CHERRY PECTORAL.
W. F. LAWRENCE: DEAR SIR,—
It gives me pleasure to state that your CHERRY PECTORAL has given utmost satisfaction wherever it has been used. Some of the most distinguished physicians of the state, are in the habit of purchasing it in bulk, and profess themselves highly gratified with its remedial effects. I can recommend it with confidence as a very superior medicine, and have no doubt that it will earn for itself an enviable reputation. E. H. ROLLINS.
CONCORD, Sept. 20, 1854.
Mr. Rollins is one of the most extensive dealers in drugs and medicines in New England. As the Cherry Pectoral was first introduced in Concord, we subjoin the certificate of John F. Brown, formerly bookseller and publisher, and now city clerk of Concord, N. H., our former agent:
This certifies that I have been an agent for the sale of the medicine, now extensively known as Lawrence's Cherry Pectoral; that so far as I know it has given good satisfaction; that I have repeatedly sold it to physicians in quantity; that I am acquainted with the manufacturer of the Pectoral; that he is a physician of good repute, and that I believe him qualified to conduct the complex operations necessary in the manufacture of this medicine. JOHN F. BROWN.
CONCORD, N. H. April 6, 1854.
The above are but few of the many testimonials in favor of Lawrence's Cherry Pectoral. It is used under the sanction and approbated at Dartmouth College by Prof. Dixi Crosby, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty of the N. E. states. It is
THE GREAT REMEDY
For the rapid cure of coughs, colds, influenza, croup, hoarseness, pulmonary and bronchial irritations about the throat and chest; and may be had of all apothecaries, and in at least one store in every town in N. H.
Reader, recollect that more than half of all those who die of disease, die of consumption. Here you have a remedy used and sanctioned by the most eminent among the Medical Faculty. Are you troubled with a cough, or cold, bronchial, or pulmonary complaint? try it immediately, and do not neglect your cough and cold. o6ssttf

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Dreadful Shipwreck.—Ship New Era of Bath, from Bremen for New York, with 380 passengers, went ashore last night off Deal, on the coast of New Jersey and will probably be a total wreck.

The captain of the New Era and about 20 of the passengers have reached the shore.—The remainder are still on board, and the vessel is fast breaking up. One half of those left on board have already been drowned between decks or washed overboard. Every effort is making to rescue the survivors.

At the latest advices from the scene of the wreck, the steam tug Achilles was lying off the wreck, and the Leviathan was nearing the spot. The ship will prove a total loss. Her crew was small. She lies broadside to the sea.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13.—New Orleans papers of Tuesday last have been received.—They contain Galveston dates to the 6th inst.

From Texas.—The Austin Times states that the Secretary of War had countermanded the mustering of the state Rangers, but the Governor had, nevertheless, determined to muster the companies at the expense of the United States. A company of dragoons had an encounter with some Indians, in which they lost seven men, and all their horses.

Know Nothings in Texas.—Gen. Houston was organizing the Know Nothing party throughout the State.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.—New York, Nov. 14.—The steamer Northern Light, from San Juan Nicaragua, with San Francisco dates to Oct. 24, arrived this morning. She brings $564,000 in gold. There is no news of any importance. Trade is in a more healthy state. Flour $11.50 a 11.75.

The Northern Light is the first of the line of Nicaragua steamers, under the new arrangement, and brings eight days later news from San Francisco.

DEAL BRANCH, N. J., Tuesday morning, 7 A. M.—The ship New Era was boarded this morning by the wreck boats, and all the passengers who remain on board will be saved in three or four hours. The ship is very much broken up, but her masts are still standing, and the passengers are clinging to the rigging.

9 A. M.—One hundred and thirty persons have been landed this morning. Fifty dead bodies have, up to this time, been picked up on the shore. There are two tug boats here, but they have not been able to render any assistance as yet, owing to the heavy swell.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Charles W. Stewart of Maryland, door keeper of the House of Representatives, committed suicide by taking poison last evening, in the speaker's room, in the capitol. He leaves a wife and six children. Pecuniary embarrassment is said to have been the cause of the melancholy tragedy.

Quite a financial panic is prevailing here to-day. Three dry goods houses have suspended payment, and there has been a heavy run on the Exchange Bank, of Messrs. Selden, Whithers & Co.

ALBANY, Nov. 13.—There was a row yesterday in the German Catholic Church, growing out of a difficulty between the priests and the St. Joseph's Society, concerning a banner. Legal measures has been resorted to, which resulted in favor of the St. Stephen's Society; and yesterday the priest called them thieves, liars, and stated that the services could not be proceeded with unless they left. He then withdrew, and a fight among the congregation followed. Four persons were arrested, and held to bail.

BUFFALO, Nov. 13.—The bills of the Farmers' Joint Stock Bank are not redeemed at its agency in this city. The bank closed its doors this morning, causing great excitement, as a large amount of its circulation is held here. The parties interested in the bank have published a card, stating that the bills will be fully redeemed.

UTICA, Nov. 10.—The Catholic Church at Oxford, Chenango county, in this state, was broken into on Thursday night, and a silver vessel, cased with gold, and containing the blessed sacrament, stolen, and other outrages committed.

It is understood in Tampa, Florida, that the Federal authorities are about commencing the construction of roads into the Indian country. The Indians were quiet at the last advices. Billy Bowlegs had visited Fort Myers once since his return from Washington.

A VESSEL ON FIRE.—The Cleveland Herald states that on Saturday evening, the 4th inst., the sky to the northward of that city assumed a brilliant red hue which it retained for the space of an hour, and then gradually paled away. It was probably the reflection of a vessel on fire far out upon the lake.

Out of one infamously dirty alley in Naples, cholera destroyed 143 out of 146 inhabitants. The three survivors were removed by the authorities.

During the unsuccessful search of the clipper John Clemens, in search of the Arctic's boats, she picked up a flag-staff which was recognized as having belonged to the Arctic.

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE BOOK.

TOWN AND COUNTRY:
OR
LIFE AT HOME AND ABROAD,
WITHOUT AND WITHIN US.
By John S. Adams.

The Undersigned will publish, early in December, the above work, with illustrations from Original designs, in one elegant 12 mo volume of about 400 pages.

It is a book suited for all times and places, and is distinguished by its living, energetic style, boldness of expression, and originality of thought.

The SKETCHES OF LIFE,—true to the original, exhibiting the various phases of Real Life, its Temptations, Trials, Conflicts, and Conquests of Minds struggling amid diverse circumstances, together with rich and pleasing Pictures of the Country, the sinless heart, and the happy home, cannot but deeply interest the reader, and at the same time touch a cord of the heart that will vibrate in strong sympathy with all those who are battling for the right.

Of the Stories, 'Saved by Kindness,' 'The Hope of the Fallen,' 'Better than Gold,' and 'The Dead inherited,' will not fail to impart a salutary influence.

Of the shorter Sketches and Essays, 'Little Nelly,' 'The Old Tree and Its Lessons,' 'Letters and Letter Writing,' 'What is Truth?' 'A Text for a Life-time,' and the 'Immensity of Creation,' will be found to contain many a fine thought, incentive to an independent action of mind in the pursuit of Truth. Of the Humorous articles may be noted, the 'Autobiography of an Automaton,' 'Bendbor Movement,' and 'Not made for an Editor.'

Interspersed throughout these pages are many genuine Poems, not a mere jingling of rhyme, with more regard to sound than sense, but veritable poems; brilliant, soul-electrifying thoughts, clothed in simple words, yet intense in style and earnest in expression, bearing in every line a text for a volume. Of these poems, the accomplished Editors of the "Home Journal" speak in high terms. George P. Morris, whose judgment in such matters is unexceptionable, says, "Some of them are exquisite, and all of them have merit; their publication in a volume will be a valuable contribution to the stores of American literature." N. P. Willis fully coincides with Mr. Morris in his opinion, and adds, "Those that I have read are true poetry: they are well worth publishing." A distinguished literary gentleman of Philadelphia writes as follows: "I have read several of these poems with much pleasure; that they have been praised by two of the most gifted poets of our country is sufficient indication of their merit."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GATI, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving the property that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need sharpening, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,

No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,

making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his MOST PERFECT, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful

STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Peduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1854.

MR. SOULE.

The affair of Mr. Soule and the French Government is said to have caused much excitement among the American residents in Europe. The London correspondent of the New York Times speaks of them as follows:

Mr. Soule, having spent two days in London, set out last Tuesday for Madrid via France. On his arrival at Calais, he was asked to show his passports, and, having done so, was requested to step into an inner room of the Bureau de Police. Here he was told that he must leave the country by the next steamer, and that he would not be allowed in the meanwhile to go anywhere out of Calais, being in fact placed under surveillance.

"There must be a mistake, sir, said our Minister; "do you know who I am?"

"There is not the slightest mistake, sir," was the reply; "you are Mr. Soule, the Ambassador of the United States of America at the Court of Spain, and I have orders not to let you pass."

"Where are your orders, sir?" asked Mr. Soule.

"This is no business of yours, sir; these orders are for me and I am acting upon them," said the Commissary.

Mr. Soule left by the next steamer, and reached London late in the evening day before yesterday. The news being made known in American circles, the greatest excitement prevailed, and, as may be imagined, measures of all sorts were suggested amidst great indignation.

Our distinguished ambassador, Monsieur Soule, puts us in mind of one of his famous predecessors on the peninsula, viz. the most illustrious and puissant Knight Don Quixote de la Mancha, whose adventures are duly chronicled by his biographer Cervantes.

Mr. Soule is a man of unquestionable courage, fully equal to the Don; and he is almost his equal in the invaluable faculty of getting into difficulty with almost every body, about all sorts of odd things, and frequently about nothing.

The London Times is foolish enough to insinuate, that Mr. Soule, being our minister to Spain, had no particular business in France, and therefore no more right to a passage through the French empire than any other outsider.

But the London Times must be a stupid old fogy print, not to know that, in these days of progress and manifest destiny, our ambassadors in general, and Messrs. Borland and Soule in particular, are not only great men in the countries to which they are sent, but every where else, and are free to roam over all creation, in spite of all the sham potentates of Europe and their cobweb police to boot. So let little Nippy the second look out,—or we shall be down upon him, and bombard the Tuilleries as we did the Greytown shanties.

For the Morning Chronicle.

ADVENTISTS.

Messrs. Editors:—I have noticed in your paper of late, frequent allusions to this people, particularly that class of them that have been preaching a definite time for the Advent.—Your notices of them have always been kind and respectful; and I thank you for your kind treatment to my misguided brethren. I sympathize with these persons in their views of the event for which they look, but have had no confidence or interest in the time they have preached. But in your paper of Nov. 4th, is an article taken from the Boston Journal, which I have reason to believe is entirely erroneous. That paper says, "Some forty of the believers in that doctrine assembled at the corner of Fourth and C. streets, South Boston, arrayed in white robes," &c. Now, sirs, I will give any one a handsome reward that will bring me one of those robes, or show me the person that ever had one on. So much has been said about "ascension robes," for a few years past, in the public prints, that I feel desirous to see one. The fact is, Messrs. editors the person does not live that ever saw such an article. The Adventists are noted Scriptirians, and they often talk about the "Robe of Righteousness," "being clad in fine linen, clean and white, which is the righteousness of Saints," &c. You will find the true account of the only ascension robes ever possessed by them in Rev. 6, 11, 7, 9, 14, 19, 8. Whoever will read those passages, will know what the Adventists mean by "White Robes," &c.

Please publish pro bono publico, for it is evident the public have been imposed upon by the ignorance or duplicity of some public journals. By your copying the Journal's article I supposed that you thought it was true, that these people actually put on "linen robes" to ascend in.

Yours for truth, where'er 'tis found, R. C.

We cannot vouch for the truth of the statement which we copied from the Boston Journal, though we see nothing in it which is incredible. Some good women in this place did actually clothe themselves in white robes on a certain day in '44, and set with uncovered feet in expectation. And on a certain day about a fortnight ago, a string of wagons, containing twenty or thirty people, from other towns, none from this city, passed over Lafayette road in this city, bound to a noted hill or mountain, where they expected to see the Lord visibly appear that day.

For the Chronicle.

AN INCIDENT.

As I entered the Court room last Friday afternoon, and took my accustomed seat, I saw sitting in the prisoner's dock a young man who had been tried at this term of the Court and found guilty, and was now brought in at its close that sentence might be passed upon him.

Young as he was, the marks of vice and premature age were plainly visible in his face.

After the Court had been called to order and on motion of the Solicitor, the Court passed sentence upon the prisoner. As the words which were to consign him to speechless companionship with the vile and criminal of every degree and shade for years to come—the calm indifference which had previously marked his manner, gave way, and emotions of sorrow ruled his breast. The stern and inflexible look—hard as the granite walls which were soon to enshroud him as in a living tomb—softened into one of sadness. Strange that some power had not ere that moment stirred those latent sensibilities, and made each a ministering spirit to him for good.

The Sheriff made previous proclamation that the Court stood upon its adjournment. Then slowly and sadly rose the oldest member of the bar present, and announced to the Court the death within a few weeks of four members of the bar, with a brief sketch of their lives, accompanied with appropriate allusions to their virtues, and the usual resolutions of respect and condolence.

He was followed by other members in eulogiums upon the deceased. Some had filled high offices of public trust, both in the State and national service. The youngest and latest deceased seemed, perhaps because best known, particularly dear to all. They mourned his death as that of a brother. From early boyhood he had given evidence of superior virtues and talents which endeared him to all, and pointed to a future bright with promise. Amid the conflicts of clashing interests he was honorable to all, and whether as the counsellor of the powerful or the lowly—alike commended himself to their respect and confidence by his urbanity, honesty, independence and kindness. He never scorned the degraded, nor laid aside self respect in the presence of arrogant wealth. He early learned to sympathize with the poor and the toiling, because he himself had felt the pinching hand of penury, and knew full well the weary road he must travel; who amid adverse circumstances would win favors from fickle fortune. The temptations of his profession had never allured him from the right line of virtue. He was, in the community where he lived, a peace maker; and sought rather the ends of justice than the oft times more profitable results of professional labor.

His choicest affections clustered around the friends and companions of his fireside home. While he was earnestly engaged in the business of life, he forgot not each Sabbath to lend his influence to the cause of morals, and led his little ones to the Sunday School where he himself assisted in teaching the young the elements of piety and substantial character. Though dead, he seemed to be present, and to speak to all. The falling tear, the sigh, the heaving breast, and the deep silence, save the speaker's voice, told more eloquently than human utterance how solemn the scene and how mighty the influences of the hour!

My eye involuntarily rested upon the prisoner, as he sat in sadness and with downcast eye, as if pondering upon the picture thus vividly drawn before his vision.

What strong contrasts does life present! Two extremes of human experience here met! The dead and the living seemed standing face to face; both young in years, but how unlike in character! One from childhood undaunted by obstacles in his progress—ever aspiring and noble. Nitor in adversum. The other depraved and revengeful, a source of grief to his friends, and at last a burden to the State. Over the dead, friends and neighbors wept the tear of love and sympathy; over the living fell the tear of pity.

From that very room, as a common point of departure, one had gone forth, to die, carrying with him to his grave universal regrets and universal love; the other was soon to go away to prison and disgrace, guarded by the strong arm of the law.

Along lines of pathway how divergent do they now travel! May those lines converge until in another world the dead and the living shall be companions in purity and peace.

The Presiding Judge responded to the sentiments uttered by the speakers, briefly, and with touching tenderness and grace.

Thus ended what to the prisoner was probably the first moral instruction of his life. May the lesson of the hour be long remembered. U.

ANTHONY BURNS.—The Richmond Enquirer of Monday says: "It may be some gratification to Anthony's Boston friends, to learn that Anthony left here on Friday, the 3d inst. in possession of David McDaniel, Esq. of Nash County, N. C., who purchased him for the purpose of putting him to work in a cotton field or where duty calls."

LOCAL.

REEFING TOPSAILS.—Having never been a sailor, we do not claim the ability to "hand, reef and steer," but on Wednesday we did, without the aid of any person, reef the mizzen topsail of the new ship Ocean Rover. To this sail had been attached Foster's Reefing Apparatus, which we have before spoken of. Along side of the wharf it works to perfection, and the riggers say it will be just the thing, at sea, performing the most difficult operation of reefing topsails speedily and well. The modus operandi is this: when the sail is to be reefed, just cast off the haliard and let the yard come down by the run, and the sail is reefed.

REMEMBER THE POOR.—Now is the time to purchase winter clothing, and we are sure that a good supply, in good style, and at reasonable prices, may be found at the different clothing stores in this city. But before purchasing, gentlemen, look over your clothing; some of it may be in pretty good condition, but after all you would rather have new, and give the old away to some deserving poor person. Please make up a bundle of all such and send it to the City Missionary's Office, No. 74 State street. Recollect, Winter clothing—not cast-off Summer clothing; that will be wanted next Spring and Summer. You may find some articles that are absolutely worn out and good for nothing but to make into mops. Dont send such; the poor have an abundance of the same sort. Men's and boys' clothing and also bedding will be much wanted this winter, and the sooner they are sent to the office, the more good they will be likely to do. *

SAD OCCURRENCE.—On the 8th inst. at Newington, a little daughter of Mr. John A. Pickering, was suddenly deprived of life in the following manner:—This beautiful and very interesting child had but just left the house to execute some little errand for her father. On her return she was kicked in the stomach by a horse that was loose in the field. She went into the house of a neighbor, near by, told what had happened, and in a few minutes, died. May He "who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb" remember and comfort this afflicted family. COM.

AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS.—"Stars and Stripes" is the name of an American paper printed at Manchester. On their banner it is inscribed that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty;" and they announce it as their intention to labor for "our countrymen first—the rest of mankind afterwards." The paper is rather spicy. Mr. Morse is agent in Portsmouth.

In the Messenger of the 15th, is a Prospectus for a new weekly paper in Portsmouth, to be called "The American Ballot," and devoted to the advocacy of Native American principles. John J. Mason & Co. are publishers. They say—

The first object of The American Ballot will be to maintain the rights of American citizens, and to expose the wiles of the enemies of democracy and religious liberty. . . . . It will contend for the duty of Americans to rule America; to elect none but native citizens to office; to defend the ballot box, the palladium of the liberties of republicans against the insidious designs of the subjects of foreign potentates, political or religious; and to resist all attempts to wrest the bible from the hands of the rising generation.

The American Ballot will be published on Tuesday mornings; the first number to be issued about the 21st of November. Terms $1.50 per annum, in advance. Office of publication 11 1-2 Congress st.

DRAWING.—Mr. Meinerth announces his Drawing School, for rudimental or advanced instruction, as established permanently at his room in Hanover-street Chapel. A very fine portrait of Purser Bates, U.S.N., executed by Mr. Meinerth, may be seen at Mr. Shores's window.

☞ Tuesday evening, while under his professional shears, Sol Homes privately informed us, as his candid opinion, that the K. N.'s had triumphed in Massachusets. Sol, being a native born citizen, rejoices at the result.—By the way, in his profession, Holmes is equal to most anybody.

LIGHT NEEDED.—Some thick-head has sent us a second copy of the "Morning Light" from Concord—which we had before received and noticed. This was well enough, as we can dispose of considerable quantities of old papers; but the stupid fellow sealed the paper close, like a letter, subjecting us to letter-postage therefor—ten cents. It is our opinion, that such folks need light.

OCEAN HOUSE, NEWBURYPORT.—We perceive by the Herald, that Horace Hamblet, Esq., the excellent landlord of the Ocean House, in Newburyport, has rebuilt his Stable and made good all that was damaged by the late fire, and is now ready to accommodate in a superior manner all who may call.

There was an alarm of fire in Newburyport at 4 o'clock, Tuesday morning, caused by the burning of a shed in Warren street.

THE BELLS.

A native poet "to the manor born," in this city, but now resident in New York, Mr. T. B. A., has issued a neat volume of poems, entitled "The Bells: a Collection of Chimes"—and beautiful chimes indeed, many of them are. Several of them have appeared in the newspapers, and have been copied by some of the most discriminating editors. Purity of thought and delicacy of language characterize the youthful author's works, so far, and give promise of a future usefulness and a fame that shall cost no tears. Almost the only exception to this, may be found in the 103d page, "an Anacreontic," in which the author shows that he can write one drinking song, which for the world's sake had better been unwritten.

A few errors, typographic and otherwise, will doubtless be corrected in a future edition

WRECK OF THE NEW ERA.

It now appears that the Captain and crew were saved, with 160 passengers, while 250 were lost. Capt. Smith, of the New York Associated press, writes of his meeting with the wreck, as follows :—

About 8 o'clock we came in sight of her, lying broadside to the beach, heading to the southward, with her fore, main and mizzen topsails close reefed still standing. On reaching her, she proved to be level with the water and full, and the swell breaking in heavy surges across her deck. We had already passed many pieces of the wreck, and half a mile further on we saw the body of a little child, and in quick succession also that of a man, stripped of clothing, and others with clothes on—four or five bodies in all. As we approached the wreck, so as to get a nearer view, a most harrowing spectacle met the eye.

The jibboom, rigging and tops of the ship, fore and aft, were filled with human beings, closely packed together, and clinging to each other and to the ropes, while the ship surged to and fro with each returning wave, which broke into spray far into the rigging and over the ship, drenching and suffocating the passengers, while the poor creatures filled the air with the most soul-harrowing and pitiful outcries for assistance. On the beach were about 200 persons, gathered in groups, apparently consulting how to act, while others sat leisurely on the gunwales of the boats, which the heavy surf rendered certain destruction to launch.

We saw several boats upon the shore, apparently well adapted for the purpose, and a crowd of persons dragging a long life-boat towards the beach, where it was left, and no further attempt was made to launch it.

We saw no line from the ship to the shore, and no life-car. From the fact that what appeared the ship's boat was lying on the beach, we judged the officers and crew, or most of them, must have landed or been thrown ashore in her. The tide was now at its full—the wind had died away, and a slight breeze sprang up from off shore, which greatly increased hopes that the swell would go down with the tide, and render it possible for the boats to be launched from shore. As to ourselves, we found we could do nothing.

At the latest accounts from the wreck of the New Era, all the surviving passengers had been landed on the beach, numbering 135, which, added to the 27 saved before, makes 162. The number of lost is about 250.

The New Era sailed from Bremerhaven on the 28th of September, with upwards of 400 souls on board, of whom 39 died on the passage. Several of those landed have since died, and others will probably die from the effects of the terrible hardships they suffered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A Washington correspondent reiterates the statement that fears are entertained for the safety of the sloop-of-war Albany, and denies, on the authority of the Navy Department, the report of her intended cruise in the West Indies. She has not been heard from since Sept. 27.

The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce telegraphs as follows: The French difficulty assumes a serious aspect.—Official advices were received by the Government yesterday. The remonstrance of Messrs Mason and Buchanan was sudely repulsed.—Insult was apparently designed and premeditated.

Mr. Wm. North, the author and poet, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by taking prussic acid.

ALBANY, Nov. 14.—The Argus footings on the vote for Governor, to-night, are as follows: Bronson 28,058, Ullmann 110,772, Clark 131,360, Seymour 132,204. These footings do not include the majority for Clark in Tompkins and the 600 majority for Clark in Courtlandt county. Official returns from 23 counties leave Clark 104 ahead of Seymour.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—The vote yesterday, in this city, on the liquor question, resulted in a majority of 5000 in favor of granting licenses for the sale of liquors.

NEWBURYPORT SUB-MARINE AND WRECKING CO.—The citizens of Newburyport have formed a company with this title—shares at $10—to dig up the treasures of the deep, at home and abroad. The Herald says:

They have secured the services of Mr. Fullerton, considered one of the best engineers in the country; his labors have been in all cases highly successful, in deep and in shallow waters; from the depth of 20 fathoms he has drawn up immense amounts of property, and from that depth to 2 fathoms. In one operation off the coast of England, he took from a wreck in deep water, nineteen and a half tons of gold and silver in the space of five weeks; he operated on the wreck of the Royal George, off Spithead, and removed all her guns and other property. On our own coasts he has been highly successful, and within the last month he has unloaded a sunken vessel, off Long Island, in an exposed situation, yielding to himself and those connected with him, a large income. The armor was imported from London.

The exhibition in Newburyport harbor on Wednesday and Thursday last, of Mr. Fullerton, with his submarine armor, resulted as was anticipated, to the establishment of a fact, that Submarine Diving, under the control of competent men, would be productive of good result in a pecuniary view. Notwithstanding the high wind at the time, and strong tide, together with muddy water, Mr. Fullerton walked over a large surface of ground.—The object of his search was to find a chain, lost from a steamer about five years since; he found the same, together with a coil of rigging and smaller articles. The bed of the river he informed us, is composed of sand and gravel, but at the head of the wharves, soft mud. The chain found was in a box, and it had settled into the sand its whole depth, with the exception of one corner, which was out about three inches.

GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that stand like eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

All combined properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

Piles, Costiveness, and

WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,

SUCH AS

Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutic Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,

Paralytic and Nervous Affections,

CANKER,

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,

PILES,

PIMPLES ON THE FACE,

Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,

AND ALL

RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,

COUGHS,

SORE THROAT,

AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE

THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metallic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and testimonials which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by Dr. W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. F. Parke, M.D., President College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Bart. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Cholic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green st.

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby no application is prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, and the extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and a record of all patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

HERTS BROTHERS

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

Daguerreotypes.

A. GREGORY takes pleasure in acknowledging the discrimination of a discerning public in their appreciation of his work by a steady increase of patronage, and lest an erroneous impression might be created at this time that nothing but cheap Daguerreotypes can be had in Portsmouth, respectfully announces to strangers more particularly, (his friends have already sufficient tangible evidence to need any thing being said,) that he still continues at his old stand,

No. 33 Congress St., opposite the City Hotel,

making those superior pictures he is noted for, at such prices as shall be satisfactory.

He has just received a lot of BEAUTIFUL CASES of various styles, and all those desiring likenesses of themselves or friends, will find it true economy to obtain his HIGHLY-FINISHED, LIFE-LIKE, ARTISTIC PICTURES. Please observe that his reputation is of seven years permanent residence in this community.

Particular attention is also invited to his beautiful

STEREOSCOPIC DAGUERREOTYPES.

These enchanting pictures need only to be seen to be appreciated; and once seen they cannot fail to captivate the beholder with their wonderful peculiarities and transcendant beauties. I make these pictures by a rule discovered by Mr. D. Peduzzi and myself, a year since, and in that time they have been the theme of admiration of a large number of citizens, including the highest cultivated taste, and been pronounced perfect in stereoscopic effect.

A general invitation is extended to all to examine his specimens and convince themselves of the superiority of his work. Sept. 22.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1854.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION.—They do say that one Republican is elected as a representative to the Massachusetts legislature, as well as one Democrat and six Whigs. We wonder what the people up that way think of third parties now. The K. N. party, with its Governor, 40 Senators, and hundreds of Representatives is surely the first party; the Whigs with their 6 Representatives are the second; and as for the third, the Democratic and Republican parties who have each one representative, must either form a coalition to be the third party, or else turn up a copper to see which shall be the third and which the fourth. The last is first, and the first is last; what were once the great parties are now the powerless factions.

The great democratic doctrine of popular sovereignty has been preached there with great effect, and a political revival occurred, which astonished the natives.

The Daily Advertiser ciphers the proportion of loss to the freesoilers, upon the governor vote at the late election, to be 77 per cent.; democratic loss 62 per cent.; whig loss 55 per cent.

WHAT IT IS LIKE.—Some friends out of doors have been asking Uncle Toby what he thought of the Massachusetts election. He says it seems like cornering a hog, as he saw it done some years ago. A decent sort of a farmer had a stout porker that broke down the hog-yard fence and made a grand foray in the orchard, where he feasted on apples and lived in clover for a brief period. The farmer, whip in hand, invaded the porker's paradise and drove the hog towards the sty, but the early beast declined to enter, and actually seemed to know nothing about the way to get back to his wallowing in the mire. The farmer, in this exigency, summoned his whole civil posse, consisting of an Irishman armed with a shovel, three boys and a dog. By this reinforcement the hog was got up into a corner, with his snout aiming at the breach in the sty, and there he stood, "like patience on a monument." Patrick was not quite so patient, but pushed the beast now and then with the shovel, by way of moral sansion. The porker only grunted and looked suorly. The farmer brought down the whip lash on the stubborn creature, and twined it about his legs with a stinging slash.

Ugh! Ugh! said the pig, as he came to the right about in a hurry, and happened to take the lash across Patrick's legs so as to trip him up, and overset the farmer with the same motion. When the latter picked himself up, he saw his dog upside down on the grass, and the pig going down the orchard at a 2.40 gait, followed by all three of the boys, yelling at the top of their voices.

Uncle Toby has too much regard for the Bay State to apply the story exactly in all its parts; and so leaves it for each reader who understands Massachusetts politics, to apply it for himself.

EARLY VOTING.—In regard to the election in Boston, the Advertiser says:

In the morning the same indications of perfect discipline in the Know Nothing organization were observed that have been seen in other places: while whig vote distributors and even ballots were scarce, the Know Nothings were early on hand. Indeed, we presume, the opening of the polls this year at an unusually early hour was a part of their tactics. They threw their vote in good season.

In this thing they did right. We would like to see the election laws and usages so arranged in New Hampshire, that the polls should be open from sunrise to sunset, in large towns,—but not one minute after sundown in any town, large or small. It would be fairer for all, and better for everybody except those who wish to smuggle and cheat.

IN DOORS AND OUT.

This is a neat volume of 330 pages, just published by Brown, Bazin & Co. Boston, and for sale by J. H. Foster, in this city.

The full title is—In Doors and Out; or Views from the Chimney Corner; by Oliver Optic.

The author is Mr. William F. Adams, who has written some of the best newspaper stories that have gone the rounds during the last five years. Some of these stories are reprinted in this book. One of them is, Getting an Endorser; another is the Two Daguerreotypes; a third, Cigars for Two,—and capital stories they are. Many others have not before been published. The whole form an attractive, interesting collection of tales, which will beguile the winter evenings of many a family circle.

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, for October, 1854, is just received from the publishers, Leonard Scott & Co., New York. Contents: Vestries and Church-rates; Memoirs of King Joseph; the Arab Tribes of the Great Desert; Railway Morals and Railway Policy; Burton's History of Scotland, 1689 to 1748; Macaulay's Speeches; Reform of the War Departments; the Management and Disposal of our Criminal Population.

THE WESTERN ELECTIONS.

ILLINOIS.—Illinois is represented in the present (old) Congress by four Whigs and five Democrats, who gave three votes for the Nebraska bill and five against it, (one member not voting.) The new delegation if they all vote, will give four votes in support of the bill, and five against it; Nebraska gain, one. The old delegation comprised four Whigs, and the new but three.

LEGISLATURE.—According to the Chicago Times, the Democrats have nine Senators holding over, and the chance of five others, making a majority of that body, not including Judd of Cook. In the House the Fusionists will have a large majority. A United States Senator is to be chosen by the Legislature in place of Gen. Shields, who voted for the Nebraska bill. The probability is that no choice will be effected.

The Chicago Tribune expresses a belief that of the 75 members of the House at least 50 will be anti-Nebraska, and adds "This will prevent the re-election of Gen. Shields or any other Nebraska man."

WISCONSIN.—The Fusionists have carried two of the three members of Congress. All of the old members voted against the Nebraska bill.

Legislature.—Including Senators who hold over, the new Senate, as far as heard from, stands, according to the Milwaukie News, 10 Democrats and 9 Fusionists. House, 14 Democrats, 18 Fusionists and 3 Independents. The election of a United States Senator in place of Henry Dodge, Democrat, who voted against the Nebraska bill, will devolve upon the Legislature. Whether they will be able to effect a choice or not remains to be seen.

MICHIGAN.—The Chicago Times asserts the election of George W. Peck, Nebraska Democrat, in the 4th district of Michigan. In the other three districts Fusionists are elected.

NEW YORK GOVERNOR ELECTION.—The Albany Argus of Wednesday figures up from official returns a majority of 338 for Seymour, and adds:—

"Which is to gain on the other, in the counties from which we have incomplete and unofficial returns, remains to be seen. The result, of course, is still in doubt. The majority cannot be enormous either way."

The Albany Evening Journal classifies the new New York Assembly thus: Whigs 82, Democrats of all shades 41, Independent 5.—A clear Whig majority of 36 over everything.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 15.—Delaware Election.—We have returns from a great portion of the State, which show a considerable majority for Cansey, the Know Nothing candidate for Governor, and Cullen, Know Nothing, for Congress. The indications are that the Know Nothings have made a clean sweep.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 16.—The full official votes of this State have been received, and give Cansey, the American candidate for Governor, 733 majority, and Cullen, American, for Congress, 504 majority.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 15.—Briston, whig, is elected to Congress in the second district of this State, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Presley Ewing.

NATIONAL KNOW NOTHING COUNCIL.—Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—It is reported here that a national Know Nothing Council is to meet in this city on Wednesday, the 15th inst., for the purpose of making arrangements for the presidential election. It is expected that a candidate will be selected from 3 prominent individuals, whose names will be presented to the Council. Houston of Texas, Broom of Penn. and Fillmore of New York are the three.—Clayton, it is said, is out of the question.—Twenty-eight states (even California) will be represented.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The run on the Exchange Bank in this city, continues to-day, but there were appearances of an abatement at the close of bank hours. The paper of the bank is redeemed promptly, but depositors are not allowed to remove their deposits, and bill-holders are paid in notes on the Trans-Alleghany Bank of Virginia, an institution said to belong to the same firm. Strong doubts are entertained concerning the ability of the bank to sustain itself under such a sudden pressure.

The soldiers of the war of 1812 held a meeting in this city to-day, to respond to a call for a national convention to be held here on the 8th of January next, and appointed a committee of 32 to make the necessary arrangements for that purpose. The object of the convention is to take measures to procure an increase of the pension rates.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 14.—Dr. Ackley, a special depositor of $8000 in the Canal Bank of this city, as State Commissioner, for the erection of an insane asylum at Newburg, attempted to get possession of the property of the bank by law, as assignee, but was refused the keys of the safe. Thereupon, the sheriff caused the safe will to be broken into. In the meanwhile a general depositor of $15,000 sued the bank and summoned the assignee to give him possession. The landlord of the building refused to accept the assignee as a sub-lessee, and the breaking in was temporarily suspended. It was afterwards resumed and proceeded with amidst the greatest excitement. What was got by the assignee has not yet transpired.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The failure of two firms in the dry goods dusiness is announced to day. The names have not transpired. It is said that the banking house of Auguste Belmont & Co. has commenced a chancery suit against the New Haven Railroad Company for $65,000 damages on stock which was hypothecated with their house. Several other suits are said to have been commenced.

The ship Conqueror, arrived at this port from Liverpool, lost 40 of her passengers by sickness on the passage.

We have dates from Bermuda to the 8th inst. The Bermudian states that the line-of-battle ship Boscawen, 74 guns, had sailed on the 4th for Greytown; and the editor says the British government is collecting a powerful fleet in the West Indian waters, under the belief that serious difficulties with the United States government may grow out of the destruction of Greytown.

LOCAL.

☞ The Board of Aldermen occupied their time last evening in approving bills; some were laid on the table for futurre examination, and a few on account of exhorbitant charges.

A LIGHT, a light, give us a light! cry out some of the people at the West End, who say they have been walking in darkness for a week, because some know nothings put out the street lamps, or else did not light them, they don't know exactly which.

Other west enders complain of the water-spouts of a neighboring church, which besprinkle all the outsiders who venture within the range of its copious droppings,—and they call loudly for conductors, to carry the water away from the heads of such luckless pedestrians as happen to be out and exposed to the peltings of the pitiless storm.

LECTURES.

On Sunday evening next, if fair weather, Rev. T. H. Miller will deliver his Lecture on the Life of Rev. Joshua Moodey, in the Congregational Church at Hampton, at half past six o'clock.

And on Monday evening, if fair, will deliver the same in the Congregational Church at North Hampton.

NEW POST OFFICE.—We are glad to learn that a new Post Office has been established at Kittery Point, Me. and Joseph Seaward, Esq. appointed Post Master. This office is greatly needed, and will be a great convenience to a large number of people who live in and near the village of Kittery Point, and to many of our own business men who have occasion to send letters or packages in that direction. Mr. Seaward is a prompt, accurate, and reliable man, and will make a good Post Master.

Mr. Amee, of the Kittery Stage line, is the contractor to carry the mail on this new route.

DIVIDEND.—The Bartlett Mills, Newburyport, have declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent., payable 28th inst.

TUFTS COLLEGE.—Rev. Otis A. Skinner makes the following announcement in the Christian Freeman:

The following gentlemen are to constitute the faculty of Tufts College for the first year:

Rev. Hosea Ballou, 2d, D. D., President, Professor of History, Ancient and Modern Geography, Natural and Revealed Religion.

William P. Drew, B. A., Professor of the Greek and Latin Languages.

John P. Marshall, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and the Natural Sciences.

Benj. F. Tweed, A. M., Professor of Rhetoric, Logic and Elocution.

Enoch C. Rolfe, M. D., Professor of Hygiene and Physiology.

A horricle Massacre of a train of emigrants by Indians took place on the 19th of August, about ninety-five miles from Forte Boise, Oregon. Sixteen bodies were found and buried, and three children were carried off by the Indians. Three men of another train were also shot. The tribe is stated to be the "Snakes," and they have the idea that the Americans are afraid of them. The Hudson's Bay authorities continue to sell the Indians ammunition, in spite of the urgent remonstrances of the inhabitants. The sale, they say, constitutes a part of their regular business, and they refuse to relinquish it without orders from the governor.

An empty bottle, discovered in the pocket of a man named Lander, fully explained to his friends who had missed him for a week, how he came to be dead at the foot of a precipice between Hinesburgh and Burlington, Vt. His horse and wagon were found a mile from the former place, and he leaves a wife and six children.

Mr. A. S. Brownell, a worthy citizen of Williston, Vt., while at work in a sawmill on Saturday, was struck by a splinter of a board or log which flew in some way while passing under the saw, and entered his body in such a manner as to cause his death.

Zion's Herald publishes a letter from Rev. George Fletcher, dated at Poplar, near London, in which the venerable man states that he is in the 108th year of his life. He adds that he is still able to preach, and is invited to do so by different denominations from all parts of England.

It was thought to be a "curious coincidence," or something else, that the first vessel which entered at the custom house, on Tuesday morning, was the schooner Democrat, Jackson, master, from Bonaire, with a cargo of salt.—Boston Post.

The Cleveland Herald says the buildings in that city which last year rented for $200, this fall go begging for $150. The Zanesville Courier notices the same result in that city.

MR. POST—You appear to think the Whigs have got a thrashing, but do not seem to realize the Democrats are just as badly beaten.

WHIG.

Yes, we do, but had rather talk about your defeat than ours.—Boston Post.

Important Notice.

TO TRADERS AND ARTISANS.

The first Number of

THE AMERICAN BALLOT

WILL be issued on TUESDAY NEXT, Nov. 21. A large number will be printed for promiscuous circulation, which fact, aside from the consideration of the interest with which a new publication is regarded, will commend it as a very favorable medium for advertising.

All advetisements, to secure insertion should be sent in by Saturday morning.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

New York, Nov. 16.—Steamship Asia, from Liverpool 4th inst., arrived this morning.

Thirty thousand Russians had attacked and taken possession of the forts at Balaclava.—A great battle ensued, the allies remaining masters of the field.

The siege of Sebastopol was progressing favorably.

Cotton steady, with an advance of 1-16d on some qualities. Sales of the week 47,000 bales.

Flour declined on the week 1s; wheat 2 a 3d., and corn 1s.

The news by the Asia from the seat of war leaves matters in great obscurity. The Russian despatches say that the Allies suffered two severe defeats, namely: that the French had their words destroyed and sixteen guns spiked, and the English cavalry were routed, with a loss of 500 horses and many men, having been attacked by Menschikoff at Balaclava. The Anglo-French reports do not give any explicit denial, merely declaring the Russian reports exaggerated and improbable.

The Allies state that two Russian ships-of-war were destroyed in the harbor, and that the Quarantine Fort had been silenced, and a bastion of Fort Constantine blown up by the explosion of a magazine.

It is, at least, evident that very sharp fighting took place.

LATEST.—Saturday morning—the accounts are still conflicting, but the English say that the siege was progressing favorably for them up to the 27th.

A despatch from Lord Radcliff, British Minister at Constantinople, confirms the report that the Russians had attacked the forts at Balaclava, whereupon a great battle ensued in which the Russians were defeated and the allies remained master of the field.

Other forces arrived, and the Russians were obliged to yield. The Russians remained, nevertheless, in possession of two forts, from which they fired upon the allies. Three regiments of English cavalry, exposed to the cross fire of the Russian batteries, suffered severely.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Mr. Hamilton Bowie, late City Treasurer, had just been arrested, charged with having fraudulently taken away the books, papers and money belonging to the treasury, and in particular the sum of $830,000 in city warrants, which remained unaccounted for by him. The defence was that the newly elected City Treasurer had not complied with the requisites of the law; hence the withholding. The case had not been decided.

Ex-President Walker of Sonora, who has been on trial at San Francisco, has been declared not guilty of filibustering. In the trial, as compulsory process could not be issued against Mr. Dillon, the French Consul, he was formally invited to attend as a witness, but he declined doing so.

Considerable excitement still existed in regard to the Meigs frauds, and the apprehension of Smith Clark, the late Mayor and Clerk, who was charged with having unlawfully detained in his hands sums, amounting to upwards of $300,000. The latter was in custody, and examinations had taken place without any satisfactory explanation as to much of the missing funds. Additional forgeries by Meigs had been discovered. Further inquiries have much reduced the amount of actual cash taken away by Meigs. It probably did not exceed $50,000.

As usual, there are numerous accounts of murders, outrages, &c., the most brutal of which occurred near Monterey, where four Americans and three Mexicans, after having plundered and burned the house of a colored man, murdered his father, wife and child, and a Frenchman who lived with the family.

At a Court of Probate holden at Biddeford, within and for the County of York, on the first Monday of November, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fifty-four, by the Honorable Joseph T. Nye, Judge of said Court:

ON the petition of Mark Dennett, Administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Benjamin Fernald, late of Kittery in said county, deceased, representing that the personal estate of said deceased is not sufficient to pay the just debts which he owed at the time of his death, by the sum of five hundred and twenty dollars; and praying for a license to sell and convey the whole of the real estate of said deceased, at public auction or private sale, because by a partial sale the residue would be greatly injured:

Ordered, that the petitioner give notice thereof to the heirs of said deceased and to all persons interested in said estate, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Chronicle, printed in Portsmouth in the State of New Hampshire, 3 weeks successively, that they may appear at a Probate Court to be holden at Saco in said county, on the first Monday in December next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and shew cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S GERMAN HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undertake a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their labor, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to large rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the waters, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health. Medicinal properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

Piles, Costiveness, and

WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,

SUCH AS

Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutic Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,

Paralytic and Nervous Affections,

CANKER,

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,

PILES,

PIMPLES ON THE FACE,

Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,

AND ALL

RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,

COUGHS,

SORE THROAT,

AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE

THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE FREELY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, Ulcerous Swellings, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the diseases of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. University. Dr. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid. Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Madrid. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, executed (if a genuine Tuthe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient for any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, opp. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case the Patent is not obtained, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and the rejected legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay and fees, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OR Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S URINARY CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the production of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

GIVING THANKS.—The London Herald, speaking of dear breadstuffs, says;

"What!" exclaimed a poor woman, "a thanksgiving for the good harvest, and bread at nincpence a loaf!—I don't understand it." The text is; it was the pious gladness of the people that made bread dear. The causes assigned for the advance of 20s a quarter in a few weeks on wheat, afford an explanation not intended. It is shown by the returns in the Gazette, that the total importation of wheat in the year ending Oct. 10, was 4,342,022 qrs. and of flour 4,355,292 cwt., against 4,847,369 qrs. and 4,494,104 cwt. imported in 1853, ending at the same period; showing a reduction in the year ending Oct. 10, 1854, of 505,347 qrs. of wheat, and of 138,811 cwts. of flour, as compared to 1853. Up to August the import of breadstuffs was in excess of the former year in wheat of 25,534 qrs. and in flour of 399,685 cwts.; but the arrivals ceased, and the comparison of two months shows an alarming deficiency.

Producers and dealers and importers have an interest antagonistic to the country; and these undoubtedly favor alarming reports, unconsciously, the wish being ever father to the thought. They are not to blame, and over present prices they have no control. These prices, however ought not, cannot endure.

AN AMERICAN TRADER FOR JAPAN.—The bark Edward Koppisch, Capt. Eggleston, cleared at the Salem custom house, Wednesday, for a voyage to Japan and ports in the Pacific Ocean. Capt. Eggleston, the owner and commander, who makes the first clearance from any port in the United States direct for Japan, for commercial purposes, likewise sailed the first vessel from Salem for California, which was previous to the gold discovery.

In early time and to the present, it has been peculiar to Salem to trade where nobody else traded; to seek new and distant peoples, and to carry out a commerce of her own. Salem has commenced the trade with more different people in Asia, Africa, South America, and the Islands of the seas, than all other American ports put together. Once Salem held all the trade of the Indies, and fortunes of millions of dollars—such as are not now known out of the great cities—were amassed therefrom. The first American ship around the Cape of Good Hope, was from Salem—the first to trade at Hindostan, Java, Sumatra, China, and through the Dutch with Japan, as with many other Asiatics, were from Salem. The first at Madagascar, at Zanzibar where they retain almost the total gum and ivory trade to this day—and at other ports in East Africa, were from Salem. She was among the first, if not the very first, for ordinary commercial pursuits, on the west shores of Africa; and there she is the first now. She was the first at the mouths of the great South American rivers, at Matiridcd, at Para (where she retained the control for a long time, and yet leads in the Rubber trade) and other ports in South America. She opened trade with the Fegee Islands and has ships there now—she sent the first American goods to traffic in New Holland—she has her trade to-day with New Zealand, and Salem men, if not vessels, were among the first from this quarter on the north west coast; and now the first ship for commercial pursuits sails from her quiet waters to Japan.—Newburyport Herald.

THE PEVERELLY ARSON CASE.—The trial of Charles A. Peverelly, for attempted arson upon the premises he occupied as a place of storage in Front street, New York, in July last, was on Monday brought to a close.—Judge Beebe, in his charge to the jury, explained the law fully in relation to the attempted arson, &c., and after a deliberation of an hour and a half, they rendered a verdict of guilty. The prisoner was remanded for sentence. Theodore L. Peverelly, a brother of the above, was put on trial yesterday on a charge of being an accomplice in this attempt. Theodore is a boy about fifteen years of age.

☞ Several of our cotemporaries are by trial proving the superiority of baked apple dumplings over boiled.

FUNERAL OF MRS HAMILTON.—The venerable widow of Alexander Hamilton, of revolutionary memory, was buried at New York on Saturday. The burial service was read in Trinity church, by the Rev. Dr. Berrian, and the Rev. Dr. Hawks. The coffin was deposited in the ante-room two hours before the funeral services commenced, and was visited by a number of persons who desired to take a farewell glance at the features of the deceased. The plate on the coffin bore the simple inscription "Elizabeth Hamilton. Born 9th August, 1757. Died 9th November, 1854." The body of Mrs. Hamilton was interred in Trinity churchyard, beside the remains of her husband, whom she had faithfully mourned for half a century.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH BERWICK.

SOUTH BERWICK, ME., Nov. 13.

Messrs. Editors:—The usual calm of this quiet village has been for a little time disturbed by the excitement which the recent discovery of an atrocious murder, and the subsequent examination of the supposed murderer, naturally have made. There is nothing in the circumstances of this deed of darkness that should cast any shadow upon the village of South Berwick propor, whatever may be said, or whatever blame may rest upon the consciences of those in the vicinity who sold these men the liquid with which their brains were fired. Indeed both Smith and Brewster were strangers in this place, and this fact rendered it far more difficult to get at any thing that should identify the body of the deceased, and lead to the detection of the murderer.

Much credit is due to the citizens of this village for the persevering scrutiny with which they have brought together a chain of circumstances, which has led to the identification of the victim, and to the apprehension of the supposed criminal. I will not prejudge his case, but hope that if he shall be clearly proved guilty of this, the coolest murder that has come to light since the Parkman case, he will be dealt with accordingly.

The recent copious rains have once more filled the streams and set the machinery of Salmon Falls and the other manufactories in motion with the usual force. Without this seasonable supply from kind Heaven, the mills' heart must soon have ceased to beat, for want of life-blood.

The citizens of this place are looking forward to the time (within a month) when they shall have direct communication with Portsmouth and the seaboard by Railroad, several times each day. The iron has been laid on the largest part of the road for some weeks, and the cars would now be running, but for some delay in getting up the balance of the rails.

When South Berwick shall have become so connected directly with the seaboard, there will be no obstacle to Portsmouth's affording a depot which shall supply the whole surrounding country with corn, flour, salt, iron, fish and West India Goods generally. It is confidently expected that the citizens of your city will maintain the same liberal principles in trade which we have always found them to possess, and that the business between the two places will be greatly increased. Let them prepare their stocks of goods, with a view to the demand that will soon open upon them.

SALEM BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Messrs. Editors.—Permit me to request you to republish the following paragraph, which I clip from your paper of the 14th inst., and to append the accompanying note:

The Salem Baptist Association, at its late meeting, with one or two dissenting voices, passed the following vote. The Christian Witness (Episcopal) says: "we do not copy this resolution of our Baptist brethren to condemn, but rather to commend it as a perfectly consistent act."

Resoloed, That it is inconsistent for Baptists to recognize Pedobaptist preachers as gospel ministers (denying as we do the legality of their official acts) by inviting them to occupy our pulpits, or preaching with them.

Now I am prepared to say confidently that there is not the shadow of truth in the above statement. Having been a pastor in the Salem Association for more than ten years, I have an intimate acquaintance with nearly every pastor in that body, and I know that they all recognize "Pedobaptist preachers as gospel ministers," and cheerfully exchange pulpits with them whenever opportunity offers. Nor do I know of a single Baptist clergyman in this or any other section of the country whose views and practice do not correspond with theirs in this respect.

But if farther proof were needed, I have the Minutes of the Salem Baptist Association, containing a record of all their doings and resolutions, and have carefully looked them through without finding this or any other similar resolution. From what source the paragraph originated I do not know—but I sincerely hope that all who have read it as it was originally published, will read it with this disclaimer. Yours Respectfully,

WILLIAM LAMSON.

K. N.—The party to which these letters are applied have been wrongly named Know Nothings. By the result of the election in Massachusetts and elsewhere, they have demonstrated that K. N. means Knowing Natives; also that they have made Korrect Nominations.

HARTFORD, Nov. 16.—Rev. John Brady, for many years pastor of the Roman Catholic Church in this city, died this evening of cholera, after an illness of about 24 hours.

BOON ISLAND IN A STORM.

The following letter, vividly descriptive of Boon Island, and of the great storm of 1851, as experienced there, is loaned to us for publication by the gentleman who received it. The letter, with the memoranda at the close, may serve to give the mere landsman some idea of the number of vessels constantly in motion, the dangers of the sea, and the great utility of light houses with faithful keepers.

YORK, ME., 1854.

Reverend and Dear Sir:—When last in York, you made some inquiry relative to my late sea-girt home, Boon Island. Thinking it may serve to amuse you, I will attempt a graphic description.

Boon Island lies east, about half south from York harbor, about ten miles distant; it is a small speck on the bosom of the ocean—a sterile rock without any soil, of an area of eleven acres at low water,—at full sea perhaps one acre, but frequently not enough for the sole of the foot of Noah's dove to rest on. There are many very dangerous rocks near it, which are a dread to mariners. The island affords but little to interest the community at large, but to the contemplative mind, much. Here you may daily see the gambols of the finny tribe, from the little minnow of an inch long, to the huge leviathan, probably a lineal descendant from that which swallowed up the refractory missionary sent to Nineveh. Birds, too, of the most exquisite plumage, such as I never saw elsewhere, come there to die or to feed the hungry hawk—they never leave the island. And here, too, you daily behold the wonders of the mighty deep. Now all is smooth and calm as the gentle summer zephyrs, and now all is rage and tumult,—the seas, apparently contending with the skies, lashing this rock with resistless fury, causing it to tremble to its very centre.

During the never to be forgotten storm of the 16th and 17th of April, 1851, of Minot's Ledge notoriety, Boon Island was visited with its share of the most dreadful tempest I ever witnessed, on land or at sea. During thirty hours the sea made a fair breach quite over the island, leaving desolation and ruin in its track. Here follow extracts from my daily journal: Wednesday, 16th—At daylight a heavy storm from N. E., with a tremendous sea; found boat skids gone, and the boat—which was lashed to the boat slip—smashed in pieces. At 9 A. M., on the flood tide, the sea ran quite over the island, drove the wall leading to the old lighthouse from its foundation, smashed the shingles from the old monument house, and ripped up the plank platform in front of the buildings; at 12, noon, a sea struck the eastern end of the dwelling house and took from it every board,* which went to sea. After a fearful night, we found, on the morning of the 17th, we had sustained much damage; huge rocks were removed from their long slumbering beds;—the dreadful gale continued during the day, and until midnight when it seemed to moderate. On the morning of the 18th we found every thing in ruins, and the whole island a perfect chaos.

Now, my dear sir, I have attempted and given a faint description of one of the most fearful storms I ever witnessed; and you will probably ask, Were you not afraid? No, sir, for He who is always in the whirlwind and storm was there, and all was safe. I am not skilled in description, but have the hope that, feeble as it is, it will interest you.

With great and very respectful regard,
I remain, yours truly,
JOHN S. THOMPSON.

REV. J. FRENCH, D. D.

*The dwelling house is of stone; the boarding was to prevent the sea from washing out the cement.

Memoranda of vessels which passed near Boon Island during the quarter ending Dec. 31st, 1352, between sunrise and sunset of each day—fishing vessels not included—viz.:—Steamers 38, ships 22, barks 63, brigs 217, schooners 2488, sloops 31, U. S. cutters 6: total 2,865. To these may be added at least as many more which pass during the long nights.

Boon Island lies directly in the track of the great coasting trade from Halifax and Nova Scotia to Boston and New York; consequently showing the necessity of a light of the first magnitude, which is now about to be placed there.

FRANCE AND SOULE.—The Evening Post thinks Mr. Soule's expulsion from France a personal and not an official matter. The Tribune thinks the reverse, and is for pitching into Louis Napoleon. It says:

It any of our citizens have been abused, let their cases be duly attended to; but here our Government is the sufferer, and is humiliated in the eyes of all Europe. May it prove itself equal to the emergency.

The Boston Post thinks there is no cause for war, but that "something must be done."

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Several of our papers this morning, viz. the Courier, Times and Herald, announce that the Soule affair has been settled, the Emperor Louis Napoleon having rescinded his order prohibiting Mr. Soule's passage through France, and invited him, in fact, to proceed through the Empire for Spain; and that Mr. Soule would consequently leave London on the 4th for Madrid.

LOCAL.

MUSICAL.

AN EXAMPLE WORTH IMITATING.—The singers of Huron county, Ohio, are about to effect a musical organization on a plan that we should like to see adopted all over the country. Each village of any importance is to form a local musical association, embracing all who can read plain church music at sight. Some of the towns have already effected such an organization, and others are about to follow suit. These local associations are to be combined in a County Musical Association, which is to hold one or two Festivals each year, the programmes for these occasions being studied previously in each local association, thus paying the way for grand choral results.—Musical Review.

A MUSICAL CONVENTION is to be held in Portsmouth, during four days of the first week in January, 1855, under the direction of Prof. B. F. Baker of Boston. All singers are to be invited from this and the neighboring towns; and it is designed to form a Rockingham Musical Association, with a basis similar to that mentioned above.

Arrangements are being made for an Old Folks' Concert in this city, in December, similar to those which have been so well received in all parts of New England. A large chorus of singers, with full orchestra, will be gathered from this and the neighboring towns.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

One of the most inviting and eligible residences in this city, is to be sold this morning at 11 o'clock, by Henry F. Wendell, auctioneer. It was the mansion of the late Doctor Kittredge, and is to be sold by order of his executor. The sale offers a rare opportunity for some man of good taste and adequate property, to secure a pleasant and central location, with an excellent house.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—There is to be a Convention at Dover on the first Monday in December, composed of delegates from the Democratic Party in Congressional Dist. No. 1, now represented by Hon. George W. Kittredge.

☞ Rev. Mr. Carpenter, of Portland, will preach in the Temple to-morrow.

FIRE AT NEWBURYPORT.—The barn of Mr. Richard S. Bray, at Newbury, Oldtown, was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning, with 6 cows, 4 oxen, about 25 tons of hay, 2 sleighs, 2 ploughs, and all the farming tools. The fire was first discovered about 1-4 before 3 o'clock, when the flames were bursting through the building. Mr. Bray succeeded in getting out both his horses, though they were badly burned, but the cows and oxen were dead when he entered the barn. Loss not far from $1000; $75 insurance on the building.—Herald.

ELECTION INCIDENTS.—An Anxious Inquirer.—One of our young friends, who is a regular straight-out Democrat, has called at our office for information how to proceed in a difficult case. The facts are as follows. He reports that he was one out of 253 Democrats in the town of his residence who voted for President Pierce two years ago. Now he is one of two citizens in the same place who voted the straight-out democratic ticket on Monday last. He wishes to find out the other half of his party, for he says if the individual is a poor man he shall have a good turkey for his Thanksgiving dinner, and unless he belongs to a very, very strict "totol abstinence society" he shall also have on the above named festival a bottle of the Mayor's best, of the "G. 1840" brand.—Boston Post.

The Plymouth Rock says:—Among the most amusing incident connected with the election in this town was the fact that the leading and most influential Roman Catholics voted the Native American, Anti-Catholic Know Nothing Ticket. How extensively action of that kind prevailed we have no means of judging. Some of the "Old Line Democrats," who have opposed coalition, opposed the Democratic party, and opposed the administration of President Pierce, voted the straight Whig ticket.

ALDERMEN IN BOSTON BY GENERAL TICKET.—It has been ascertained that there was an error in the vote returned from Ward 11 on the second proposition of the revised city charter, and that the proper correction fixes the mode of electing the twelve Aldermen in future, to be by general ticket instead of by each ward, as first reported. We believe that before many years this decision will be reversed and the Aldermen of Boston as in nearly all the other cities of the State, will be elected by the wards.—Boston Trans.

LAWRENCE'S

CHERRY PECTORAL.

W. F. LAWRENCE: DEAR SIR,—

It gives me pleasure to state that your CHERRY PECTORAL has given utmost satisfaction wherever it has been used. Some of the most distinguished physicians of the state, are in the habit of purchasing it in bulk, and profess themselves highly gratified with its remedial effects. I can recommend it with confidence as a very superior medicine, and have no doubt that it will earn for itself an enviable reputation. E. H. ROLLINS.

CONCORD, Sept. 20, 1854.

Mr. Rollins is one of the most extensive dealers in drugs and medicines in New England. As the Cherry Pectoral was first introduced in Concord, we subjoin the certificate of John F. Brown, formerly bookseller and publisher, and now city clerk of Concord, N. H., our former agent:

This certifies that I have been an agent for the sale of the medicine, now extensively known as Lawrence's Cherry Pectoral; that so far as I know it has given good satisfaction; that I have repeatedly sold it to physicians in quantity; that I am acquainted with the manufacturer of the Pectoral; that he is a physician of good repute, and that I believe him qualified to conduct the complex operations necessary for the manufacture of this medicine. JOHN F. BROWN.

CONCORD, N. H. April 6, 1854.

The above are but few of the many testimonials in favor of Lawrence's Cherry Pectoral. It is used under the sanction and approbated at Dartmouth College by Prof. Dixi Crosby, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty of the N. E. states. It is

U. S. STEAMSHIP MASSACHUSETTS.—New York, 16th.—A letter from Rio Janeiro dated Sept. 24, says that the U. S. steamship Massachusetts, which sailed on Thursday morning last from this port, having in tow the U. S. sloop-of-war Decatur, both bound to the Pacific, encountered a storm on Friday about 2 o'clock, in which the Massachusetts was dismasted, the main and mizen masts having gone close o the decks. No lives were lost, although several narrowly escaped.

The Decatur was in sight when the storm commenced, and in the same position to the storm as the steamer was, and was not afterwards seen. The steamer fired three guns, but had no answer from the Decatur, and fears are entertained that she has met with some accident. The steamer arrived this morning at 8 o'clock, in quite a leaky condition, reported 15 inches per hour.

NEW YORK, NOV. 16.—The Tribune of this evening foots up a majority of 30 for Clark over Seymour, making the official vote for Cattaraugus County 814 maj. for Clark.—The other evening papers still keep Seymour ahead, the Commercial Advertiser making his majority 652. Using the Tribune's figures this morning, as a basis, we make a majority of 602. We have no doubt of Clark's election.

A despatch dated the 17th says, The papers of this morning mostly show a majority for Clark. The Herald makes him as many as 655 ahead, and considers that he is undoubtedly the Governor elect. The Journal of Commerce and the Enquirer both show small majorities for Seymour still.

VERMONT ITEMS.—Two burglaries were committed in Rutland on Sunday night week, $3000 in certificates of deposit in the Bank of Rutland, notes and other papers, and about $1 in cash being stolen in one case from a tin shop, and in the other from $600 to $800 in gold from a house occupied by some Irishmen.

The Burlington Free Press states that the house of William C. Griswold of Orwell was burnt on Monday night, and Abigail Moon, an estimable young woman, twenty-five or thirty years of age, perished in the flames.—Also that a Frenchman, named Louder, while intoxicated last week, drove his horse to the edge of a precipice, when the latter, the most sensible of the two, stopped, and Louder, as it is supposed, got out to back the animal, and, staggering over the precipice, was instantly dashed to death upon the rocks, forty feet below.

HORRIBLE CASE OF STARVATION.—Last evening the police were called into a dwelling house No. 145 Atkinson street, to quell a disturbance, and upon going into a garret a horrible spectacle was presented; on the floor, upon a lot of filthy shavings and straw, lay a woman in a state of beastly intoxication, while huddled about her were her children, three boys and two girls, in a state of actual starvation. The oldest child was but eight years, while the youngest was but eighteen months. These little children were almost naked, and so emaciated that they could not stand or scarcely lift a finger; their bones almost protruded through the skin, and their appearance indicated that they had undergone all the horrors of protracted and extreme suffering—There was not a particle of food in the loathsome apartment, and not a spark of fire to protect the infant sufferers from the cold. The woman had evidently lain intoxicated for several days, during which time her children had been without food, and it is no wonder that they presented so ghastly an appearance. The youngest cannot recover from the effects of the long suffering. The name of the woman is Ann Troy. Her husband is now serving out a term of imprisonment in the House of Correction, to which place he was sentenced for larceny. The children were at once placed where they will receive all needful attention. The woman was lodged in the station house. Such cases of deplorable destitution in our city are very rare.—Boston Chronicle, 10th.

THE NEW ERA.—The New York Tribune, in summing up the lives saved and lost from this shipwreck, says:

The names show 122 passengers and 24 of the ship's company saved. But we were informed that 143 passengers and 28 of the ship's crew were safely landed. This would give a total of 171 persons saved, and 255 deaths. Deducting from these about 40 deaths from cholera on the voyage, and we find that 215 persons were lost by shipwreck on Deal Beach.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative powers in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have defied the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health. The medicinal properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutice Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully AS AN ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, representing a Temple, which has cost the work, comprising nine different dies, which have been used for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Linimeut, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. wich stand, New York.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on application, (prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, and the services of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen, at their present price, obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1854.

BISHOP HOPKINS.

This gentleman, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Vermont, has just delivered, in Philadelphia, a lecture on Naturalization, which act or service, on the part of the Courts, he thinks, should be administered with great care, solemnity and caution.

One of the best foreigners and best men we ever had in this place, and a most intelligent politician and moralist, used to say foreigners never ought to vote here, except those only who helped achieve the revolution. But that when the Constitution was formed, no man of foreign birth should afterward be admitted to vote: their sons, born here, might do so.

We have sometimes thought it might be prudent to repeal or suspend for a season, all the Naturalization laws. We have many good citizens of foreign birth now; and most of these are not office seekers. We have also quite enough who are not very good. Suppose we shut the gates a while, and see how we get on. If we don't like it we can open them again.

Bishop Hopkins does not exactly agree with either of these views. But he says, (as reported by a writer in the Boston Transcript):—

The native is born amid influences favorable to the institutions of the republic; he early learns to read; the newspaper is familiar to him, and he may be supposed to have become acquainted with the main scope of the various political questions of the times, and the entire training he receives is favorable to the system of our government. But how much of all this can be taken for granted in the case of crowds of foreigners, who land upon our shores? and what can a few years of mere residence do towards accomplishing in them the fitness for citizenship? We have among us over a million who were born amid the most abject circumstances; who have taken everything from those they blindly follow; and who are the subjects of a priesthood which requires complete subjection. Here is a force not contemplated by the genius of the Constitution as taking part in the administration of the nation's affairs; and hence here is a justification for one feature of the Know-Nothing organization—opposition to the Roman faith. The lecturer confessed that the greatest evils to be apprehended were from the influence of the Roman faith; but the true position of political action is not opposition to the Roman faith, but a demand for the true intent, and just administration of the naturalization laws.

Yet the Know Nothings have a right to make their appeal against the peculiar position assumed by the Roman priesthood towards the political action of the people. No class in this country save the subjects of this priesthood, pay deference to their spiritual teachers in political matters; and in any other portion of the church universal the pastors would lose their influence as spiritual teachers by attempting such interference in political action. What are these priests who stand apart from all other spiritual teachers in the land? They are the sworn subjects of a foreign power; and the practical influence of these Bishops and Priests is well known—how statesmen have felt it, and how they have courted it is well understood. No objection is made to these priests for possessing this power, but the grand objection is to the system they serve—its practical influence against the genius of our political institutions. It is not a question with us whether there was any fitness in this system when it was first organized—whether it did good in the Dark Ages, or was suited to the condition of Europe nine hundred years ago; but whether it is suited to our age, our country, our institutions?

As for himself, the lecturer confessed that he did not believe two such systems as Universal Suffrage and Romanism could stand together.

CATHOLIC PRIESTS OVER THE LAW AND ABOVE THE LAW.—The California Christian Advocate reports the case of a man committed for trial for bigamy, in San Francisco. His legal marriage in England in 1848, was proved; but the Roman priest declared it null and void, on the ground "that his pretended wife was not baptized, nor dispensation given in order to contract legally before the church," and that the parties "were not married by any magistrate lawfully authorized"—that is, by a Catholic priest. The man, who had married again on the priest's authority, was committed for trial,—the priest's certificate of course being no justification in the eye of the law. So the dupe is punished, and he who led him astray is probably not amenable to the law, and escapes scot free. So far as punishment is concerned, the priest certainly deserves the larger share.

☞ Respecting the course of the American party, in throwing aside party hacks of all shades, in their nominations, the Newburyport Herald truly says—

The Americans do well in taking new men—men from their own ranks, that have not been schooled in the corruption of other parties, and do not recognize the supreme authority of the old cliques. The people are to rule, and they will rule through themselves; and it is one of the best features of the movement that the leaders are not old, and without the endorsement of the Exchange or Harvard diplomas, are determined to do their own work in their own way, and trust the result to the general intelligence of the community.

Election fell on one of the wettest days of the season.—North Bridgewater Gazette.

Yes, and it was the wettest blanket that ever fell on the shoulders of a once powerful party.—Boston Post.

HARTFORD, Nov. 18.—Robbery of Windham Bank.—The Windham Bank at Windham, was robbed of $22,000, of which $7000 was in specie and the balance in the bills of the bank. The robbery was effected by three men, who entered the bank early in the evening, poisoned the dog, and when the clerk, who sleeps there, entered about 9 o'clock, he was gagged, and one of the robbers stood over him with a revolver, while the others forced the safe and secured the booty.

Excitement in Hartford.—This city has this morning been the theatre of the most intense excitement, growing out of the refusal of the Roman Catholic Bishop to allow the remains of Father Brady to be buried near the church. In consequence of some difficulty, the Bishop had suspended Brady, and the treatment which the latter had received is believed to have induced the disease of which he died.

The people, siding with their former pastor, determined that he should be buried near the church, as he had requested, and yesterday afternoon dug a large place for the purpose of building a receptacle for the coffin. This morning the hole was found to have been filled up by order of the Bishop, but the people, despite the efforts of the Bishop and Priests, succeeded in again opening the hole.

The bishop then refused to open the church, but after an hour's delay the people again succeeded, when it was found that the altar had been so fixed that the mass could not be celebrated. But the people again triumphed, and a priest from a neighboring town, a friend of the late Father Brady, is now saying mass.

FORWARDING CASE.—Enos S. Preston, of Connecticut, sued Adams & Co. for the value of a bag of 200 five franc pieces, which was deposited in their office at New York as a common package, and a receipt given therefor, by which they were not accountable for more than fifty dollars. The case went to the Windham Co. Court, when the judge ruled that the jury might bring in a verdict for the whole amount lost, if they found for the plaintiff, and, in consequence, Adams & Co. were mulcted $200. They appealed, and Judge Ellsworth, of the Supreme Court, ruled that a common carrier could limit his responsibility by assent of his employer—that the plaintiff could only recover on the written contract, as made. The verdict was set aside.—Boston Courier.

Such a verdict ought to be set aside. If I send a bundle by an expressman, as a common package of merchandize, and at a common price, he is bound to take common care of it; and if he loses it he must pay. If tell him it contains money, and pay him the price for carrying money, it then becomes his duty to take proper care of it as money; and if he loses it he is holden for the whole. But if I send a package of money, or containing money, and give no notice of the fact, but let it pass as merchandize, and it gets lost or stolen, I ought to lose the whole, because I have exposed it to needless risk under false pretences.

RELIEF FOR THE POOR.—Rev. Dr. Dimmick, of Newburyport, says, in a late address:

Of the 1290 poor, supported in whole or in part, by this city the last year, only 520 had a legal settlement in the State; 682 being foreigners, and 68 belonging to other towns in the Commonwealth; thus leaving but 452 who have a legal claim for assistance in this city. The total cost of supporting these several classes of poor, is about $10,000. But for the expenses of the 68 State paupers, the city was reimbursed in the sum of $616.90, and the value of certain labor performed by others on the streets, &c. is valued at $500, leaving the actual cost for the support of the poor to the tax-payers of this city, at between $8000 and $9000 per annum.

The question naturally arises, what produces this amount of pauperism in a place where there seems no natural necessity for its existence? The reply is given in the fact that out of the number assisted by the town 860 were reduced to poverty by the intemperance of themselves or some member of the family; so that if by any possibility this prolific stream of pauperism could be dried up, we should have but 430 paupers, instead of 1290 to support. A consideration for those on whom the burden of taxes fall, which we should suppose would render them more interested in the prevention of this costly pauperism, than the majority appear to be.

But when it is said that 1290 persons are on the pauper list of this city, it is not to be inferred that all of these are supported by the authorities. If a family of six or eight persons receive 50 cents' aid from the city per year, they would all be enumerated on the poor list. Many of those classed as paupers, have really received but a small amount of aid; perhaps a cord or half a cord of wood, or some temporary relief during sickness or other casualty. Thus it will be seen that the real amount as compared with the figures, is small, and might be indefinitely reduced, could the single vice of intemperance be extirpated from the ranks of the poor.

REJOICE WITH THAT WOMAN.—A Saco correspondent of the Maine Law Advocate communicates the following:

An intelligent looking lady went into one of our dry goods stores some few days since, and selected a very pretty dress. After having the dress and some other articles put up, and paying for the same, she said to the merchant, "Mr. ———, this is the first nice dress that I have been able to get, since soon after I was married, in consequence of the intemperance of my husband. I have had to purchase the cheapest calico dresses I could find. Last Saturday I went to the grocers and purchased a barrel of flour, and paid $12 in cash, and sent it home. We have not had a barrel of flour before, since we kept house," &c.—Many other things she related, as to the beneficial results of the Maine Law, and seemed to be lost for words of thankfulness to those who had labored hard for the law, and that too with tears in her eyes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Pierce is busily at work on his Message. It is understood that he will invite Congress to legislate for the better preservation of life at sea.

LOCAL.

☞ At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening last, the following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the City Clerk be directed to notify the Chairmen of the different School Committees, and also the Teachers of the several Schools, that hereafter no bills of their contracting for furniture or repairs of School Houses, will be approved by the Board of Aldermen, unless such bills are contracted by or with the consent of the Committee on School Houses from the Board of Aldermen.

We hope the committee on school houses will attend to notifications on such subjects more promptly than they have on some occasions.

A school committee know the present, pressing, perhaps petty wants of a school; and they represent the case to some high functionary; but as large bodies move slowly, he forgets or neglects it, for some days or weeks; the school suffers inconvenience meanwhile, or perhaps is closed, because the committee have no legal power—and because the proper Aldermen may be very busy or careless.

We think it likely this is legal; and if we happen to have a good accommodating board of Aldermen it may not be inconvenient; but if it should happen otherwise, the school machinery will go hard, like an engine without oil.

REAL ESTATE.—On Saturday the mansion house and land of the late Dr. Kittredge, on Middle street in this city, was sold at public auction by Henry F. Wendell, Esq., for $6000. Mrs. Kittredge was the purchaser.

SMALL POX IN DOVER.—Considerable alarm has prevailed in Dover, for a few weeks, respecting the prevalence of this loathsome disease in that town. The Dover Gazette states that the Board of Health, up to Thursday noon, reported about thirty cases of small pox and varioloid. Every case of small pox has been removed without the limits of the village, and but a few cases of varioloid remain, from which no danger is apprehended. In but two instances has the disease proved fatal, one of which was owing to the want of proper treatment—the young man Hughes, whose father neglected to call in the aid of a physician, until the disease had reached its climax, it then being discovered by mere accident, but too late to save the life of the victim. The other case, that of Mr. James Haynes, was aggravated by the combination of one or two other diseases, from which he was suffering at the time of the attack. All the remaining cases are now doing well.

The most exaggerated reports have been circulated in the neighboring towns in relation to the prevalence of the disease there; but the last two or three days have served to allay the excitement somewhat.

☞ In the case of the State vs. Henry Stevens for an assault upon John Hartford with an intention to murder him, tried on Wednesday last, before Justice White of the Dover Police Court, the Dover Gazette states that Stevens was held to answer at the next January term of the Court of Common Pleas for Strafford County, in the sum of $400, and in default of bail was committed.

GREAT FALLS PERIODICAL DEPOT.—We learn from the Great Falls Journal, that Mr. John W. Stavers, formerly of this city, has purchased the newspaper and periodical business of John G. Hill, and opened a periodical depot in the building recently occupied by H. Scammon, as a clothing store. All the magazines of the day, with weekly and daily papers of every description may be found on his counter.

FLUID ACCIDENT.—A young lady, daughter of Mr. H. P. Dane, of Great Falls, was badly burned by the explosion of a can of Fluid, on Tuesday evening last. While holding a lighted lamp in one hand and a can of fluid in the other, she attempted to uncork the can with her teeth. The effort necessary to accomplish this, caused the Fluid to run over the side and come in contact with the flame. It is surprising that that the young lady escaped with life. No person should ever attempt to fill a fluid lamp while burning.—Gt. Falls Journal.

PATRIARCHAL.—A suit that has been pending for three years in one of the South Carolina courts, in which one of the chivalric sons of the Palmetto State claimed a girl who was just dawning into womanhood as his chattel, was decided a short time since in favor of the girl,—not because she was a girl nor because she was human, but simply because she was an Indian. While the fact that she was a Christian woman would not save her, the fact that she was an Indian woman did, thus exemplifying the measureless superiority of Indianity over Christianity, as regulated by the patriarchal code.

The present is the first year since 1847, that Massachusetts has elected a Governor by the people.

THE NEW YORK GOVERNOR ELECTION.—The Albany Argus, which has hitherto held to the opinion that Gov. Seymour was re-elected over Mr. Clark, the whig candidate,—being itself opposed to both of them—in its issue of Friday declares that the official returns elect Mr. Clark. The Argus says:

We have at last official, or what may be regarded as reliable, results in all the counties of the State, as between Seymour and Clark. Our figures are all official, except from Allegany, Schuyler, Warren, Delaware, New York and Putnam; but, in these cases, they are the best which can be obtained. They show a clear majority for Clark, in the State, of 514.

Of course, where the vote is so close, trifling variations in each county may reduce, and so they may increase this majority. But that they will reverse it, is not at all probable. It is at least safe to say, in view of the figures before us, that the chances are in favor of Clark's election by a small but decisive majority.

The Argus is good authority, because its editors are very careful in examining the returns, and they are in a position to distinguish between official and reported results.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The long doubtful question of who is Governor of New York, will soon be settled. There now remains but one County—New York—to be heard from officially. The papers of this morning all agree within a few votes, in their footings, showing a majority of from 200 to 300 for Clark over Seymour. It is therefore pretty generally conceded that Myron H. Clark is the Governor elect.

THE DEATHS FROM SUFFOCATION.—The two females found dead on Monday morning in the attic of No. 2 Waverley place, died from suffocation caused by escape of gas in lower story of said house, as was found by a jury summoned by Coroner Pratt. The wonder was that the catastrophe should have happened, with the windows in the second story open; but it appears the door to that ventilated room was shut, and the gas ascended through the entries and stairways till it became concentrated in the attic where the females were sleeping.—Boston Post.

Charles W. Stewart, doorkeeper of the house of representatives, who committed suicide in Washington on the 12th inst., was supposed to have been temporarily insane.—He killed himself by taking strychnine in champagne, and after arranging his position on a sofa in the speaker's room, died, as is supposed, with but little difficulty. The Star says he had accumulated quite a handsome property, and was much beloved by his friends. At a meeting of his late official associates, held in the hall of the house, resolutions were passed deploring the merits of the deceased and expressing deep sorrow at his death.

TEXAS.—Corpus Christi, 13th.—Gen. P. F. Smith is on his way from El Paso to this place. An express of his arrived this day, with the information that Capt. Walker, with his Rifles, as an escort to the general, has had a fight with the Indians, and killed six of them on the spot, and destroyed their village. The Rifles lost none, but had several wounded.

LICENSE OR NO LICENSE. An election was held in Algiers, opposite New Orleans, on Monday week, to take the sense of the voters of the village on question of granting licenses for the selling of ardent or spirituous liquors. Considerable feeling was manifested, and the people refused to grant licenses by a majority of 20, the votes being against licenses 82, in favor 62.

The sale by auction of the library belonging to the late Bishop Wainwright, is to commence in New York on the 22d inst. The consecration of Bishop Potter is fixed for the same day, in order to meet the concourse of people who will gather on that occasion.

The Cincinnati Commercial says:—The great bane of the present day is that intense desire to become merchants; and, instead of being at the plow or in the workshops, crowds have been, during the last few years, roosting about all our cities, towns, villages and cross roads, merchandizing.

The trial of four of the slaves of the late Wm. A. Killingsworth, of Jefferson county, Miss., for the murder of their master, was held at the Circuit Court of that county last week. Two of the slaves were found guilty, and sentenced to be hung on the 4th Friday in November. The other two were acquitted, but subsequently one of them was indicted for arson, and will be tried for that offence at the next term of the Court.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

in Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time became thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

The medical properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

One dose of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutice Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.

IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
J. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spaine.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infants.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and also on the label covering the cork; and asplendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, at Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; for they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person assuming a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers the testimony of its efficacy, in a person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Chills, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

PATENTS.
American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case he fails to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered in legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual place of business, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Very Respectfully, Your obt. Servt.
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE,

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent I am very respectfully,

Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,
Commissioner of Patents."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIN, 88 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

THE RIGHTS OF THROUGH RAILROAD PASSENGERS TO THEIR SEATS.—The New York Tribune notices an important decision recently rendered by the Marine Court in that city, in reference to the rights of through passengers to their seats in railroad cars:

"Two men sued the Hudson River Railroad Company for $500 damages each for assault and false imprisonment. The facts are, that they came on the cars at Sing Sing, where they had drank more bad rum than was necessary to improve their manners. The seats in the cars were all occupied, but a gentleman had left his seat to enjoy a cigar in the baggage car, and this seat the plaintiffs took possession of, and refused to give it up when called upon, and when applied to by the conductor used profane and obscene language, offensive to ladies. Upon this the conductor, with necessary assistance, ejected the parties from their seats, and, to prevent their violence, confined them in a small room until the train arrived in the city. For this the action was brought. The court justified the action of the conductor, and dismissed the suit."

The court having decided that through passengers are entitled to their seats to the exclusion of way passengers, the question arises whether railroad companies who receive way passengers on board, are not bound to provide them with seats also.—Augusta Age.

There must be some error here, either in the report or in the decision itself. If a man has a right to a particular seat, that seat must be numbered or marked. Any passenger, entering a car, has a right to any vacant seat, unless distinctly and legally notified to the contrary. The conductor had a right to remove, confine, or eject the drunken man;—and to this extent, no more, the decision goes, as we read it. We have no doubt, also, that a railroad is bound to find seats for all.

KNOW NOTHINGISM controverts the principle that all races and conditions of men are equal and entitled to equal political and social rights, and therefore runs counter to the views of the advocates of the equality of the African race in our government; and one religious sect being shut out from any share in the government, on account of its absurd doctrines and exclusive character, the way may be opened in time for the exclusion of other religious sects which claim to be the true church, and admit no salvation out of their pale,—in this and some other points being scarcely less obnoxious to many, even at the present day, than the Roman Church.

It is worthy of remark, too, that the exclusion of foreigners from our body politic is no new doctrine. It was contended for by the old Federal party under the lead of the elder Adams. The interference and the intrigues of foreigners, in the management of the government was then looked upon as a crying evil, and an attempt to stop it was made by Mr. Adams's administration in the passage of the alien and sedition laws, which allowed no foreigner arriving in the country to be naturalized until he had been fourteen years a resident, and punished those who intrigued against and slandered the government by fine and imprisonment when convicted of these offences. The democrats of that day, however, made this law odious with the people and repealed it as soon as they came into power. The spirit of old John Adams, could it come forth from the grave, would now leap for joy at the revival and the popularity of one of his favorite projects, but which only made him in his day, odious, and subjected him to the bitterest denunciations.—Newburyport Herald.

THE SOULE QUESTION.—Some of the New York papers state that they have information that the French government has surrendered to the demands of Mr. Mason, who placed the exclusion of Mr. Soule from the French territory upon national grounds. The New York Times says:

We have a private letter from a well informed source in London, written at the last moment before the closing of the mail, saying that "the French government has withdrawn all objection to Mr. Soule's passing through France." It is also stated that the English government feel a good deal of uneasiness about the matter, on various grounds. It dreaded the reaction which the French Emperor's treatment of Mr. Soule would create towards the Western powers, and was especially alarmed at his readiness to enter into new quarrels while in alliance with England. If our correspondent's statement as to the issue of the matter is true—as we have reason to believe it is—the result has very probably been brought about by the intervention or advice of the English government.

From another private letter from London, written also on the eve of the steamer's departure, and based on telegraphic despatches from Paris, we learn the following facts, corroborating the above:

"Louis Napoleon had a personal interview with Mr. Mason, in which he withdrew the restraints upon Mr. Soule's passage through the French territory, disclaiming all intention of insult to the United States Government in the person of its envoy. The manner of the Emperor was dry and curt, and it is believed that this disclaimer was a diplomatic move, understood to have been dictated by England, the English cabinet advising that the initiatory against Mr. Soule, personally, should be taken, if at all, by their government. The banquet proposed to be given to Mr. Soule by the refugee Republicans in London will probably afford the Home Office an opportunity for action."

STARTLING DEVELOPMENT.—It has always been customary in the State legislative proceedings of past years for the Speaker to appoint upon each committee a member of every political party. It is darkly hinted that the Know Nothings design to carry out this principle to its extent in the coming Legislature and by working the one Democrat to death, destroy the last lingering relic of the Democratic party.—Boston Journal.

THE LEGAL PROFESSION.—Among no people in the world are the lawyers so much abused, or so necessary and possessed of so much influence, as in the United States. The abuse of them is no doubt caused by their power and influence, and the sense of independence which the community feel in regard to them, and which dependence they at the same time chafe under. In this country, where the laws are made by public opinion, and annually liable to radical and contradictory changes and modifications, the study of the recorded statutes and of the precedents of common law and equity jurisdiction, places a mighty power in the hands of any man whose mind rises above mediocrity or even to that standard.

In our country and with our institutions, there can be no greater blessing than a good and great lawyer, and were it not that everything evil here is checked and confined by its self-immolating propensity while it is seeking to injure and corrupt others, there could be no greater curse than a bad and powerful mind engaged in the same profession.

The university of knowledge which a lawyer obtains in his profession, the habits of acute investigation called into play, and the familiarity with discussion and debate, all of which are matters of daily practice, are what give to the lawyer his superior advantages, and enable this beyond any other vocation in society to attain the greatest amount of power and influence. If in our country, any member of this profession fails to succeed, it is because of his own lack of talent, industry or fidelity.

It is undoubtedly more to the neglect of industry and application, than to any deficiency of ability, that we find so many poor lawyers. Every one who has ever been called to transact legal business, has found great difficulty in finding a lawyer to whom he could safely entrust his case. As a class the profession is careless, procrastinating beyond all others, and they not only injure themselves by indulgence in these habits but often bring incalculable mischief upon their clients and inflict great evil upon the community.

We have had occasion to make a searching enquiry into the business character and ability of the New York lawyers, and out of all we could find but three of them who in all respects were such men as we should entrust a suit with.

ACCIDENT.—About noon on Friday last, as the Northern Freight train was approaching the Tewksbury crossing, in Grafton, some part of the engine machinery gave out, and the train was brought to a stand. The steam was blown nearly off, and the engineer—Mr. Benj. F. Pillsbury of Concord,—and the fireman proceeded to remedy the accident. For this purpose, Mr. Pillsbury went under the engine, and found an eccentric strap broken. While in this position the boiler burst, and blew out the fire box, and a volume of boiling water struck Mr. Pillsbury on the back and kidneys, and scalded the lower part of his body, arms and thighs, as also his face and neck, in a shocking manner. He crept from below the engine without any assistance, and walked some distance—the skin and flesh literally peeling from his body. As soon as aid could be procured it was applied to his case; but, his injuries are too severe to hold out any hope of his recovery. Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, he lay in a state of coma, with but little pulse, and apparently dying. His age is about 23 years.

The fireman was not hurt.—Daily Patriot.

ARREST ON A CHARGE OF ARSON.—The Albany Transcript, noticing the arrest of a man named Davis, in New York city, on a charge of arson, says:

From developments made to us, it is pretty certain that he is the leader of a regularly organized band, who go about the country obtaining insurance on property claimed as theirs, which they destroy, and then obtain the insurance. Three cases of arson in this city, three in Rensselaer county, and quite a number of others in New York city and elsewhere have been traced to this party. Their plan of operation exhibits great cunning and knavery. Davis has, it is asserted, caused buildings to be erected and nearly completed, when, after obtaining insurance for furniture which he said was in the building, but which was not, obtained heavy insurance on the building and then destroyed it, and afterwards obtained the full amount he was insured for. Two others, named Dobson and Thompson, are implicated with him in his nefarious operations. Dobson was arrested in New York one day last week, on a charge of arson in that city. Many other serious charges are laid at the door of this band, but we are not at liberty to divulge them at present.

FAMILY DESOLATION.—The Portland Advertiser relates the sad story of James Harvey Haines, a resident of Burnham, in Waldo county, which section he repeatedly represented in both branches of the State Legislature. He emigrated to Beauro county, Illinois, about three years ago. He had purchased land and become located satisfactorily, and in letters, expressed unbounded gratification with the country and his prospects. On the 10th of October he was attacked with the cholera, and after an illness of 27 hours died, in the 53d year of his age. His wife, also suddenly attacked with the same disease, preceded him by a few hours. At the date of this intelligence an only son was sick with the same fearful malady, while an only daughter, although in health, stood the lone and distressed witness of the desolation of her home.

LIBERAL DONATION.—A gentleman, whose name we are not authorized to use, is about to assign over to a board of trustees, for the purpose of establishing a first class academy for the mental and physical education of boys, property consisting of three or four houses and other buildings, a saw and grist mill, with valuable water privileges, and a tract of excellent land adjoining—the whole value of which will amount to at least $10,000. The academy is to be located at Millville, a suburban portion of our city, and the eligibility of scholars will be decided by the trustees appointed, although we believe the privilege of attending the institution will not be confined to class or locality.—Concord Patriot.

LOCAL.

GRADING, DRAINAGE, AND PONDS.—The Scientific Survey of this city, for the purpose of grading the streets, which was recommended by Mayor Walker in his inaugural address, has not been adopted in our City Council,—not because any man doubts the expediency of such a measure, but simply because half a dozen men are firm in their purpose to have nothing done this year beyond what is absolutely indispensable.

Whatever, therefore, we say on the topics named at the head of this article, must be understood as intended for the next year, when the people may give us a city government that can act to some useful purpose.

We regard the system of grading, and drainage, as matters of great importance. They should be conducted on the fixed, settled principle, that water will run down hill, toward the sea. For want of due attention to this principle, thousands of dollars have been wasted in filling up some of our streets, when better work could have been made for less money, by opening a drain, and by carrying earth away.

The mention of draining reminds us of the South Mill Pond, which ought, by all means, to be emptied of manure, and thereby deepened, this winter, to make the tide-water there clean and wholesome for the next year.

☞ The Wild Men from Borneo, will be on exhibition this afternoon, and to-morrow afternoon and evening, at the Temple. They are well worth visiting.

☞ The Hutchinsons are advertised to visit this city next week, when they will favor our citizens with a concert.

☞ Whitehouse's New England Bards, who are acquiring great renown in Massachusetts, are to visit this city in about three weeks.—The company is possessed of great talent, and well deserve the patronage bestowed upon it.

REPEAL OF COAL DUTIES.—A petition for the repeal of the duty on coal, has been left for signatures at Mr. Morse's periodical store. It is hoped that many of our citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity to express their feelings upon the present high position of the coal market.

INTENDED WIFE OF PRINCE NAPOLEON.—It is rumored in Brussels that the granddaughter of Louis Phillippe, the Princess Charlotte of Belgium, is the intended wife of Prince Napoleon, heir presumptive to the throne of France. However singular such an alliance may appear, it is by no means impossible that Louis Napoleon may desire to take this means of strengthening his throne, and destroying the prospects of the Orleans family of again acquiring supreme power. This, if true, may account in some measure for the visit of King Leopold to the Emperor of France at Boulogne, and when it is remembered that Queen Victoria and Prince Albert are nephew and niece of the King of Belgium, may partly explain the personal cordiality recently exhibited by them towards Louis Napoleon.

NARROW ESCAPE.—This morning, as the first inward Newton Special train was in the vicinity of the new stopping place at Ship-Yard bridge, it was ascertained that a passenger there wanted to get on board. The train passed the depot and the engineer immediately commenced breaking up. In the meantime the passenger, a young female, got upon the track and commenced running for the train, apparently without perceiving that it was coming towards her. At a moment, when the danger was imminent that she would be run down, a young gentleman jumped from the rear car, and at the risk of his own life, succeeded in dragging her from the track and thus saved her life.—Traveller.

OUTRAGE.—At San Francisco on the 21st ult., as the ship Live Yankee got alongside the wharf, she was boarded by a gang of boarding house runners, who commenced taking the crew ashore. Mr. Patten, the mate, resisted, and struck one of them, when he was attacked by the whole gang and probably would have been killed but for the opportune return of Captain Thorndike with some friends. The mate was brought before the Recorder for striking the runner, who very properly dismissed the charge. He thought Mr. Patten only did his duty in the premises, as the ship was insecure at the time and was under his sole charge; moreover that the voyage was not ended, and the crew was as much under his command as if they were off the "Pitch" of Cape Horn or in the middle of the Atlantic.—Boston Courier.

CAT-ERACTORIAL.—Last night, about 12 o'clock, the residents near the corner of Hudson and Harvard streets were aroused by the violent exertions of a watchman to detect the locality of running water, the sound of which, most surprisingly, tickled his wakeful ears. After agitating a whole community of night caps, it was finally ascertained that a hungry tom-cat had leaped through a basement window of Trafton's grocery store directly upon the stop-cock of the Cochituate pipe, turning the same so that the water gushed out generously, which it had been doing apparently for upwards of an hour, when discovered.—Boston Telegraph.

The Tinicum Debating Society have under discussion the question,—'Why is it considered impolite for gentlemen to go in the presence of ladies in their shirt sleeves, whilst it is considered every way correct for the ladies themselves to appear before the gentlemen without any sleeves at all?'

Juvenile Singing School,

FOR MISSES.

A. PEARSON will commence a Term of Instruction in Singing, for young Misses,

On Wednesday Afternoon, Nov. 22,
at 2 o'clock,

to be held Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons, in Exchange Hall, No 4 Exchange Buildings.

TICKETS $1 for 24 Lessons—may be obtained at Wm. R. Preston's, Jas. H. Head's, and at the Hall.

The Book used at this School, is Baker's School Music Book—a new and excellent work, which was used at the last Term, and will afford fine study for several Terms of progressive lessons. Price 35 cents—to be had at the Hall.

Grateful for the confidence already reposed in him by parents as well as others, Mr. Pearson would respectfully announce that he has convenient and beautiful accommodations for eighty scholars; and that he will spare no pains to render profitable and agreeable to the children, that which is to him one of the most pleasant branches of the musical profession.

New York, Nov. 19.—Election.—The latest official returns of the vote for Governor, make no material change from the estimate of yesterday. Clark is nearly 300 ahead; it is thought he will be declared Governor by about that majority.

Mortality.—Ship Charles Hill, of Boston, from Havre, which arrived yesterday, lost 19 out of 397 passengers by sickness on the passage.

From Havana.—The steamer Cahawba arrived here last evening, with Havana dates to the 12th inst. Nothing of importance had transpired at Havana, but little was known relative to the reported outbreak at Puerto Principe.

U. S. Steamer Princeton sailed from Havana, 10th inst. for Nicaragua, Gen. Concha having previously entertained at dinner, Minister Wheeler, ex-Consul Fabens, Capt. Engle, Consul Robertson and others.

Schooner Meteor, arrived at New York on Saturday, reports left at Baracoa schooner John G. White, under seizure by the Cuban government for having arms and ammunition on board.

New York, Nov. 20.—The Courier and Enquirer of this morning, in reply to the doubts cast upon the statement of Louis Napoleon having withdrawn the order prohibiting Mr. Soule from passing through France to Spain, says that its information was received per telegraph from Gen. Webb himself, now in London.

A destructive fire is raging in Judson's Hotel, Broadway, and threatens the entire destruction of the building. Adams & Co.'s express office adjoins, and is in great jeopardy. The rear is said to have already caught fire.

A later despatch says the fire originated from some defect in the furnace, and so rapid was its progress that many of the boarders and servants had to escape from the upper windows by means of ladders. It is even feared that some persons may have perished. The building was entirely destroyed. Scarcely any portion of the furniture, &c. was saved.

The flames were confined to the hotel building, although the express establishment of Adams & Co. sustained some slight damage.

Snow Storm and Gale.—There was a very severe storm at Buffalo—the "city of winds"—on Monday and Tuesday. The Buffalo Commercial says that persons from the country report the snow one foot deep seven or eight miles from that city. In the lower part of the city of Buffalo several lives were lost. The water spread over "the flats," and families were driven from their tenements. In many instances, the houses were uprooted from their foundations, and drifted off upon the flood. Domestic animals, out-buildings, fences, furniture, lumber and piles of wood were set afloat, and went with the current wherever chance and the gale determined. The cellars and lower floors of more substatial buildings, within reach of the devastation, were submerged, and property was destroyed to a ruinous extent. Much damage was done on Lake Erie and the upper lakes.

New London, Ct., 19th.—Geo. Bliss, Esq. Sheriff of this County has arrested the men who robbed the Windham Bank, at Windham, the particulars of which have been published. Mr. Bliss appears to have suspected a party of four men who were hanging about the wharf at Allyn's Point last night just previous to the departure of the boat for New York, and arrested them just as they went on board. On searching their luggage $20,000 of the $22,000 stolen were found; and it is probable that the balance will be recovered, as it is supposed to have been secreted on the wharf or on board the steamer. The robbers have been safely lodged in jail at this place.—We have not yet learned their names, but they are said to have the appearance of genteel and finished scoundrels.

Pickpockets.—A gentleman and lady had their pockets picked on the passage from New York on Wednesday evening, while in the cars of the Norwich line. The gentleman's pocket book contained $350. On the loss being made known to conductor Pratt, he promptly locked the car doors and commenced a search. The pocket book was found on the platform outside the cars, and the money behind the zinc screen near the stove, where the rogue had thrown it as the search became unpleasantly close for him. The lady's pocket book was not found. It contained only two or three dollars.

New Custom House.—Capt. Beauman, of the U. S. Engineer Corps, who performs the duty of architect to the Treasury Department in connection with the construction of the various edifices with the building of which that department is charged, has just returned from a tour of examination, to obtain the requisite local information to enable the Secretary of Treasury to choose the best sites for custom houses, ordered by Congress at its last session to be built. We hear that his report will be ready in three weeks, after which it is probable that the sites in question will be at once selected, and that all the preparations for the construction of the various works will be promptly made.—Washington Star.

A printer's devil, who pays special attentions to a young lady in town, without making any decided advances, was returning with her from the meeting the other night, when she feelingly said, "I fear I shall never go to heaven." "Why," said our typo. "Because," she replied, "I love a devil so well."

There stands at the present time in the town of Genoa, Cayuga Co., N. Y., an English cherry tree, which now measures fifteen feet and four inches around the smallest place below the limbs. The branches spread 72 feet, and it was judged that there were ten bushels of fruit upon it the present year.

Underground Route.—Four slaves, two of them belonging to Prof. Strange, one to Mr. Dey, and one to Mr. Herman, all of Norfolk, mysteriously disappeared on Saturday night last.

The Rev. Antoinette L. Brown has resigned the pastoral charge of the Othodox Congregational Society in South Butler, Wayne County, N.Y., with a view to the improvement of her health. She will continue, however, to preach and lecture as hitherto.

Montreal, Nov. 17.—Lord Elgin has been detained in Canada, as is alleged, in consequence of a deficiency in his accounts.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time became thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health. The medical properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary taint. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutive Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam. If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swellings, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. " W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Norling, late Minister of Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, should have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a vignette, also three accompanying nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelt correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

With effect, New York.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and access to accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, celerity, and success. Impartial Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the re-cut of their unceasing efforts and experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the finest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

NEW YORK ELECTION.—The Boston Courier takes the following view of this election, as it will affect the liquor laws:

Governor Seymour run ahead of his party ticket by the aid of the liquor interest of the State, as it was sure that if he was re-elected no Maine law could be enacted in the State in the face of his veto of the bill of the last Legislature, and his position with regard to the question. It may now be certain that if Mr. Clark is declared Governor—and the chances are all in his favor—that the New-Yorkers will have a prohibitory liquor bill fastened upon them, as close and stringent in its provisions as any one that can be enacted in Massachusetts. We learn from the New York Day Book that the importers of wines and liquors have resolved to contest every inch of ground, and to never give up until the Supreme Court of the United States decides against them. The battle is likely to be a severe one.

It is a little too early to speculate on the effects of an election, before we are sure of the fact. Nevertheless, if New York does not get a liquor law this year, she will have it soon, for the tide of popular sovereignty sets that way very strongly. So, if the battle is postponed, it is yet to be fought at some time. No man, who has any knowledge of the liquor and wine business in New York, can doubt that the "battle will be severe."

The manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks, was considered, less than forty years ago, to be a respectable and honorable business, as well as lucrative. Deacons were frequently distillers and dealers; and not a few deacons were specially licensed to retail drams "for the public good," and did actually keep the toddy stick in motion between meetings on Sunday, for the refreshment of such brethren as chose to step across the road from the meeting house to the tavern. The drinking-houses and tippling-shops were considered to be among our "peculiar institutions," and were largely patronized by great men in our church and state, in both their public and private capacity.

The various temperance efforts of a moral kind have changed public opinion very considerably,—in some respects and in some places, public opinion was revolutionized and reversed. These revolutions and reverses, however, have neither been complete nor universal. While the traffic has generally been rendered less reputable than formerly, and while in some places it is held disgraceful, it has yet been kept in countenance by the patronage of a large portion of the community, and especially of the myriads of foreigners who have been landed on our shores.

A majority of the people, in many States, have enacted or called for new and more stringent liquor laws. And now, efforts are making to pass laws every where, which will treat as a crime, the very acts for which our cities and towns used to license some of their most popular men.

No one can look on such changes without being sensible that a struggle must ensue, between those, on the one hand, who have been getting rich by the traffic which is now denounced as immoral, and those, on the other hand, who, seeing the great evils of intemperance, desire to break it up.

We have seen, already, in Massachusetts, the influence of the Boston liquor interest, operating so strongly on the legislature, as to make a lame mongrel sort of a law; and also upon the courts and lawyers, so as to fill them with all manner of conscientious and constitutional scruples against the law as it stands.

The liquor men in New York are more numerous than those in Boston; and they have a hundred thousand customers who are warmly attached to their drink, and who set more by it than by their daily food.

ROMAN CONFIRMATION.—Bishop Fitzpatrick, of the Roman Church, held a great confirmation service at the Roman Church in Newburyport, on Sunday morning, Nov. 19. Of the subjects of confirmation, there were nearly a hundred young men and lads, and perhaps a hundred and fifty girls. Most of the girls wore white dresses and white veils—their attire giving them a very neat and beautiful appearance. The first female that approached the altar was a native of Newburyport, of Protestant parentage, and orthodox education. All were deeply interested in the services.

MAINE.—The Augusta correspondent of the Boston Telegraph writes that the Governor and Council have decided to present the question of who is chosen in the 6th district to the Supreme Court of the State. Legally the seat would seem to belong to Mr. Millikin. If all the votes reported to have been thrown, are counted, Mr. Fuller is elected, but the laws regulating plantations have been grossly voted. In one plantation, where ten votes are returned, all Fuller, it has been proved that there are but seven voters. If returns involving such violations of law are rejected, Mr. Milliken has the plurality.

It is hard for a man to amass riches by toiling in his shop, while there is a leakage at home in his kitchen. 'What a small kitchen!' exclaimed Queen Elizabeth, after going through a handsome mansion. 'It is by having so small a kitchen,' replied the owner, 'that I am enabled to keep so large a house.'

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE—NOVEMBER, 1854.

We believe there is no better law on the statute book of New Hampshire, than that which requires each town to appropriate a certain sum annually for the support of Teachers Institutes. Laws are designed to promote the best interests of the community. It is an admitted truth that civil government even is not more indispensable to our welfare than are our common schools. What then can benefit society at large in a higher degree than that which imparts new efficiency and excellence to these schools—and what is better fitted to give them a new impulse and new elevation than Teachers' Institutes. We speak from what we have seen and heard. The eleventh Teachers' Institute for Rockingham County, has just closed its session in this place. It came to us at a favorable time. The Fall Term of the Chester Academy—which has been in successful operation for about two years under the management of Mr. S. M. Moore, closed with the commencement of the Institute. A large part of the scholars enrolled themselves at once as members. Our new academy building, completed the past summer in a style which we are disposed to be proud of, although it may not equal similar structures in larger towns, contains a hall well adapted for the daily sessions. The exercises of the Institute have apparently given very great satisfaction to all who have enjoyed its privileges. Comparisons are odious; and we must not say therefore that this Institute was superior to any previous one in the State or County, but we may express our conviction that one more interesting and profitable, has seldom been held. Our new commissioner Horace Webster, Esq., presided for the first time, with a tact and efficiency which satisfied all, that the duties of his responsible position will be well discharged. In the formation of his Board of Instruction, he has been fortunate. The veteran Prof. Russell was with us throughout the week as Instructor in the department of Reading, Elocution and Grammar. It will be acknowledged that no man can be found in the country better qualified by full and exact knowledge in his profession, extensive general culture, long experience, kindly feelings and gentlemanly manners, for the vocation to which he has devoted himself. The atmosphere will always be a genial one where he is the ruling spirit. Dr. Cutter, hardly less a veteran in his sphere, lectured on the subject of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene, and edified the large numbers who came out to hear him, by his sound practical sense, and sometimes amused them by his off hand wit. If every family in the nation could listen to his suggestions it would be greatly for their advantage. Prof. Hermann Krusi awakened particular interest by his lessons on drawing and by his admirable evening lecture on the life, character, and educational principles of Pestalozzi. Mr. Geo. S. Houghton, who lectured on Arithmetic and Physical Geography; Mr. Sanborn Tenney, who lectured on Geology and Botany; are young men who displayed a knowledge of these subjects, and other qualities which awaken the expectation that they will yet win for themselves a name in science. We understand that lectures on geology have never been given before any Institute in Rockingham county previous to this. These were received with special favor. Mr. Horace Jones gave a practical and useful lecture, and the exercises of the Institution during the week were occasionally elivened by music under the direction of Mr. Reed. Between one hundred and fifty and a hundred and seventy five teachers, or those preparing to teach, were present as pupils. Their healthy blooming faces, when they were assembled together, presented a sight, as Prof. Russell privately remarked to the writer, never witnessed in the vicinity of Boston. There were representatives from twenty four towns in the county, besides a dozen or fifteen from other States and counties. Chester, Candia, Sandown and Hampstead, were the fullest represented.

There were also in attendance besides a large number of the citizens of Chester, numbers of School Committees from other towns, among whom we noticed Rev. Mr. Barbour of Sandown, and Franklin Crombie, Esq., of Auburn.

More than two hundred were in attendance upon some of the sessions. While three-quarters of the members had never attended an Institute before, there were several who have attended frequently. We observed the white locks and and venerable form of Mr. James Moore of Danville, who for thirty years has borne the ferule sceptic, and has attended all the Institutes in the County but one, this being his tenth session. Mr. M. M. Coffin, of Hampton, was present for the ninth time. Mr. Daniel H. Jones, of Stratham, for the sixth time, and Mr. John F. Patten, of Auburn, now a teacher in Portsmouth, and Mr. John W. Sanborn, of East Kingston, each for the fifth time. Of the young ladies, Miss. Martha E. Spofford of Kingston was in attendance for her eighth session. Miss. Maria L. Syford of Brentwood, and Susan L. Currier of South Hampton, for their seventh. Miss Sarah J. Eaton, of South Hampton, for her sixth, and Misses. H. Maria Hazelton of Chester, and Martha P. Webster of Danville, for their fifth.

It was a source of gratification to the families who entertained them, to form the acquaintance of so many interesting young gentleman and ladies from abroad. The evening lectures—an important part of the exercises—were given in the church, and were attended by the citizens generally. These lectures, to say the least, would not in their practical value fall below those which are given in our large places before Lyceums, by men who are paid from twenty to a hundred dollars an evening, and they were had by us for nothing.

Towns that are wise will solicit the privilege of having future Institutes appointed among themselves. The people in general are hardly less benefitted by them than teachers and schools.

The satisfaction of the members of the Institute with this session, as well as their opinion of the system generally, may be gathered from the resolutions unanimously adopted by them, and by the following: At the close of the session the Commissioner requested those to rise, who by attending the session had formed a sufficiently favorable impression of Institutes to desire to attend again; when the whole Institute simultaneously rose.

Doubtless there was no more important and interesting exercise during the whole week, in the view of the younger members of the Institute, than the Levee on Friday evening; perhaps some of the older persons present were pretty much of the same opinion. After the delicacies of the table were well discussed, there was some animated speaking, led off by a humorous recitation by Mr. Russell, and an appropriate speech by Henry F. French of Exeter, our former townsman. If all the young men that we raise up to swell the population and promote the prosperity of other places, would take as lively an interest in their native town, and manifest it as liberally as he has done, we should feel less regret at the departure of our sons and daughters, as fast as they become men and women.

We will close this report by expressing the hope that the next town which enjoys a similar privilege may be as highly favored as ourselves in the number and character of the members of the Institute, and in the ability and courtesy of the Board of Instructors.

Committee of Visitation and Report.

Chester, Nov. 18, 1854.

OFFICE HOLDING AT A DISCOUNT.—Not long since two members of the present Cabinet, the Post Master General and the Secretary of the Interior visited Boston for the purpos of negotiating for the purchase of Court House in that city for the use of the Post Office department. The P. M. G. has a free pass to travel over the different post routes in the United States, and found no difficulty in putting his friend the Secretary of the Interior "over the road" as a "dead head" until on the return voyage, when they encountered a snag between New York and Philadelpha in the shape of a railroad conductor who, not having the fear of office holders before his eyes, commanded the honorable gentlmen to show their tickets. A by-stander informed the conductor that he was addressing the Post Master General of the United States and the Secetary of the Interior, who were travelling on public business. The conductor didn't seem to care who they where, but reiterated his demand for the tickets, whereupon the P. M. G. pulled out his pass, which proved satisfactory. At about this time the train stopped at a way station, and the attention of the conductor was caled away for the moment; but he soon returned, and approaching the Secretary of the Interior said: "I'll take your ticket, sir." The Secretary and his associate endeavored to expplainthe matter, but "I'll take your ticket, sir," was the only reply they could extort. Finally finding the curiosity of the passengers was becoming rather unduly excited, the victim suddenly pulled out his wallet and "forked over" his fare, and the conductor with a slight twinkle of his gray eyes, passed on no the next seat, amid the titters of the entire company. After he was entirely out of hearing, the Post Mster General quietly remarked that he "rather guessed the conductor was one of the Know-Nothings." An 'eye witness' of the scene, from whom we obtained the particulars, is of the opinion that the conductor was well posted up in the duties of his profession, and would have taken the dimes out of the other official had it been in his power.—Hallowell Gaz.

THE MUSIC-MASTER ABROAD.—Five hundred grand pianos have been sent out to China, by an enterprising speculator, who, it is to be hoped, has sent out five hundred pianists to play upon them. It is quite out of the question for the Chinese themselves, with nails some inches long, to attempt to make any use of the musical instruments that have been sent out, unless five hundred pairs of nail-scissors are dispatched after them. These pianos may be destined to sound the note of civilization in China, for if that extraordinary nation should be induced to cut its nails, the people may soon have at their fingers' ends many arts and sciences which they are precluded at present from the possibility of putting their hands to. But if they play on the pianos, it is probable they will soon be desirous of dancing to the music, and the foot must then be allowed to unfold its powers.

We hail the exportation of these five hundred pianos to China as the foundation of real harmony between the two countries. Those pianos will be the instruments of a good understanding, and will comprise within themselves more effectual overtures than any which diplomacy could have offered. The piano will necessitate the pianist, and these will render requisite the dancing master; and the music sellers will naturally turn their attention to the exportation of songs; but these must be written expressly to suit the sentiments of the Chinese, who cannot be supposed to sympathize with us. An invitation from a gentleman to a lady to "Meet him in the Willow Glen," might not be comprehended in the Celestial Empire; though perhaps an invitation from a Chinese lover to his mistress to meet him in the Willow pattern, might attain extensive popularity in the musical salons of Pekin.—N. Y. Musical Gazette.

TOO HARD FOR HIM.—During the recent trial of Fortman, at Covington, one of the jurymen returned, was asked by the prosecution, if he had any 'conscientious scruples about inflicting the death penalty?'

'Scruples?'

'Yes sir, conscientious scruples.'

The juryman scratched his head, and thought deeply for a moment.

'Yes sir, I have scru—— scru——'

'Scruples,' suggested the attorney.

'Yes sir,' I have them conscientious scruples.'

'Will you explain the nature of your scruples to the Court,' said the lawyer.

'My scruples,' said the juryman, facing His Honor, 'is that the Dutchman ought to be hung, and I'm in for it.'

He was ordered to 'stand aside for the cause.'—Cin. Com.

LOCAL.

☞ The Lecture before the Mechanics' Lyceum, at the Temple, on Tuesday evening, was by Ralph Waldo Emerson, on England.

He characterized English Life and Manners as, 1st, artificial; 2d, utilitarian; 3d, nationally proud and self-preferring. In the close of his lecture he paid a worthy tribute to eminent English authors, men of genius and of mental greatness. The performance abounded in striking sentences, exhibiting the author's peculiar habits of thought and language; highly interesting to those who admire his genius, but not intelligible to the superficial or careless hearer.

THE OLD FOLKS' CONCERT announced last week, will come off at the Temple in this city, on Wednesday Evening, Dec. 13, if the necessary arrangemements can be so soon completed. The gentleman who was the popular leader of the Portsmouth Sacred Music Society, is to conduct the performances on this occasion. The selections of music will be chiefly from the collection, "Ancient Harmony Revived;" and many old singers will be revived for this event, whose musical powers will astonish the grandchildren of the time in which they were singing-masters, choristers and leaders of bands. Though the concert will be made up of the old fugue tunes long sing laid aside from general use, and the performers selected chiefly from those who have been but are not now public singers—yet a frost-covered head is not considered absolutely essential to admission to the choir, and there will be found some in the good cause whose eye is not yet dim, nor their natural vigor abated.

JUVENILE SINGING SCHOOL.—Mr. Pearson commences a Term for the little girls, at his Music Room, Exchange Hall, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. P. is popular with his scholars, especially the juveniles—proving perhaps, that he will have friends who shows himself friendly. We have great faith in his ability as a teacher, and the public seems to agree with us.

THE AMERICAN BALLOT.—The first No. of the new American paper with this title, was issued from the Messenger office on Tuesday afternoon. It is a handsome sheet, about the size of the N. H. Gazette—is ably edited, and must prove of service to the American cause. Terms $1.50 per year, in advance. John J. Mason & Co., publishers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Herald of this morning publishes a despatch from Washington, stating it to be on unquestionable authority, to the effect that a change will be made in the Cabinet and all the foreign appointments, soon after the meeting of Congress, say about the middle of January. Messrs. Campbell & Guthrie will retire from the Cabinet. Mr. Marcy will go to England. Caleb Cushing will take the State Department. Mr. Dobbin will take charge of the Treasury, and Mr. Mason will probably have the Navy Department.

MILWAUKIE, Nov. 20.—The trial of John Rycraft, who was inlicted for an alleged participation in the rescue of the fugitive slave Grover from the Marshal of Michigan, in April last, occupied the attention of the U. S. District Court on Friday and Saturday, Judge Miller presiding. The prisoner was convicted.

Messrs. Kneeland & Hull, brokers, of this city, suspended payment to-day.

OLD WOMEN DECEASED.—In New York city, the funeral of the venerable Mrs. Alexander Hamilton, which took place on Saturday last, was almost immediately followed by that of probably the oldest person in the United States, Mrs. Sarah W. Karns, of New York, who died on the same day as Mrs. Hamilton, aged 117 years and three months. She was born in this country in 1727, when George Washington was five years old. The old lady retained the full possession of her faculties up to the day of her decease.

Mr. William Horton committed suicide on Friday evening, in Canton, Mass., by hanging himself. During the day he was about the town as usual, and paid a few small debts. Towards evening, he was seen going across a field near his house, and as he did not return, several of the neighbors made search for him, and next morning he was found hanging by the neck to a tree about a quarter of a mile from his house. Deceased was about 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and one or two children.

A lady was passing down Court street on Saturday evening, carrying a port-monnaie in her hand, as is the dangerous custom among many ladies in this city, when she was met by an ill-mannered, daring rogue, who seized upon it, and notwithstanding her loud cries and resistance, succeeded in wresting it from her grasp. The villain then ran down Alden court, and escaped. The porte-monnaie contained $7 in money and some tickets and other valuables.—Boston Atlas.

BABY WISDOM.—A little girl about five years old, once heard a minister pray lustily, till the roof rang with the sound of his supplication. Turning to her mother, and beckoning the maternal ear down to a speaking distance, she whispered, "Mother, don't you think that if he lived nearer to God he wouldn't have to talk so loud?"

The young lady who was carried away by the 'force of a remark,' came in last night on a 'train of thought.'

A wag proposes to publish a new paper to be called The Comet, with an original tale every week.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S
GERMAN
HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system.

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that they required almost carried, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

The medical properties of there waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of Humor—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
Piles, Costiveness, and
WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,
SUCH AS
Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutive Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,
Paralytic and Nervous Affections,
CANKER,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,
PILES,
PIMPLES ON THE FACE,
Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,
AND ALL
RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,
COUGHS,
SORE THROAT,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE
THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved an invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually at ending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metallic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage, any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have here for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles. Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD SEAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENITIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV. late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure, and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green

Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIL, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Ladies and Schools, as they will not spatter nor out the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

FATHER BRADY'S BURIAL.

Father Brady was the priest of the Roman Church in Hartford, Conn., which indeed he seems to have planted, having lived there during the last twenty years. The New York Herald says:

Owing almost entirely to his exertions, the Catholics of Hartford can boast of one of the finest churches in New England, and they had long been accustomed to regard him with all the love and veneration which devoted children entertain for their parents. The old man was happy in the contemplation of the success which attended his labors, and might now reasonably hope to end his days in peace and comfort among his flock. But an event took place which brought him in sorrow to the grave, and created the greatest excitement in the Catholic community. It was found necessary, in consequence of the great increase of the Catholic population, to have a bishop residing in Hartford, who signalized his appearance by making several changes in the condition of the church.

He ordered Father Brady to give up his own house and reside with him; but this he refused to do, and he was sustained in his refusal by the laity. Then there was some difficulty in relation to the control of the church property, which the bishop succeeded, to some extent, in obtaining. Incensed, however, at the opposition which he had met with, he was determined to be revenged on him whom he considered to be the cause of it.

One night as Father Brady attempted to enter the church for the purpose of procuring some holy water for a dying parishioner, he was refused admittance by the sexton, acting under the orders of the bishop. This was too much—more than the good old priest could bear; he felt indignant at being denied ingress into the church which had been erected mainly by his exertions, and for a moment giving way to his excited feelings, he struck the sexton in the face. The blow was returned by the official, who subsequently appealed to the bishop. It is almost needless to say that he was sustained in what he did by the despotic prelate, who immediately suspended Father Brady, putting in his place the Rev. Mr. Hughes. This was a terrible blow to the hopes which he had cherished—more than he could survive. A few days after, Father Brady died of cholera, the disease doubtless superinduced by the mental anguish which he had suffered. But the enmity of the bishop survived his death, and he even refused to allow his remains to be buried near the church, as he had requested. A large concourse attended his funeral; but the grave which had been prepared was found filled up, and the church closed, to prevent the celebration of the ceremonies. The people, however, opened the church, and a priest from a neighboring town, a friend of the deceased, said the prayers for the dead. The grave was re-opened, and the remains of Father Brady were deposited in it without further difficulty.

In a country controlled and governed by the Roman Church, this could hardly have happened. But in New England, Catholics, and even Catholic priests dare, in a few cases, to resist a bishop, and go counter to his bidding. This is the exercise of private judgment; and such cases must become more frequent, exactly in proportion as that people become more enlightened. Our free institutions must produce such effects, if they are suffered to remain free.

SUFFERING IN NEBRASKA.—A gentleman, recently returned from the far West, informs the New York Mirror that there is already much suffering among the Nebraska emigrants for the necessaries of life; and that the coming winter threatens to prove fatal to a large portion of the settlers. Without houses to live in—without markets (if they had money) to supply them food, and with no fish and very little game, the poor emigrants who have gone out there under the lead of anti-slavery must hurry home or die for want of food.

Very probable. Famine is no respecter of persons or principles. A country with no fish and very little game, is a very poor country after all. Old Plymouth, with its sandy soil and wholesome streams of fresh water, its ponds and tide water full of fish, and its flocks of sea and land birds, is a better home for men, than most newer and richer soils.

Madawaska in Maine, with its snow and its pine timber, is a better home than Nebraska, for a live Yankee with an axe in his hand.—Such an one in Madawaska can build a small hut in a day, and a warm house in a week; besides having all the chips and tree tops for fuel.

☞ Mr. Fuller has been declared, by the Governor and Council of Maine, to be re-elected Representative to Congress from the 6th District in that State. Mr. Fuller belongs to the Democratic party, and voted against the Nebraska bill throughout.

The Household Words are choice reading—volumes condensed into morsels.

Price, 25 cts. per number.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, for 1854, has just come to us from Leonard Scott & Co., New York. Most of the papers are of great interest. The Contents are: The London Commissariat; Church Bells; The Present State of Architecture; Silaris; Goldsmith; The Eclipse of Faith; The House of Commons and Law Amendment; Samuel Foote.

STUDY OUT OF SCHOOL HOURS.—The School Committee of Boston, upon the recommendation of the city physician and of a sub committee who have thoroughly examined the subject, have rescinded the regulation which permits teachers in public schools to assign lessons to be learned out of school. This has been done in consequence of ill health among the pupils, which is attributed to severe application and too much study.—Exchange.

A very proper decision. Six hours a day is more than enough for any child to be kept poring over books; and if the lessons given out cannot be learned in the usual school hours, it is certain there are too many or too long lessons assigned. But the custom of giving out lessons to be learned at home is not altogether a matter of time; it saves the teachers trouble. It is a general complaint from parents that there is very little instruction given in the public schools, the hours being almost entirely consumed in hearing recitations and maintaining discipline. All difficulties are brought home to be solved, and requests for assistance in school, are too often answered by referring the child to his text books—the terms of which are frequently not understood—or more often, by a rebuke for not remembering some meagre exposition given perhaps weeks before. The organization of the schools into large classes, and the number of studies pursued, may render this course necessary; but it is certainly not calculated to make thorough scholars. Large classes are well enough with adults and voluntary students; but they are incompatible with that personal attention which immature minds need for their most profitable development. In a large class of children it is impossible for the teacher to tell who of his pupils understands the lessons he is required to learn; the failure at a recitation alone indicating carelessness or inability in the pupil, or that the instruction given by the teacher has been insufficient. Fewer, or shorter lessons smaller classes, and more positive instruction and explanation on the part of the teacher, would, we believe, show better results, than the attempt to accomplish more, by the high pressure system, now so much in vogue.—Mrs. E. Vale Smith, Editor Newburyport Union.

Coal is scarce and high at the West and the supply is nearly exhausted. The Louisville Courier says "Lack of fuel now threatens to aggravate our manifold troubles. We have neither railroad nor river just yet that will bring us coal, and the consumption of that article is becoming every day greater.—Owing to a want of a sufficient supply the Rolling Mill has been compelled to suspend operations, and, as a consequence, a large number of laborers have been thrown out of employment upon the verge of a winter season that promises to be of unusual severity. Yesterday dealers in coal announced, with a cool sort of assurance, an advance to twenty-five cents per bushel. To what height they will elevate the standard price for this necessity of life, we have no means of knowing.—Coal will go up, however, so long as the river is down, and low water may be protracted beyond Christmas."

SHIPS.—The depression in the shipping interest is beginning to be seriously felt both by owners and builders. For several years we have not had such complete stagnation. The New York Journal of Commerce estimates the depreciation of ships during the year, at 25 per cent., which we fear is too low.—Freights, in any direction, will scarcely pay, and many vessels are lying useless at the wharves. For building there are no new contracts, and many of the yards along the coast have been given up. In a few months, the carpenters who have readily commanded from two to three dollars per day, will be out of employ. At the present prices of timber, iron, copper, and labor, it is impossible to build more, and unless a general European war should create a demand for ships by giving us the carrying trade, the contractors will remain quiet till prices fall to a building point. Newburyport Herald.

WHEAT AGROUND.—The Buffalo Republic says that there were over 100 vessels aground on the St. Clair Flats, Detroit, on Thursday last, and that up to that time not a vessel had had passed Detroit from the upper lake.—Some of these vessels had been aground seventeen days. It has been ascertained that there are one million of bushels of wheat on board the vessels aground. The Republic adds:—Unless this embargo is raised, this large amount of grain and flour will have to go in store on its arrival here, as it cannot be shipped on the canal after the 23d of November, the canal closing by order on the 5th of December.

The French Emperor has suddenly, in order to investigate the lot of the laboring classes, suppressed all distillation from grain and farinaceous substances of what sort soever the amount of the cereals for regular consumption was considerably diminished by the multiplication of grain distilleries, and high prices were maintained in consequence. If whiskey distilleries of the West could be stopped in the same way, it would be an immense relief to the poorer classes in this country in more ways than one.—Boston Journal.

Moses Bates, Esq., editor of the Plymouth Rock newspaper, has recently been appointed Postmaster in that town. Mr. Bates was inclined to the very soft side of his party, up to the Lowell Convention; and proposed to publish a paper in Boston, of a different character from the Post. Probably this new engagement will keep him at home. He is about the last of the democratic editors to be provided for; and whoever else may complain, certainly they cannot find fault with the administration.—Newburyport Her.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY IN CANADA. The Sherbrook Gazette of the 18th, observes that "now that reciprocity has gone into effect, under the bonding system, both in the United States and Canada, we may anticipate a great increase of traffic with our neighbors across the border. Already great numbers of cattle have been bought up in the townships for exportation, in anticipation of reciprocity, and a good demand may be still anticipated, especially for young cattle."

LOCAL.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

Friends of Temperance in this city and elsewhere, will perceive by the following call, that a Convention is to be held here Dec. 11 and 12.

A meeting of the friends of Temperance in Rockingham County, was held at Raymond, Oct. 26, 1854. The undersigned were appointed a County Committee, and were instructed to issue a circular, calling another meeting in the county, the present year.

It is proposed to hold a County Temperance Convention at Portsmouth, in the Temple, on MONDAY and TUESDAY, Dec. 11 and 12, to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. We wish the friends in every town in the County to call meetings, and appoint at least two delegates to attend the Convention.

Let it be understood that this is to be a Convention of no particular political party or religious sect. The time has come for all good men to stand shoulder to shoulder, and face the common foe. We ask our Clergymen to be present, because they are generally right on this question, and wield a moral influence which we wish to see concentrated and brought to bear in the right direction.

The object of the Convention will be to strengthen a feeling in favor of a Resolution passed at Raymond, which was:

"We deem it our duty to enforce, as far as possible, the existing law for the suppression of the traffic in ardent spirits, while we use our influence to secure a law more stringent in its provisions."

The Convention will be addressed by the following distinguished gentlemen:

Rev. S. W. COGGESHALL, of Stonington, Ct.
Rev. E. W. JACKSON, Agent N. H. State Temperance Society.

We are your servants in the cause of Temperance,

DAVID MURRAY, New Market;
FREDK W. ROGERS, Portsmouth;
WM. W. POOR, Derry;
OLIVER TILTON, Raymond;
JOS. C. PLUMER, Epping;
County Committee.

N. B.—Clergymen who seasonably notify Fred'k W. Rogers, at Portsmouth, of their intention to attend the Convention, will be provided with accommodations on their arrival.

A NATIVE AMERICAN.—Americans are an independent, self-reliant people, fond of judging for themselves. There is no doubt of this. We had an instance of it yesterday. A gentleman, evidently from the rural districts, uncontaminated by the vicious refinements of any large city, called at the establishment of Mason Brothers, and inquired for "The New Singin' Book, the Hallelujah," giving the j in the last syllable its full sound. "I hearn tell it's considerable good, but I'm in the habit of judgin' for myself, I am." The book was presented. Our friend in the felt hat and homespun looked at it carefully on one side, then on the other; then on each end, and each side. At last, with due deliberation, he opened it, and read the title-page. Next he turned to the record of copy-right entry, and read that. So he went on, page by page, through the elements. He was evidently about to examine the work for himself. Through the elements he went paragraph by paragraph.

An hour passed. The clerk had long since turned to other employment, but still the same deliberate turning of the leaves. At last our friend reached the music. Here he laid the book carefully down upon a pile of paper, keeping it open by the aid of other books placed upon each end. Diving an arm into one of his capacious pockets, he drew therefrom an instrument of music, even a veritable fife. After a careful adjustment of its parts, he applied it to his lips, and commenced playing the air of the first tune. This finished, he went to the second; then to the third, the fourth, the fifth, and so on in regular succession. It is true that our friend had not yet arrived at great skill on his favorite instrument. He did not always (we might perhaps say often) produce the right tones, and quite frequently he was oblivious of time. Nevertheless the intent was there, and certainly, according to his ability, he was faithful. No tune and no part of any tune was omitted.

Hours rolled on. Customers came and went. Boxes of books were packed and sent off. Yet amid the clatter of hammers, the calls of clerks and porters, and the rolling of carriages in the street, still that fife held on its way "toot, toet, toot-ti toot, toot too-o-o." The clerks went to dinner and returned. The fifer was still there; evening approached, and yet he went not. At last the hour for closing arrived. The clerks were too well-bred to show any signs of mirth, but broad grins in sly corners, and behind piles of books, gave some vent to their feelings. At last one addressed him. "We wish to close for the night now, sir." "Oh! ye do, do ye!" was the response. "Wall, I'm in the habit of judgin' things for myself, and I don't like to make up my mind too sudden. Ye see I can't tell about a singin' book without tryin' all the parts. I aint quite got through the trebles yet, but I'll call ag'in in the morning and go through the other parts."

We like perseverance, we like an independent judgment, but that fife was not to be borne another day. An expedient occurred. A book was presented, and our friend left with many thanks, and the promise that when he had thoroughly examined it, we should have his written opinion.—N. Y. Musical Gazette.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 20.—EXPLOSION.—The drying house of Jacob Johnson, on Marlboro' township, Montgomery county, Pa., containing two tons of gunpowder, exploded this morning, killing Henry Whistler and Joseph, his son. The building was entirely destroyed.

No more failures have occurred here to-day. Several small ones took place on Saturday. Messrs. David Stewart & Sons' paper is selling at 50 per cent. discount.

SEEING SAM.—The Newburyport Herald says, It is now reported that the Know Nothing question—"Have you seen Sam?" which appeared so mysterious, a time since, related to Sam Houston, who is to be their candidate for the Presidency. We don't know whether Sam has been seen or not, but we imagine he will be in the election of 1856—and to his opponents, as terrible as an army with banners.

ACCIDENT OCCASIONED BY THE EXPLOSION OF A FLUID LAMP.—Tuesday evening, as Mrs. Sampson, residing on Davis street, Roxbury, was sitting near a fluid lamp, it suddenly exploded, throwing the contents upon her child, and completely enveloping Mrs. S. in flames. She rushed into the street, when a young man, a passenger in the Mount Pleasant coach, threw his coat around her head and neck, and laid her upon the ground, while the driver covered her body with his buffalo robe, which extinguished the fire, and saved Mrs. Sampson from a dreadful death. The child was burned but slightly.—Boston Jour.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By the steamship Canadian, which arrived at Portland on Tuesday night at midnight, the State of Maine has Liverpool papers to Nov. 7, three days later.

Breadstuffs were advanced; wheat 2s per qr.; flour 1s per sack; sales small. Cotton unchanged. Mr. Soule's difficulty has blown over.

The War News is interesting but not decisive. The following is a summary.

Though intelligence from various sources, with regard to the commencement and progress of the siege has been received up to the 29th of October, the official despatches from Admiral Dundas, Gen. Canrobert, and Admiral Hamelin, detailing the operations of the allies on the 17th ult., the first day of the bombardment of Sebastopol, were only published to day. From these it appears that the Admirals of the fleets, with the whole of their ships, assisted the land attack by engaging the sea batteries north and south of the harbor. The French squadron took up a position about seven cables' lengths from the 350 guns, of the Quarantine battery, from the two batteries of Fort Alexander, and from the Artillery battery.

The English squadron faced the 130 guns of Fort Constantine, the Telegraph battery and the Maximilian fort to the north.

The land forces played from the heights above Sebastopol to the south, where they have entrenched themselves in a formidable and advantageous position.

The action, so far as the fleets were concerned, lasted from about half past 1 to half past 6 P. M.

The English loss on shipboard is two lieutenants killed, and 16 others wounded—in all, 44 men killed, and 266 wounded. The ships are considerably damaged by shot and shell. The French loss is 30 killed and 186 wounded.

On the evening of the 26th—the succeeding day—the Russians 80,000 strong, made a sortie from the town as well as from the direction of Balaklava, but were repulsed with great slaughter, 1,000 men it is stated, being left dead upon the field.

According to the latest telegraphic advices, though the attack upon the fortifications from the sea had not been renewed, the bombardment from the heights was still vigorously continued, and the Quarantine Fort and Fort Constantine had been razed, while the Southern tower and other forts had been demolished. The town it is stated was also on fire in three different places.

It was evident that Sevastopol could not hold out much longer, and according to one account, the assault would be made on the 2nd or 3d of the present month (November.)

A telegraphic despatch was received in Liverpool, by a Greek house, to the effect that the place had been positively captured, but though this is by many believed to be true, it requires confirmation.

The telegraphs of this morning, (Nov. 7th) state that the town of Sevastopol is a mass of ruins; that the French Chasseurs kill all the artillery men who show themselves at the embrasures, and that all night shells were poured into the forts, leaving the enemy no possibility of repairing disasters.

The Russian fleet had sought shelter under the buildings alongside the quays, but the allies were about to fire upon them from new batteries with red-hot balls.

A London Gazette extraordinary was published this morning with further despatches from Lord Raglan.

Lord Dunkellin of the Coldstream Guards, was taken prisoner by the enemy during the recent engagements.

The Russians had withdrawn from the forts in the vicinity of Balaklava.

Lord Raglan states that Prince Menschikoff is not in Sebastopol, but with the main body of the army in the plains north of Bachsi Serai.

It is stated that the French have lost 250 men, principally by explosions, while the English loss is under 100 killed and wounded on the land side.

As both the British and French forces have been much cut up by disease, and by the loss in engagements, reinforcements are urgently called for, and both from England and France they are forthcoming.

During the last and present week, about 4000 men will have been sent out from England. These include the detachments of regiments which have arrived from Canada, the men of which are all in a state of fine health and efficiency. While the bounty for each soldier enlisting, has been raised to £6 for the Cavalry, and £7 15s for the Infantry, the standard height throughout the service has been reduced by an inch.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—From Havana.—By the arrival of the steamship Black Warrior we have been put in receipt of Havana dates to the 16th inst.

The Delta says it has received information from an authentic source, to the effect that the inhabitants of Cuba generally were in a state of the wildest enthusiasm, and contemplated an important rising in the course of a few days. The same paper also publishes a bold and energetic proclamation issued by the Cuba "Club of Terrorists." The other New Orleans papers are without any information in confirmation of the above, and discredit the report. The Governor of Trinidad is reported to be held a prisoner at Havana.

Destructive Conflagration.—Placide's Theatre—the Varieties—on Gravier street, caught fire at 3 o'clock this morning, in the scenery near the stage, and was totally destroyed.—The entire wardrobe of the theatre is believed to have also been destroyed. There was no insurance on the building, and but $3,000 on the wardrobe. The Ravel Family had just commenced an engagement there, and have lost very heavily. Mr. Placide was sleeping in the building at the time, and narrowly escaped with his life from a third story window. The loss is estimated at $75,000.

The total number of deaths in New Orleans from yellow fever, the past week, was 36.

BARNUM AND THE BAPTISTS.—The New York Post informs us that the Baptists of Zoar, Conn., desiring to build a larger church, offered their old one for sale. It was bought by Barnum, and a terrible rumor soon pervaded the village that the great showman intended it to stable his elephants in! The sale of the animals has doubtless quieted the alarm.

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE BOOK.
TOWN AND COUNTRY:
OR
LIFE AT HOME AND ABROAD,
WITHOUT AND WITHIN US.
By John S. Adams.
The Undersigned will publish, early in December, the above work, with illustrations from original designs, in one elegant 12 mo volume of about 400 pages.
It is a book suited for all times and places, and is distinguished by its living, energetic style, boldness of expression, and originality of thought.
The SKETCHES OF LIFE,—true to the originals, exhibiting the various phases of Town Life, its Temptations, Trials, Conflicts, and Conquests of Minds struggling amid diverse circumstances, together with rich and charming Pictures of the Country, the sinless heart, and the happy home, cannot but deeply interest the reader, and at the same time touch a cord of the heart that will vibrate in strong sympathy with all those who are battling for the right.
Of the Stories, 'Saved by Kindness,' 'The Hope of the Fallen,' 'Better than Gold,' and 'The Disinherited,' will not fail to impart a salutary influence.
Of the shorter Sketches and Essays, 'Little Nelly,' 'The Old Tree and its Lessons,' 'Letters and Letter Writing,' 'What is Truth?' 'A Text for a Life-time,' and the 'Immensity of Creation,' will be found to contain many a fine thought, incentive to an independent action of mind in the pursuit of Truth. Of the Humorous articles may be noted, the 'Autobiography of an Automaton,' 'Bandbox Movement,' and 'Not made for an Editor.'
Interspersed throughout these pages are many genuine Poems, not a mere jingling of rhyme, with more regard to sound than sense, but veritable poems; brilliant, soul-electrifying thoughts, clothed in simple words, yet intense in style and earnest in expression, bearing to some, like a text for a volume. Of these poems, the accomplished Editors of the "Home Journal" speaks in high terms. George P. Morris, whose judgment in such matters is unexceptionable, says, "Some of them are exquisite, and all of them have merit; their publication in a volume will be a valuable contribution to the stores of American literature." N. P. Willis fully coincides with Mr. Morris in his opinion, and adds, "Those that I have read are true poetry; they are well worth publishing." A distinguished literary gentleman of Philadelphia writes as follows: "I have read several of these poems with much pleasure; that they have been praised by two of the most gifted poets of our country is sufficient indication of their merit."

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called
FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INTERNAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.
Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.
A WORD TO THE LADIES.
Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the URERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.
MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.
I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.
This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.
CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1863," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1854.

NO DISPARAGEMENT.—The Boston Courier, speaking of Mr. Soule, says:

In a former article, a desire of building up an argument on American grounds induced us to put our position perhaps rather too strongly. We may say that there was no intention of making any disparaging comparisons between Mr. Soule and a refugee from labor in the South. His expatriation was honorable to him as a man and a sincere republican. His talents fit him to do credit to his adopted country in very many high positions. Nevertheless, we believe that in his present position he is not so well qualified, either by temper or by political antecedents, to represent the country, as many others who were eligible to the appointment.

Query—On which side would the disparagement fall? Compare Soule with Fred. Douglass if you please. Douglass' expatriation was quite as honorable to him, as a man and republican, as Soule's can be. And as to temper and talents, he need not fear any comparison that can be drawn between the native American mulatto, and the peppery Frenchman, who is always getting into broils and brawls.

Both Soule and Douglas left their masters, hoping to be free men and free citizens. Both are about equally men of color—both able orators. Who is disparaged?

OLD ISSUES.—Some writer in Ohio has seen in the Know Nothing movement, a revival of the old federal policy; and instead of laughing at the eggs in this mare's nest, he is trying to frighten the democracy therewith.—He says these wicked Know Nothings are getting up "a revival of the Alien and Sedition Laws, (under the Know Nothing creed) a National Bank and a Protective Tariff."

We think a new alien law stands a good chance; but not a sedition law nor a protective traffic.

There is not much prospect of a National Bank at present,—but there will be a loud call for a Bankrupt Law in a few years, and the people will have it, under the great democratic doctrine of the popular sovereignty.

THE REMAINS OF MADAME SONTAG.—English papers publish the following extract from a private letter, dated Vera Cruz, October 4th:—

"The great object of conversation here for the last week has been Madame Sontag. Her husband departed from Mexico immediately after her death, leaving the remains behind. The coffin containing them has been brought to this place by one of the ordinary carrier's carts, like any common package, having been valued in the carrier's invoice at $200. On its arrival here it was first placed in the Church of St. Augustine, but being found offensive, it was taken, without any ceremony, religious or other, to a deserted church outside the town, to wait the consent of some ship's captain to convey it to Europe. As yet none has been found who would admit it into his vessel. Assuredly, if this poor lady did not anticipate in her childhood that she should become one day a grand dame of world wide celebrity, she can have dreampt still less of the indignities her remains have been subject to, such as the poorest peasant would sacrifice everything to spare any member of his family."

As a general thing, it is better to bury the mortal remains within a few days after death, and within a convenient distance also. There are exceptions, caused by feelings and circumstances,—but the best rule is, not to burden the living, nor to endanger life, by useless care for the dead. In this, as in many other things, a medium course is the true policy.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY LECTURES.—The lecture, last evening, by Rev. Mr. Milburn, the blind preacher, was exceedingly interesting and very amusing. His theme—"The rifle, the axe, and the saddle bags"—was the basis of a description of western character, the first portion being devoted to the hunter, the second to the farmer, and the last to the teacher. His illustrations were pictures from life, portrayed by a master mind, and met with a warm response from the audience. The lecturer is a young man of some thirty-five years, we should judge. His appearance is pleasing, and the style of his elocution is graceful in the extreme. He tells an anecdote in the most agreeable manner, and altogether he is about as pleasant a lecturer as could be desired. It could be hardly realized that the sparkling and graceful speaker before the audience was blind.—Boston Post.

The same lecture will be delivered before the Mercantile Association, on Friday evening next. The evening is changed on account of Thanksgiving.

WHY LAWRENCE WENT SO.—The Lawrence Courier gives the reasons why Lawrence "went" as it did the other day—all American:—

"The causes are as open to notice as the daylight. They are first, the attitude of Irish foreigners, induced by the base cajoling and huckstering of demagogues, in reference to the ballot box; and second, the attitude of the priests in reference to our public schools, and the Bible in the schools."

SNOW.—The first snow of the season, in Portland, fell on Wednesday, snowing moderately several hours. The ground there is now white with snow.

Trains are now running from Buffalo to Detroit in eight hours—seventeen hours was a quick passage a year ago.

THE SOULE AFFAIR.—The Courier des Etats Unis has a version of Mr. Soule's affair with the French Government, different from any other that has appeared. It says Louis Napoleon's instructions to his police were as follows:

"In case Mr. Soule shall declare his intention to enter France, to tarry a long or a short time, he must be notified, that his sojourn in France is forbidden.

"In case the Minister of the United States to the Court of Spain, shall simply demand to traverse France, in order to reach his post, vise his passport."

It states that Mr. Soule was not absolutely forbidden to enter France, but merely requested to remain in Calais twenty-four hours, or until the passport officers in that place could communicate with Paris. If this version of the affair is correct, it fully explains what has been termed the retraction of the French Government.

THE BRANDY THAT IS COMING.—The following paragraph from the New York Journal of Commerce shows the manner in which the deficiency of the vintage in France is to be made up:

"Pure Brandy.—Since the French government have forbidden the distillation of cereals a very active export demand has sprung up here for raw whiskey and common rum, and prices have materially advanced, with large freight engagements for France. When it comes back it will not be recognized, either by the smell, taste, or price."

Uncle Toby would say to the young men, Don't touch the stuff.

FELL AMONG PHILISTINES. — A young man who has been employed in one of the Amesbury mills, paid a visit to Newburyport on Tuesday evening last, and wishing to see the sights, he visited a number of the fashionable dispensatories of exhilarating fluids, after getting sufficiently inflated there, he became an easy victim to the Philistines, who fleeced him out of $21, the whole amount of cash capital, he had for investment. The watch provided him with lodgings, at the City Infirmary.

We understand that the bank note brokers are very busy just now; the streams of currency coming in for redemption, and of all kinds is very large; contraction of this character is going on with great rapidity. The amount of grain and provisions coming from the West is limited in extent, but whether this proceeds from a scarcity of currency, or a scarcity of the commodities, is a matter not yet fully determined. We incline to the belief that the late troubles in the West render it difficult to procure the immediate means to put the wheels in motion.

The merchants of New York have stood up manfully against the intense pressure in the money market existing now for a long time. Their heavy payments are nearly over, and it is to be hoped that no mercantile disasters of consequence will happen. The almost total absence of remittances from the West, has no doubt pinched many houses who have, with good reason calculated to collect their debts. As New York deals with all quarters of the compass, a slapse of payments from any one, while the others are punctual, can be borne without essential damage.—N. Y. Express.

The Sicilian correspondent of the New York Sun says, in reply to a statement recently given in the papers by Mr. Seymour on the authority of an official visitor to the Roman convents, that "half of the nuns die raving mad before the age of twenty-four." This is so far from true, that I believe nine-tenths of the nuns are above that age. You may see any number of old shriveled, sallow, animated mummies, looking out of their grated windows on any fine day, and hardly see one among them below that age.

WHO WILL GIVE IN AID OF THE WIDOW AND HER ORPHANS?—We met a little girl in the Court House yesterday, inquiring for the Police Court. She stated that her father—a piano-forte maker—died about two months ago; that he left seven small children, and that she was bearing—at the request of her sick mother—a clean shirt to her little brother, ten years old, who had been arrested on a charge of stealing old iron somewhere on the South Cove, and who was then confined in one of the cells in the Court House. Here was a tale of wo—brief but touching. The author—a mere child—an American child—bright and intelligent, said that she had been obliged to work in a band box factory since her father's death, and that a younger sister worked with her. Her little brother, too, had contributed to the support of his mother.—Will some person of means investigate this case, relieve this afflicted widow, and help to feed and clothe her orphans?—Boston Cour.

SEBASTOPOL.—This is a compound Greek word, made up of Sebastos and polis, the former of which signifies august, most holy, or sacred, the latter a city, together the august city. Sebastos was a word appropriated by the Roman Emperors of the Eastern Empire. It was an imperial prefix and was the Greek equivalent for the Latin Augustus, which was applied to the Cæsars.—Bangor Journal.

As v is often substituted for b in the spelling of this word, it may be well to state that the modern Greeks often use the two letters synonymously. Any scholar, who has studied the modern Greek, or Romaic, will be aware of this fact.

SARATOGA, Nov. 22.—A smart snow storm prevailed here this morning, and now lies four inches deep. The sleighing is good.

Religious persecution in Tuscany, Italy, has been renewed, and persons of both sexes and all ages, thrown into dungeons for reading the Bible.

HEAVY LOSS.—A New York correspondent of a Philadelphia paper, writes that Mrs. Sinclair Forrest has returned from California, having made—a loss of $30,000.

There are 120,000 Jews in the United States, as is shown by the synagogue rolls.

The Buffalo papers are complaining of the negligence of some of the citizens, in regard to clearing the snom from the sidewalks. The sleighing is excellent.

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL.

In Board of Aldermen, a petition of Samuel Jones and others that a license be granted for a bowling alley to Ira G. Stearns, was laid on the table.

The report from the Council respecting the safety of public buildings, was laid on the table.

In the Common Council, the Committee to whom was referred the matter of the safety of public buildings, made a report, which was accepted and sent up.

☞ Hon. N. B. Banks, Jr. of Waltham, Mass, delivered a lecture at the Temple on Thusday evening, on the Mechanic Arts, their influence on Commerce, and ascribing to them, as we understood him, a great superiority over all other pursuits.

The orator's voice is good, and his elocution agreeable and effective. The lecture abounded in statistics, and was illustrated by some pertinent remarks on the present war in Europe; and was closed by reciting Hood's Song of the Shirt.

For the Chronicle.

WANT OF GOOD MANNERS.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me, through the columns of your paper, to say a word or two to those persons who are in the habit of attending our lyceum lectures with the apparent design to create all the disturbance they can, by talking and laughing. There are some, who, whether the lecturer be great or small, and whether the lecture be good, or good for nothing, make a practice of talking, oftentimes in so audible a tone that their conversation may be distinctly heard by the occupants of neighboring seats, and also indulging in an incessant and senseless giggle. But however annoying this may be to us—and it is not too much to say that it is excessively annoying—there is another, who, we are sure, if he have any sensibility, must suffer far more than we; and that other is, of course, the lecturer. But aside from the wound to his feelings—that being to many a mere secondary consideration—such behavior in the lecture room is very disrespectful to the speaker. What if all the audience should turn their faces from him, and begin to laugh and chatter; how long think you would he stand there, telling his experience to the backs of their heads—speaking forth his noble thoughts and aspirations to the senseless ceiling, or cracking his jokes with the great white walls, that will not even echo his pleasant utterances?

The clergyman who preaches all through the Sabbath hours, while two or three stout men before him sleep during the services, complains of their inattention. We think, however, his position is preferable to that of the lecturer; inasmuch as he has the satisfaction of seeing that his sermon has some effect upon some of his congregation—acting as a nepenthe on those stout men—throwing them into a delicious slumber; which, by the by, many of our hard working poor need more than the good strong doctrinal sermon that is administered to them while they rest in the arms of sleep.

Now if our lyceum lecturer could be as fortunate as our doctrinal preacher, we would not object to a seat directly behind those individuals to whom we would write, kindly and respectfully requesting them, for the sake of those who attend our lyceums to hear, and not to be heard—to listen, and not to be listened to—and for the sake of the lecturer whom we have called upon to address us—and above all for their own sakes, if they have any desire to be respected—to keep quiet while they occupy seats in the lecture room, or keep themselves at home!

Portsmouth, Nov. 22, 1854.

THE MAMMOTH HEIFER, advertised in another column, as on exhibition in Hanover street, for a few days, is indeed a monster—in size only, for she is as docile and gentle as she is large, with a mild eye and beautiful head and face. All who take any interest in animals, should see this huge specimen.

THE HARTFORD CATHOLIC EXCITEMENT. The Bishop of Hartford, Bernard O'Reilley, publishes a letter in the Providence Journal, in which he states that he was not asked to give a burial place in front of the church in Hartford for Rev. Mr. Brady—that it was not a suitable place for a grave, being a public side-walk—that Mr. Brady owned a burial ground where the Bishop had a right to suppose he would prefer to be buried—that the Hartford Church belongs to him, (the Bishop)—and that had he been informed in season of Mr. Brady's wish to be buried "near the church," he would at once have directed his interment within the church. The Bishop further says that he removed Mr. Brady from his pastoral charge-for reasons which justified him so far as to leave him no other alternative before conscience.

As the Mississippi river steamer Michigan was approaching Memphis a few days since, several state rooms were broken open and robbed of their valuables. The robber, a well dressed, gentlemanly looking man, was discovered, and to avoid capture leaped overboard and it is supposed was drowned. The property stolen, consisting of $1800 and six gold watches, was recovered.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

HALIFAX, Nov. 26.—The Cunard steamship Canada, Capt. Stone, from Liverpool 11th inst., arrived at this port at a late hour last night.

The latest dates from the Crimea state that Sebastopol has not yet been taken; but that the siege was progressing slowly but surely.

The British public were anxious and complaining.

Reliable accounts of the engagement at Balaclava on the 25th have been received. It proves to have been a most serious affair, and far more disastrous to the English forces than was at first represented.

Mr. Soule, the American Minister, has gone to Madrid via Paris.

BREADSTUFFS.—There is a considerable advance on all articles, though the speculative demand early in the week fell off at its close. Richardson, Spence & Co. quote an advance of 4s on Flour, 6d on Wheat, and 3s on Corn. Quotations: Western Canal Flour 43s; white Wheat 13s; Corn 45s and 46s 6d.

Provisions generally firmer, owing to the large wants of government.

OGDENSBURG, Nov. 22.—This morning about 4 o'clock, one of our citizens, and for many years a resident here, was caught in the act of firing a building. The public opinion is that to the individual now caught we are to look for an explanation of nearly all the fires which have rapidly swept our village for several years past, all of which have happened about 4 o'clock in the morning.

BANGOR, Nov. 22.—It has been snowing moderately here all the afternoon, and at 9 P. M. the storm is increasing. There is no ice yet in the river.

A large quantity of lumber has come from the mills since the late rise of water, and there is much now in dock and in course of shipment. Vessels are scarce.

BUFFALO, Nov. 22.—The new schooner Grand Turk, laden with railroad iron, was run into on Saturday last by an unknown schooner, on Lake Erie, and sunk almost instantly after the collision. The helmsman was killed. She will be a total loss. She was insured for $12,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—Messrs. Reeves, Buck & Co., iron manufacturers, have failed. Their liabilities are stated at $8,000,000, and their assets at $1,500,000.

Naval.—The U. S. ship Jamestown is now being fitted out at the navy yard for a year's cruise.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Drummond, of the U. S. Circuit Court for Illinois, recently decided in the case of Joseph C. Mitchell, free negro, v. Charles H. Lamar, that a free negro was not a citizen of the United States, and therefore not entitled to maintain a suit before the U. S. Circuit Court. It is stated that Judge McLean coincided in the opinion of Judge Drummond.

NEW YORK.—THE GOVERNOR VOTE.—The Tribune says Governor Seymour's friends are now overhauling the records of the election in the several counties in search of votes for "H. Seymour" and otherwise presumedly for Horatio Seymour, though not correctly written or printed. We understand that so far the defective ballots discovered sum up—Seymour 240, Clark 90.

HOGS.—The Louisville Courier of 17th says: supplies light and the packing is small; views of buyer and seller conflict; small lots at 5 1-4c net; a packer offered 2000 hogs at 4 1-2c on time without a buyer. New mess pork for Dec. delivery offered at $12 without buyers; 1000 tcs. prime lard offered at 9c cash. Old bacon declining; sale of 65,000 lbs of loose shoulders at 5c.

It seems that the Erie troubles are not ended. The Plain Dealer of the 17th says: "It seems that our neighbors of the 'Sleepy Borough' are preparing for war. The Common Council of that city have passed resolutions authorising the Mayor to direct the High Constable to 'remove the railroad track occupying the street, after one week's notice to the Railroad Company.'"

A CASE SETTLED.—The Newburyport Herald says, the case of Mrs. Niles against the city, for damage sustained by defect in the side walk, has been settled by the payment of five hundred dollars. The case has been standing two years, and the lady has not yet recovered. Originally she proposed to settle the matter for one hundred dollars, but by delaying, in hopes to reduce the demand to fifteen, it has grown to five hundred.

Juvenile Singing School,

FOR MISSES.

A. PEARSON will commence a Term of Instruction in Singing, for young Misses,

On Saturday Afternoon, Nov. 25,

at 2 o'clock,

to be held Wednesday and Saturday Afternoons, in Exchange Hall, No 4 Exchange Buildings.

TICKETS $1 for 24 Lessons—may be obtained at Wm. R. Preston's, Jas. H. Head's, and at the Hall.

The Book used at this School, is Baker's School Music Book—a new and excellent work, which was used at the last Term, and will afford fine study for several Terms of progressive lessons. Price 38 cents—to be had at the Hall.

Grateful for the confidence already reposed in him by parents as well as others, Mr. Pearson would respectfully announce that he has convenient and beautiful accommodations for eighty scholars; and that he will spare no pains to render profitable and agreeable to the children, that which is to him one of the most pleasant branches of the musical profession.

DR. CARL V. MEYER'S

GERMAN

HOMEOPATHIC BALSAM

THE discovery of this remarkable sanative medicine was obtained by means of a thoro' scientific analysis of the celebrated

MINERAL SPRINGS OF CARLSBAD,

In Bohemia, well known throughout Europe and Asia for their wonderful curative properties in all cases of confirmed disease and general debility of the human system

Every summer, thousands of invalids of both sexes, who are afflicted by long standing and obstinate complaints, that have baffled the most eminent medical skill, undergo a fatiguing journey of many hundred miles, to drink and bathe in the healing waters of Carlsbad. That they are liberally repaid for their journey, the hundreds of testimonials, in all languages, that arrest the eye of the promenader, in his walks about the place, abundantly testify. These enduring testimonials of gratitude for recovery of health, are cut on stone and fastened to huge rocks, some are chiseled fairly on the rocks, some are painted on wood and fastened to fences and trees—all certifying that the undersigned were seriously afflicted by disease and despaired of recovery, but they came to Carlsbad and drank of the water, and after a time become thoroughly cured and testified their gratitude in this way. Many have arrived so feeble and prostrated that life seemed almost extinct, but after drinking and bathing in the waters a few months, were thoroughly restored to health.

Medical properties of these waters are particularly effective in eradicating from the system every species of disease—particularly of a Scrofulous nature—and for that reason have become popular resorts for persons afflicted with any long standing or hereditary Humor. They range in temperature from tepid to boiling hot, and are very pleasant to the taste.

This Balsam—owning to its wonderful healing properties—may be used EXTERNALLY, as well as internally, and is far better in its effects than any salve or ointment, for it acts DIRECTLY ON THE PART DISEASED, and on no other, just in proportion to which the part is affected.

The use of this Balsam every second or third night, just before going to bed, will supersede the use of pills, (which generally leave the bowels in a torpid state,) and relieve those affections called

DYSPEPSIA,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

Piles, Costiveness, and

WANDERING PAINS,

In most cases engendered by two close confinement in workshops, counting rooms and stores, where too little time is allowed for meals and recreation.

IN SLOW OR CHRONIC DISEASES,

SUCH AS

Scrofula, White Swellings, Scorbutive Eruptions, Ulcers, Erysipelas,

Paralytic and Nervous Affections,

CANKER,

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN,

This Balsam is exceedingly efficacious.

SALT RHEUM,

PILES,

PIMPLES ON THE FACE,

Running Sores, Eruptions of the Skin,

May be cured by using the Medicine according to the directions.

IN CASES OF NEURALGIA,

AND ALL

RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS,

This Balsam will prove a sure remedy.

FOR COLDS,

COUGHS,

SORE THROAT,

AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE

THROAT AND LUNGS,

This Balsam is the most effectual and lasting remedy ever presented to the public. If you should have a severe paroxysm of coughing, take some of the Balsam, and it will afford immediate relief.—IT MAKES YOU EXPECTORATE EASILY, AND NEVER TIGHTENS A COUGH.

FEMALES

Troubled with a sensation of fullness at the pit of the stomach, or tightness across the chest, or suffering from obstructions or irregularities of the system, will receive relief by taking one tablespoonful on going to bed.

Those troubled with periodical turns of

HEADACHE,

Will find relief by taking a dose of the Balsam If at any time there is an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, caused by imprudence in eating or otherwise, this Balsam will give immediate relief.

It also acts powerfully as an ALTERATIVE and will always be effective in

PURIFYING AND REGULATING THE

SYSTEM.

Wherever this Balsam has been introduced, it has proved as invaluable

Nursery Medicine,

Superseding the use of all other aperients—and its salutary and soothing effects render it a superior anodyne, and preferable to any of the cordials used for that purpose. Its pleasant and agreeable taste recommends it particularly for

CHILDREN,

Thereby sparing the distress usually attending the administration of nauseous medicine.

This Balsam is put up in unique Metalic Cases, containing about one pint, accompanied with particular directions for using it, in both German and English. The packages are very compact, and conveniently adapted for transportation without breakage any distance, and can be forwarded by Express to any part of the United States.

Should any purchasers of this Balsam upon trial find the operation different from what is said in the directions which accompany each package, they are at liberty to return the medicine to my office and have the money refunded.

Price One Dollar.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than 30 thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y. "W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. T. Parke, M.D., Prest. College of Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:—

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork: and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which has been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS

With the U. S. Patent Office, Washington,

No. 76 state Street, oppo. Kilby street, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby application will be prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and check accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished for printing one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill and despatch. I consider Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the easy flow and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as it never needs wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not corrode nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to stamp upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb: FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PLANTERS, Farmers, Families and others can purchase no Remedy equal to DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT, for Dysentery, Colic, Croup, Chronic Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Toothache, Sea Sickness, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Bruises, Old Sores, Headache, Musquito Bites, Pains in the Limbs, Chest, Back, etc.

If it does not give relief, the money will be refunded; all that is asked is a fair trial, and use it according to the directions.

It is an English Remedy, and was used by William IV, late King of England, and certified to by him, as a cure for Rheumatism, when everything else had failed.

Over 10,000,000 bottles have been sold in the United States, without a single failure; and many have stated that they would not be without it if it was $10 per bottle, in case of Croup, as it is as certain as it is applied.

It cures Cholera, when first taken, in a few hours; Dysentery in half an hour; Toothache in five minutes. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in the United States. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Dr. Tobias could fill a dozen Newspapers with certificates and letters relating to the wonderful cures accomplished by his Liniment, but considers warranting it sufficient, as any person who does not obtain relief, need not pay for it.

Price 50 cents. Dr. Tobias's Office, 240 Green Dr. Tobias has put up a HORSE LINIMENT in pint bottles, which is warranted cheaper and better than any other for Cholic, Scratches, Old Sores, Galls, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, etc. which street, New York.

MUSICAL CONVENTIONS.

We were some months ago desired by one of our subscribers in England, to give him something of a definite idea of what we in America term a "Musical Convention." As such gatherings for musical improvement are becoming more and more common in this country, and as many even here do not clearly understand their object, we have thought a few words in explanation might prove interesting to our readers both at home and abroad.

Musical conventions are peculiarly American. They are designed to furnish teachers and choir singers with means of musical improvement, such as they are not otherwise likely to enjoy. If we except three or four conventions held in obscure parts of New Hampshire, and of which we know little beyond the fact that the first occurred in 1829, and was of two days continuance, musical conventions were at first confined to our large cities, and designed to afford instruction mainly to teachers of vocal music. The first of this kind was held in Boston, by the Boston Academy of Music, in the year 1834. It was of ten days' continuance, and the class in attendance numbered twelve. These came together to listen to the instructions of Lowell Mason, and Geo. J. Webb, and especially to learn the Pestalozzian system of teaching the elements of music. The class of 1835 numbered seventeen.

So far, it will be observed, the character of this gathering was that of a Teachers' Institute, designed mainly, to teach its members how to teach music. Soon after, ladies and gentlemen who sought musical gratification and instruction, and others who had no intention of teaching, joined the class from year to year, till, in 1851, the eighteenth of the kind, held under the patronage of the Boston Academy of Music, numbered fifteen hundred, and partook more of the character of the Musical Festivals so common in England and Germany. While instruction was a prominent feature, it was no longer the overshadowing one, for engrafted upon this was the festival system of rehearsing the compositions of the old masters, public concert giving, etc.

In the mean time, the singers of various inland towns in New England and other parts of the country more remote from the seaboard cities, began very naturally to reason with each other after this manner: "It is cheaper for a competent director of music to come to us from Boston or New York, than for us to go to him. Now, let us employ a competent person to come and take charge of a convention in our village, and though it may be less imposing than a Boston Academy Convention, it will bring to our doors advantages that the great majority of our choir singers would not otherwise enjoy, and we shall at the same time do much to musically interest and educate the people of our community at large." This reasoning prevails, and a suitable director is employed, who drills and imparts instructions to the singers thus brought together from the neighboring towns, at a cost of perhaps $100, a sum that would hardly enable four persons to enjoy similar advantages in one of our large cities.

Thus have musical conventions been popularized, till now there will probably be held during the present season in the Northern and Western States, not less than fifty of these musical gatherings. Though differing in some of their details, to suit local circumstances, they sufficiently resemble each other in their chief outlines to admit of a general description. In continuance, they vary from two to four days, to suit the convenience of the director, and the wants of the people. They are most usually, perhaps, held three days. The convention has a forenoon session of about three hours, an afternoon session of three hours, and an evening session of about two hours. The forenoon is devoted to the cultivation of the voice, chanting, the practice of psalm and hymn tunes, interspersed with criticisms upon matters of taste and expression, and remarks upon the different classes of church tunes, for example, Congregational tunes, as distinguished from choir tunes; which are adapted to psalms of general praise; which to hymns of penitence; and which to words of a hortatory character, etc.

In short, the forenoon is mainly devoted to instruction, and care is taken in the vocal practice of the morning not to fatigue the voice. In the afternoon, it may be, glees, madrigals, etc., are rehearsed with remarks upon different styles, the chief aim being to see how promptly and well these may be taken up and rendered at sight. These exercises are interspersed with criticisms and remarks upon the various instructive topics that may be suggested. The evening is usually devoted to the practice of heavy choruses, in which all the voices and instruments are combined.

This general outline is continued until the last day of the session, when the singers will be very likely to be a good deal fatigued, and care should be taken to make their vocal labors throughout the day as light as is consistent with a proper preparation for the evening concert that closes the convention. In the afternoon of this day it is usual to rehearse, in order, the programme for the evening concert, or at least, such parts of it as are to be performed by the convention as a whole. If this rehearsal goes badly, neither singers nor director are to be discouraged, for oftentimes a wretched rehearsal is succeeded by the most satisfactory public performance, owing mainly to the increased responsibility that performers feel in the latter.

From what we have said of the objects and modus operandi of musical conventions, it will be seen that they have the effect of bringing country singers under the instruction of one who is supposed to be familiar with artistic and metropolitan tastes. While, therefore, they elevate the standard of musical taste and execution, and afford instruction mingled with pleasure, their most salutary results are witnessed in the improvement of choir singers and church music generally. They also have a happy social influence in breaking down the jealousies that too often exist between members of different choirs and the singers of neighboring places. Envious ranklings can not long be retained in the hearts of those whose voices are united in sustaining the burden of happy songs: icebergs accustomed to rudely jostle each other are dissolved in their genial rays, and a fusion of hearts is pretty sure to accompany a blending of voices. A reflux influence, more subtle, but not less important, is exerted upon the community at large. A multitudinous, enthusiastic gathering of this sort, by its very noise and eclat, awakens an abiding interest in the subject of music among hundreds who do not partake in its festivities, and sets in operation agencies that, like mountains upheaved by a volcano, remain, enduring monuments, long after the causes that produced them are forgotten.

LIQUOR LAW IN N. H.

A writer in the New Hampshire Patriot, who is evidently afraid that the Maine Law will be enacted in this State, says:—

Our existing law has not its equal for stringency in any State of the Union. Its enforcement (were public opinion in favor of a rigid application) would ruin every liquor seller in the State in a month. Our law is as oppressive as justice can tolerate.* It works easily and effectually. It is much more summary in its provisions and operation than the Maine Law. Its substantiality and efficacy disprove the necessity for any organic change in its features. A little amendment may be necessary, but none such as would vitiate its present character. It ought to be left reasonably rational to secure the public respect. All then that the real friends of prohibition could desire would be its complete enforcement. I believe that honest temperance men do not wish for more power than the law now furnishes.

This paragraph induced us to look at our present liquor or license law of New Hampshire, as given in the compiled statutes. It is somewhat more stringent, we believe, than most of our people seem to be aware of.

Section 1, provides that selectmen may (not must,) on application, license any suitable person (or we suppose as many as they please) to exercise the business of a taverner,—but such license does not empower him to sell wine or liquor unless expressly stated. From this we infer that they may authorise the selling of drams.

Sec. 2, obliges the licensed taverner to keep proper accommodations and provisions for travellers, horses and cattle; and fines him $5 for neglect.

Sec. 3, prohibits Sunday drinking at the tavern, and excessive drinking at any time, as also cards, dice, billiards and bowling, at or about the tavern, under a fine of not more than $20 on the keeper.

Sec. 4, provides for revoking the licenses of those who break any of the preceding regulations.

Sec. 5, says, The selectmen shall license one or more persons in each town to sell liquors for medicinal, mechanical and chemical purposes, and no others.

Sec. 6, fines those who sell without license, from $20 to $50.

Sec. 9, requires justices of the peace to bind over offenders against sec. 6, to keep the peace,—in bonds of $500.

In Connecticut, it is stated in the Hartford Daily Courant that the jail in Windham Co. is to let for a boarding house! The operation of the new anti-liquor law in Connecticut, it is said, has brought about this result.

The Concord, N. H. Patriot, copying the above item, adds the following pleasant statement.

We have been in the same position in this county [Merrimack] for several days past, and a moral veneration for propriety in general has brought about this happy consequence. We have no Maine Law in New Hampshire, but a much more practicable and effectual license regulation.

We believe the liquor law of New Hampshire, at the present time, and for a few months past, is and has been enforced more thoroughly in the county of Merrimack, than elsewhere in the State. We are inclined to think that this circumstance has something to do with emptying the jail in Concord. We rejoice at the moral veneration for propriety in general, and temperance in particular.

*An oppressive law cannot be just.—Ed. Chron.

ENGLISH KNOWLEDGE OF AMERICA.—The Liverpool (Eng.) Journal says:

"The Yankees, having the opportunity, try many experiments; and we ought to profit by the results. The Maine Liquor Law was one of their fooleries; but drunkenness in Maine will put a stop to the nonsense of making laws for enforcing sobriety."

The Liverpool Journal has simply deceived itself by believing the false statements of the jug-men. If the editor could have access to the records of pauperism and crime in Maine, as compared with those of other States without such a law, he would perceive that even the imperfect enforcement of the law so far, has greatly diminished drunkenness in Maine.

His argument, if he makes one, or this reversed statement, must stand on the other end, and lean the other way.

THE BIGGEST YET.—Our pressman, Edwin, (belonging to Dr. Mordecai) to whose care and attention, by the by, we are largely indebted for the superior press work of the Tribune, brought to the office yesterday a sweet potato of the yam species, which is by far the largest we have seen this season. It measures twenty inches in circumference, and weighs nearly seven pounds. It would serve half a dozen persons for dinner. Who can beat it? Trot up the specimens.—Mobile Tribune.

Here's a pressman for the next edition of Uncle Tom; a superior pressman, to whom somebody is indebted,—and yet the poor fellow don't belong to himself, but to a Dr. somebody. Columbia, land of liberty!

Good beef is selling in the streets at from three and a half to four cents per pound.—Utica Observer.

THE EASTERN RAILROAD.—From an article in the Newburyport Herald, on the money market, railroads, &c., we extract the following well-timed remarks respecting the Eastern Railroad:

We find in the Middle and Eastern States, that railways more than any other stocks feel the pressure of the times, and it is remarkable that only one of the large corporations sells at par, and the majority of them will not average 50 per cent. The condition of our New England roads is better, but still they fail to secure the public confidence. Some of these roads are now at low figures, and it would be better for stockholders to reduce the par value to the actual worth, and start anew upon sounder and safer principles.

Among the roads so depressed, and which now comes into the market with three-quarters of a million dollars bonds, advertised at public auction in Boston, is the Eastern road. This was among the first built, and therefore expensive at the outset, and has recently added much to its cost in the extension into Boston, which last fact has obliged the issuing of mortgage bonds. Its stock now sells at 46 per cent., and is actually lower upon its real value than any other stock at the brokers' board. Its recent decline is owing to the proposed sale of bonds, but they do not change the actual worth. It simply brings their floating debt, upon which they are paying perhaps more interest than they will upon the bonds, into a more permanent form; and that they propose to liquidate from the earnings of the road, in the next ten years. By this arrangement, the dividend this year may be passed, and until these bonds are paid will be less than heretofore, but the corporation will every day reach a better condition, and its stock rise in public estimation. It cannot be a great length of time that capitalists will obtain Eastern shares at the present figures. There is no danger of any further competion with it; its business must constantly increase,—it is larger this season than ever before; and even when dividends are temporarily stopped, and the income applied to the repairs of the road instead of carrying that cost to construction, and also a portion of it to the liquidation of debts, it will be capable of a fair and just appreciation among the first class New England roads.

The bonds offered for sale, also afford a rare chance to capitalists for high interest upon their investments. Their bonds which will probably sell much below par, are as good and as safe as the bills of the Bank of England, or United States scrip. The road is where we can see it, and its value and income can be known. It is no mushroom concern in the Western States, where there is no population and no business, that does not meet its running expenses while large dividends are talked of and occasionally declared, and which would prove worthless in the hands of the bond-holders. It is an important and permanent structure that cannot be supplanted, and which will become more valuable, if properly managed, in all future time.

HOW IT LOOKS.—The Albany Argus, the pure Hard Democratic paper of the State, says of the result in its vicinity:

We were not unprepared, before the polls closed yesterday in this city, for some strange result, here if not throughout the State.

Those who were about the city could not fail to have observed that party differences and preferences were entirely obliterated and swallowed up in the intense desire on the part of Democrats to defeat Seymour, the pet of the administration, and on the part of Whigs to elect him, as the champion of the liquor interest, and to defeat their own Maine Law candidate.

But we confess, though prepared, as we thought, for any thing within the range of the extraordinaries, to our amazement to find, when the ballots were counted, how controlling and absorbing was this feeling on the one side and the other.

More than one half the Whig vote of the city went over to Seymour on the liquor issue, whilst nearly the entire Democratic vote, we are obliged to state, was thrown for Ullman. In every district of the city Irish adopted citizens did the same thing, to the utter astonishment of all beholders. The Ullman vote in this city is not more than three-fourths native born.

MAINE.—An extra of the Kennebec Journal contains the official abstract of the Congressional, Senatorial and county officer returns of votes, as given at the September election in that state. The previous statements of the election of Messrs. J. M. Wood, John J. Perry, Eben Knowlton, S. P. Benson and Israel Washburn, Jr., Whigs and Fusionists, and T. J. D. Fuller, Democrat, for Representatives to Congress, are confirmed. The last named gentleman has an official majority of 406, but 375 votes were returned for Jas. Milliken instead of Jos. A. Milliken, and this with other errors make Fuller's real majority 59.

The twenty-one Whig and Fusion State Senators before announced to be elected have been chosen, and there are ten vacancies which will be filled by the party in power.

OIL FRAUD.—We mentioned a few days since, that some gross fraud had been practised by the contractor in furnishing the oil for the lighthouses. Mr George, the keeper of the Plum Island Lights, has been compelled to purchase sperm oil in this city, in order to keep his lights burning through the night. The Government contract, was taken, to supply the light houses with the winter Sperm oil, at $1.30 per gallon, when the article was then worth $1.60. The oil which has been furnished, was probably common whale oil, which was purchased for about 55 cents per gallon, and it has been found comparatively worthless.—Newburyport Herald.

THE BURNS RIOTS.—The Mail says that the citizen soldiers of Boston have not yet received from the United States one cent as compensation for their services at the time of the Burns riots.

All the returns of the New York election are now official except from New York city, where the Aldermen are paid by the day for canvassing them. It is not known, of course, when they will get through.

STRONG BEER.

Messrs. Editors:—A few days since a person was tried in the Police Court of this city for selling strong beer, otherwise called ale, as being against the law which prohibits the sale of spirituous liquors or wines without licence. The respondent was discharged, on the ground that ale or strong beer did not come within the meaning of the Statute. The questions seem to be, what is spirituous liquor, and what is wine. Many persons may suppose that pure wine must necessarily be made from grapes, but that is a great mistake. The United States Dispensatory, by Wood and Bache, page 740, which is good medical authority throughout the United States, gives the different kinds of wine and their proportions of alcohol,—and among other wines are the following, viz:—currant wine, 20.55; gooseberry wine, 11.84; orange wine, 11.26; elder wine, 8.79; cider, 5.21 to 9.87; perry, 7.26; mead, 7.32; Burton ale, 8.88; Edinburg ale, 6.20; Brown Stout, 6.80; London Porter, 4.20; small beer, 1.28. This authority takes the ground that the above liquors undergo a vinous-fermentation, consequently are wines strictly,—and they have also ascertained that they contain the above proportions of alcohol, and nobody will pretend that alcohol is not spirituous liquor. Now, if the above authority is good, the respondent above named did sell wine, did sell alcohol,—consequently did sell spirituous liquors, and was guilty as charged.

Now, what we wish to know, is, 1st, what is spirituous liquor or wine within the meaning of the Statue, and 2d, what is the real object of the enactment. If strong beer, or ale contains the quantity of alcohol as above cited, and it is the alcohol alone which produces the intoxication, may not strong beer or ale be properly called spirituous—or, if by spirituous liquors is meant distilled spirits, ought not strong beer or ale, as it posesses a vinous character, being produced by a vinous fermentation, to be regarded legally as a wine, and the sale of it to be punished under the above act. Particularly, too, as beer or ale drinking so readily intoxicates, leads to crime and pauperism, and impairs the mind, and the physical constitution of the habitual drinker.

We shall not pretend to answer the law questions here presented; but will merely remark that the whole strong Beer family are intoxicating drinks, and therefore Uncle Toby thinks truly wise men will not muddle their brains with any of them.

MUSICAL.—On the outside of this paper will be found a description of a Musical Convention—which will well repay for perusal, all who have any interest in singing. Prof. B. F. Baker, of Boston, one of the most popular and successful teachers in the country, will hold a Convention in Portsmouth, during three or four days of the first week in January, 1855. He will bring able vocal and instrumental assistants.

☞ The first lesson of a new Term of Mr. Pearson's Juvenile Singing School, which was postponed by the rain of Wednesday afternoon, will be given at his Music Room this afternoon—as will be seen by his advertisement.

DEATH OF A CLERGYMAN.—Died in Exeter, on Thursday morning, November 23, Rev. William D. Hitchcock, pastor of the First Congregational Society in that town, aged 30.

He was ordained at Exeter just a year ago; and his early demise is greatly lamented by the church and people. His disease was fever, of which he had been sick about a fortnight.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—As the five o'clock freight train on the Worcester Railroad was passing Auburndale on Thursday morning, a brakeman named Clough was struck on the head by a bridge, knocked from the train, and it is feared fatally injured.

Mr. Henry A. Wise is a man of commanding influence in Virginia. It may be safely said that his late address, extending over some eight or ten newspaper columns, will have a great effect upon every man who reads it.—Providence Journal.

On Monday last the inhabitants of Cape Island, New Jersey, were astonished by the sight of a large whale, which was cruising backward and forward within a quarter of a mile of the shore. No attempt was made to capture it for want of proper implements.

The Northern Railroad Co. have recently put upon their road a new locomotive, built at their own engineering establishment in Concord, N. H. The 'Nesmith' is a first class engine, of superior power and speed, and is a fine specimen of workmanship.

A mechanic who had been swindled by John H. James, the broker 'banker' at Urbana, Ohio, broke that person's head with a bludgeon.

MILWAUKIE, Nov. 18.—Geo. Papendick & Co., bankers of this city, have suspended payment, but their bills are still taken at all our city banks.

RISE IN GIN. Within a week the price of foreign gin has increased in this market nearly fifty cents on a gallon, on advices received from Europe.—Boston Times

ELOPEMENT.—The Barnstable Patriot says that the village of Hyannis on the Cape, was thrown into quite an excitement on Saturday afternoon last by the reception of a letter from Mr. John Coates, a widower and recently a resident of that place, stating that he had eloped with Mrs. Henry Baker, and that it would be useless for any one to pursue them. Mr. Coates was about forty years of age and Mrs. Baker twenty-five. Her husband is a sea captain and is now absent, engaged in the duty of his profession.

New York, Nov. 22.—A Frightful Railroad Collision occurred at an early hour this morning near Yorkville. The down New Haven freight train had been detained on the road by an accident in the vicinity of Eighty-ninth street. The 5 o'clock down train from White Plains came along at the rate of thirty miles an hour, while the New Haven train was stopping, and ran into it, the locomotive "Albany" dashing into the freight car and shivering it to pieces, and injuring five other cars and their contents. The tender of the locomotive was driven into the first passenger car behind it. This car was filled with people. Men were found lying in the car, with broken arms and legs, and otherwise injured. The car was almost a complete wreck. The second car was also badly smashed, and more or less of the passengers were wounded. Two of the injured persons are reported to have died this afternoon. Their names are not mentioned. The loss of property to the railroad company is estimated at about $15,000.

Assault upon a Shipmaster.—A letter dated Leghorn, Oct. 28, states, that on the 26th, a seaman who, for some misconduct, had been reproved by the first officer of bark Prompt, of this port, and had been threatened with confinement, drew his knife and wounded the first officer in the head. Capt. Gorham, the master, immediately went to the assistance of his officer, who is also his nephew, when the murderous ruffian stabbed him in the left side, inflicting a very dangerous wound. Capt. Gorham was taken to a hotel on shore where he had the best medical attendance. At first there were very great fears that he would not recover, but on the 28th appearances were much more favorable, and it was thought in a few days he would be in a condition to be consulted as to the movements of his vessel, which was ready for sea. His nephew's wound did not prove dangerous, and he would proceed in the vessel to Sicily. The seaman escaped, but was retaken and would be punished according to the law of the land.—Boston Daily Advertiser.

Quebec, Nov. 23.—In the House of Assembly this afternoon, the third reading of Clergy Reserve Secularization Bill was passed by a vote of 62 to 39, the minority consisting of high church forces and extreme reformers, the latter acting against the bill because it allows the stipendaries to commute their life claims.

Captain Rice, of the British bark Rhea Sylvia, has been acquitted on his trial for shooting two men who came to, and attempted to board his vessel, using violent language, and whom he took to be thieves or crimps.

Cleveland, Nov. 28.—The investigation by the agent of the Treasury department shows a defalcation by ex-collector Russell, at this port, of about $100,000 in duties not accounted for. Russell was indicted for this embezzlement last spring, and recently deposited with the U. S. District Attorney securities to the extent of about $80,000.

Michigan.—The Lansing State Journal (Dem.) says that the Legislature will comprise 22 Whigs and "Abolitionists," and about 25 Democrats. The Fusion State officers, Governor, &c., are all elected.

Delaware.—The official vote for Governor in Delaware, was as follows; Causey, (American,) 6,941; Burton, (Dem.,) 6,244. Majority for Causey, 697. For Representative to Congress, Cullen, (American,) 6,820; Riddle, (Dem.,) 6,334. Majority for Cullen, 486.

Mr. Soule was in Paris on the 7th, en route for Bordeaux. The French government in withholding the prohibition, intimated that no disrespect was ever intended to the American government, but that the exclusion was entirely on private grounds.

A Russian despatch says that on the 28th and 29th, the weather in the Black Sea was terrific. The allied fleets were obliged to run out to sea, and the besieging armies were drenched by the rain in their trenches, and were unable to keep up their fire.

Somebody is trying to convince himself, and the readers of the Evening Traveller, that he is enjoying November on Peak's Island, in Portland harbor. He must be careful not to stay long enough to become winter bound—perhaps it would not be quite so pleasant.—Bath Mirror.

The Girard Estate.—The Philadelphia Ledger says the annual rental of the Girard property belonging to that city, comprising lots, dwellings, stores, warehouses, bridges, wharves, &c., amounts to $98,542.

Defaulters and Embezzlers.—Condoe, a paying teller of the American Exchange Bank, New York, has been arrested for embezzling $158,500. He has given security to the bank against loss.

Fitzgibbons, an old post office clerk in New York, has been put in prison for robbing the post office.

A clergyman in one of the pulpits in Manchester, on Sunday, remarked that there were eighty grog shops in that city.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT—

Every land has failed with Xtacy this preparation whose Intrinsic merits has introduced its
Curative powers to the notice of the whole
American people. Rheumatism of long duration,
Neuralgia, with its tortures, have yielded to its
Magical influence; canners, contorted joints,
Ulcerated and swollen limbs that have
Such led for years under the weight of disease,
Turn by its application to vigorous health.
A remedy of such general usefulness that can Restore newness of Action to the diseased nerves,
Arteries and glands of the human body,
Is worthy of high praise.

Let the rheumatic, halt, lame and palsied
Invalid examine its qualities, and they will
Not be disappointed. Testimonials and Investigation have enabled the proprietors of the

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, &c. &c. Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the descriptions of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others, by

W. Gibson, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University.
Valentine Mott, M.D., Prof. of Surgery, N. Y.
W. P. Dewees, M.D., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University.
N. Chapman, M.D., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University.
T. Parke, M.D., Pres't College of Physicians, Phila.
Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana.
Jose Enumendo Del Valle, Prof. Surgery, Lisbon.
G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.
J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London.
Sir Thomas Pearson, Maj. Gen. British Army.
Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and, being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geocentric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swain, copy right secured

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c., &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge. Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA, and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several unfeeling Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 88 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

CUNARD STEAMERS.—Mr. S. Cunard, in a letter lately published, says:

We are obligated by act of Parliament to carry boats of a stipulated size; we have not only the number required by the act, but one more in each ship; each boat has in her at all times the proper number of oars, a mast with a sail bent to it, some small water, casks, an axe, and other articles likely to be useful in cases of emergency. A crew is regularly appointed to each boat. The boats are carried in the manner in which the judgment and experience of the captain think best for their safety and usefulness; they must be well secured to the ship, or they will be carried away in heavy weather, which occasionally is the case, with all the care we take of them; four of the boats are on davits, two are within and on the top of the deck houses.

Every boat in the ship, under such circumstances, could be launched, equipped, and manned in three minutes. The boats are quite sufficient to carry every person in the ship. We are not only bound by act of Parliament to have boats and other suitable equipments, but the bonds of the admiralty order our ships to be rigidly inspected immediately before going to sea on each voyage. The public have therefore this additional security for their safety.

We make the lives of our passengers and crew our first consideration. We have been so fortunate as to carry about 100,000 passengers across the Atlantic—a distance of three thousand miles—without injury to one of them. I do not speak of this boastingly, for we know not when accidents may happen. Mr. C. alludes to the unfortunate occurrence of the Arctic. The passengers who were saved say that the boats were sufficient to carry 500 persons. There were only 400 on board. Some of the boats were lost by the unskillful management of passengers, and one not used at all. Additional boats would therefore have been useless. Capt. Luce is known to have been a good seaman, and a firm and resolute man. He did his duty under the trying circumstances in which he was placed. If his crew had stood by him, all might have been saved.

WEARING THE BEARD.—A great reform is going on in the matter of wearing beards; and they now appear in untrimed luxuriance upon the faces of men who stand at the remotest possible distance from the character of fops. In all ranks of life, and in every grade of employment, the razor is in a measure eschewed, and men are rearing to reason.—Moustaches, even, are now as common as a few years ago they were rare. The chills of coming winter will be as potent in starting beards as they will be powerful in blasting vegetation. Razors, colds, and bronchitis will be laid aside together, and a flowing beard supersede the use of an indefinite list of patent medicines.—Moor's Rural New Yorker.

INTERESTING TRIAL.—A case of some interest has just been decided at Goshen, N. Y., in the Circuit Court. It will be remembered that A. J. Downing, Esq., of Newburgh, lost his life by the terrible disaster which befel the steamer Henry Clay, July 28, 1852. Eighteen months ago, his executors commenced a suit against the owners of the steamer, claiming $5,000 damages for the loss of Mr. Downing's life, and $1,000 for his baggage. The prosecution finally abandoned the claim for the loss of life, and the jury, under direction of the court, have awarded the full amount of the other claim.—Boston Daily Advertiser.

Dr. Griscom, of New York, in his annual address before the academy of medicine, a few days ago said of the sanitary police of that city, which is composed of twenty-nine men, that not more than one of them could designate incipient small-pox from the effects of a mosquito bite.

A vote was cast in one of the New York counties for 'Gin Sling' for Governor. 'If the State Commissioners find that Clark and Seymour have a tie vote, should not Gin Sling be credited to Seymour?' asks the Courier and Enquirer.

A contention has arisen, between the U. S. Navy officers at Rio Janeiro, as to the condition of the steam ship Massachusetts. Two surveys have been held, pronouncing her unseaworthy, but Commander Lynch refused to receive them. A third survey had been ordered, and Commander L. denounced the officers on the ship to be cowards. The ship at sea leaked at the rate of 20 inches an hour in heavy weather.

GOVERNOR YOUNG.—It is said that the anomalous position of Brigham Young, the late Governor of the Territory of Utah, attracts considerable attention in Washington. Mr. Young's term of office expired on the 29th of September, and no successor has as yet been appointed. He still acts as Governor, however, claiming the office by divine right as the head of the church, and declares that he will allow no other person to fulfill the duties which he has been accustomed to discharge.

A returned Californian, who was stopping at the Irving House, N. Y., last Friday night, was so exceedingly polite to one of the many females who are "caught out after dark" on Broadway, as to tender his services to see a belated lady home. His kindness was accepted and in time he was invited in, and introduced to a number of ladies where he passed the evening. On returning to his hotel he found himself released of gold and bank bills to the tune of $3000.

THE AMERICAN PARTY IN PENNSYLVANIA.—A Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Commercial says it is now conceded upon all hands, that the Know Nothings will have a large majority in the House of Representatives of that State, while the Democrats will be in possession of two majority in the Senate—consequently, upon joint ballot, a United States Senator will be elected by the Know Nothings, consisting of Whigs and Democrats conjoined.

DANGER OF TRUSTING YOUR WIFE.—The editor of the Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate, is a democrat; his wife a whig. Confiding his paper to her management, he recently started on an electioneering tour. The lady reversed the engine, changed the politics of the paper, and the editor hurried home just in time to prevent the removal of the name of his favorite candidate from the columns of the Advocate.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1854.

DR. DEWEY AND THE FUGITIVE SLANDER.—Some of the newspapers are cavilling at Dr. Dewey's denial of the language ascribed to him respecting the fugitive slave law. We do not see anything in Dr. Dewey's statement which should provoke any harshness of remark. All who know anything of his character will accept it as the literal, unvarnished truth. He did not think of the fugitive slave law as we did and now do, and in this he shared a delusion which was unhappily too common, even among the best men. He has vindicated himself from the indecorum, not to call it by a worse name, of the language wrongly ascribed to him, and with this vindication we are satisfied, without going into any discussion of the fugitive slave law, which we believe has now attained its just estimate with all classes of the community.—N. Y. Evening Post.

We pity the man who shared in the 'delusion' of thinking that bill to be any thing else than the essence of injustice and oppression, under the forms of law. All the pretences we get up to be lovers of freedom and advocates of liberty, were shown to be the veriest trash of the mere hypocrite, in the mouths of all who aided and abetted the passage of that contemptible bill; and they are so still in those who willingly aid the execution of an unjust, oppressive, and soulless edict. Dr. Dewey's explanation shall go for all it is worth. It leaves him on his knees, begging slavery not to dissolve the Union, and offering himself and his children, (not his mother,) as a sacrifice to appease the angry goddess. A worshipper so devout ought not to be disturbed, nor even laughed at. If he is satisfied with his explanation, and with the position where it leaves him, let him remain and worship according to the dictates of his own conscience.

RECEIPT OF BREADSTUFFS AND COAL AT BOSTON.

Flour:

From Sept. 1, 1854, to Nov. 16, 1854, 190,000 bbls.

Received same time last year, 240,000 bbls.

Corn:

Received from Sept. 1, 1854, to Nov. 16, 1854, 430,000 bushels.

Received same time last year, 528,000 bushels.

Coal:

1853—100,000 tons; 1854—129,000 tons.

Decrease—50,000 bbls. Flour; 100,000 bushels Corn.

Increase—54,000 bushels Wheat; 29,000 tons Coal.

Choice brands of Flour are now selling in this city at $12 per barrel, and such is the reputed small stock that the coming winter we may have to pay from $12 to $15 per bbl.—With flour at these rates, and wood at $10 per cord, and coal at $9 per ton, the prospect for poor people is rather discouraging. All other kinds of provisions and vegetables are also much higher than usual.—Boston Trans.

In the face of these high prices, the distilleries of our country are consuming thousands of bushels of bread corn every day. Thus the poor sot who drinks whiskey, treats his family to a double starvation; first by spending on his dram half the money that would buy a loaf for them, and secondly by making corn so dear that the loaf is only half the usual size. And thus the great grain distiller helps him do this noble work.

Napoleon II., the oppressor of France, seeing his people about to be hungry, says to the grain distiller, Put out your fires! burn no more corn. But free drinking American citizens say, Heap on the fuel! Give us whiskey; and let the children beg bread or starve.

Is this a fancy sketch? Not much fancy; more truth than poetry.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT.—The Charlestown, Mass. Advertiser says:

On this 22d day of November, A. D. 1854, eight days before Thanksgiving, we publicly declare our preference for Samuel Houston, as our next President, provided that Death, that dread enemy who is more powerful than Mexicans, does not carry him away in the interim. We call all our subscribers, and those persons who persist in purchasing trancient copies, to bear witness to this our declaration, as we intend to make application for a well-filled manager in the official stalls of his administration, as a reward for thus early declaring our attachment. Pease is so stingy, that we have ceased to look to him for a grain of official manna, and therefore with the dilated eye of hope, have concluded to gaze forward and see brighter prospects in the future. "Hope on, hope ever," that's our motto. Sam Houston is to be in Boston on the 22d of February next, when we intend to call and present him with a copy of the Advertiser containing his nomination, and select the fattest political situation we can think of by that time.

We can hardly claim an office on the score of nominations; but Uncle Toby predicted his probable election to the presidency, before Texas got into the Union. This prediction is likely to be fulfilled, if he gets the American nomination.

SIGNS.—Somebody asks the editor of the Boston Bee, Who is to be our next President? To which the editor makes answer,—

From the signs of the times, and from the most reliable information gathered from every section of this vast confederacy, we have no hesitation in saying, that to the best of our knowledge and belief, the next President of these United States will be SAM!

MR. SOULE.—It now appears, from the Paris Moniteur, that the French Government has not gone forward and backward about Mr. Soule. The instructions were and are to this effect:

"If Mr. Soule meant to remain in France, the privilege would not be accorded to him; but that, if he were simply to pass through our territory to go to his post at Madrid, his passport (titre de voyage) would be vised for that destination. Thus the road was free for the Minister of the United States to Spain; but residence was interdicted to Mr. Soule, in conformity with the discretionary power which the law confers on the government with respect to foreigners without any exception, and which by its nature is out of the reach of any contestation."
